Hoffa Visions Nationwide Pact

Los Angeles —UPI— Teamsters boss James Hoffa said Sunday the union was willing to spend all of the $38 million in its treasury to secure a nationwide contract for truck drivers and dockmen when the present pact expires in 1961.

In a speech to 600 members of the Los Angeles Freight Drivers Local 208, the Teamsters president also stressed the need for a "master agreement to replace the 25,000 separate contracts now in existence."

"As long as we stick together we'll get it," he said. "The common carrier group is fearful that the larger and stronger we grow, the more easier it will be to shut them down."

Hoffa told the members of Southern California's largest Teamster local that the nationwide contract was needed to meet challenges
