GOLD HILL Oil Painting Purchased

By MRS. CLYDE KELL
Gold Hill—Mrs. Ada Andrews said that a Medford business man has bought one of her paintings which hung at the Medford Public library. The oil painting, entitled "October Baby," is the scene of a mare and a colt in a pasture near Jacksonville, she said.
Mrs. Andrews is the newly-elected president of Southern Oregon Society of Artists.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gascon and her mother, Mrs. George Dorman, returned Dec. 12 from a three-day trip to Willets, Calif., where they were guests in the home of Mrs. Dorman's sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Dorman. En route home they stopped in Fortuna, Calif., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lathrop and other relatives.

Mrs. Earl Moore will be hostess for the Past Noble Grand's Dec. 23 meeting at her home, at which time the annual Christmas party will be held. The meeting night was changed to Tuesday evening of that week because of Christmas falling on the regular meeting night. Mrs. Walter McLean will be co-hostess.

Mrs. Clarence Parsley was hostess for the annual Christmas party and meeting of Amethyst Rebekah Friendship club at her home on Sardine creek, last Monday evening, Dec. 15. Mrs. Harry Quinn, vice-president of the club, conducted the business session.

Gifts were exchanged and there was a frosty white tree decorated with pink Christmas ornaments. Mrs. Delos Walker will be hostess for the January meeting, at her home on Second ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Quinn returned recently from a two-week vacation in San Diego, Calif., where they visited relatives and friends.

They were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lipscomb in Encinitas. They went to Palm Springs and Knotts Berry farm, as well as many other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Glea Anderson and daughters Shirley and Jeannie of Weed, Calif., were recent week end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Morrow and son, Donald, and their daughter, Miss Toni Morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Parsley returned to their home on Sardine creek after a two week's vacation in San Diego, Calif., where they visited relatives.

Richard Herrington, Gold Hill, and two Medford youths, Donnie Bramhall and Skip Morgan presented musical numbers on their steel and standard electric guitars, respectively, at the United Secretary league held Thursday evening, Dec. 11, at Mon Desir.

Mrs. Agnes Gray is now residing in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cline on Highway 99 north of Gold Hill. Her new address is Rt. 1, Box 195.

Mrs. Al (Helen) Fink is convalescing at her home on Second ave. after being confined to the Sacred Heart hospital in Medford for 10 days. Mrs. Fink suffered a broken knee when two dogs dashed in front of her as she was about to enter her own gate, causing her to fall on the pavement, she said.

Mrs. Paul Thompson and Miss Jennie Lou Thompson have returned to their home here following a week-end trip to Seattle, Wash. They took Mrs. Thompson's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Philip (Pete) Thompson and two youngsters, Kevin and Pamela, to their home in Seattle. Mrs. Thompson and the children had been visiting several weeks in southern Oregon.

John Mason from Sheridan, Wyo., is visiting in the homes of his nephews, W. G. Fink on Sams creek and Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Fink on Second ave. Following his visit here he will go on to Whittier, Calif., to spend the winter months, visiting relatives there.

Slight Decline In Production Seen for 1958

Washington—UPI—Despite the recession, the nation's industrial production in 1958 is expected to fall only slightly below last year's record high. The Commerce Department estimated Sunday that total U.S. production of goods and services will be $437 billion by the end of the year, compared with the 1957 output of $440 billion. With adjustments made to compensate for higher prices in 1958, the drop would amount to 3 per cent—less than had been anticipated in view of the economic slump this year.

The government report came as Rep. Henry S. Reuss (D-Wis.) called on Congress to set up an advisory council to hold hearings on proposed price and wage hikes in major industries.

Reuss also announced that he would introduce a bill to require greater consultation on economic policy matters between the President and the semi-independent Federal Reserve Board.

He said the President "shrugs off a large part of his economic responsibility" by leaving the attack on inflation primarily to the Reserve Board. His statement added that measures taken by the board to curb inflation have proved largely ineffective.

Sophia Loren To Stay Home Christmas

Hollywood—UPI—Italian actress Sophia Loren, here on a movie-making assignment, said today she and her husband Carlo Ponti plan to celebrate their first Christmas in the United States by staying in their Beverly Hills home. "Neither Carlo nor I like parties or noise and this applies more so to Christmas time," the actress said.

Dewey Suffering From Influenza

Palm Springs, Calif.—UPI—Former New York Gov. Tom Dewey was reported "resting comfortably" at Palm Springs Desert hospital today for treatment of influenza.

A hospital spokesman said the one-time Republican presidential candidate possibly would be released today or Tuesday.

Dewey was stricken while visiting at the home of drug company executive Justin Cart in nearby Palm Desert. He was admitted to the hospital Sunday with what at first was believed to be pneumonia.

Ex-Miss America Goes on Honeymoon

Palm Springs, Calif.—UPI—Marian Ann McKnight, 22, Miss America of 1957, was honeymooning today with Army Pvt. Gareth Carmody, 23, of South Carolina.

The South Carolina beauty and Carmody were married in this desert resort Sunday in a simple civil ceremony attended by several friends.
