

Morris Looks To Pro Season Again

"I'm looking forward to it again." That's what Jack Morris, ex-Medford high star, had to say yesterday when quizzed concerning his professional football plans.

Morris, one of Medford Black Tornado's all-time greats, was a defensive back this fall for the Los Angeles Rams of the professional National Football League.

The griddler, who is taking it easy until after the holidays, has been a visitor at the home of his sister, Mrs. R. J.

JACK MORRIS Eyes More Pro Ball

Camden, Gold Hill. Jack reported that he and his wife will spend Christmas at the home of Mrs. Morris's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tesque, Roseburg.

Morris said that he plans to "beat the brush" for a job after the holidays, looking around western Oregon, including Eugene and Medford. He stated that he had decided against going to school this winter. Jack has a bachelor of science degree from University of Oregon where he was varsity football and track man for three seasons each.

Strictly Defense The ex-Tornado was in the line-up in all 18 of the game's Rams played this season, starting in all but two of them. He reported that he went the full route on defense in 14 contests. Morris said that he did not see a bit of offensive duty and was not taught the offensive plays. He worked on defense the entire time, indicating that is what the Rams had in mind when he was drafted.

Jack's main opportunities to carry the ball were on punt returns and pass interceptions. He snared six enemy aerials during the season, running one of them, against the Baltimore Colts for a touchdown.

Morris said he was "real fortunate" in avoiding injuries, not even getting a hard bruising. He pointed out that defensive backs "don't take the beating" those on offense do.

South Bend, Ind. —(UPI)— Joe Kuharich will get first hand information today about prospects for his first Notre Dame football team, and it's likely the outline will predict a rocky path to return to undefeated grid greatness.

Kuharich was to come to the campus to interview the assistants of the ousted Terry Brennan and attend a press luncheon to discuss the future. He'll probably also view a few films of 1958 Irish games.

But "it's unlikely the films or the assistants will be able to give him a bright picture for his second tour as a college coach. The 1959 Irish who were main cogs in the 1958 eleven which won 6 of 10 games, a record poor enough to induce the discharge of Brennan.

Kuharich was to confer with all of Brennan's helpers. Among them were two former college head coaches who earlier were classed among the contenders for the head coaching job—Bernie Crimmins, once a tight coach at Indiana, and Hugh Devore, head coach of Dayton and the Philadelphia Eagles before he joined the Irish staff.

Firing Arouses Controversy Meanwhile, the dismissal of Brennan aroused considerable controversy across the nation.

At Baton Rouge, Paul Dietzel of Louisiana State university, who was "Coach of the Year" termed Notre Dame's action a "disgrace to the school."

Members of the Notre Dame team in Santa Clara, Calif., for the Shrine game called the firing "rotten."

Kuharich quit the Washington Redskins with four years remaining under his five-year contract in order to accept a four year pact with the Irish. It was possible that he might retain some of Brennan's assistants after today's interviews, and if so, he might name part of his staff at today's luncheon.

These licenses are now available at all license agents throughout the state and the game commission's Portland office, 1634 S. W. Alder. Resident license fees remain the same as last year, $4 for an angling license, $4 for a hunting license, or $7 for a combination hunting and fishing license. Juvenile hunting and/or fishing licenses remain at $2 for persons from 14 to 17 years of age.

All license agents are required by law to charge 25 cents for each license of $5 or more and 10 cents for each license under $5. This additional charge by the agents is to help defray their time and expense in handling hunting and fishing licenses.

Trophy Earned In Pin Tourney

Dave Guches and Jack Fowler had a 1104 total in doubles in the Kiwanis Junior High league on Saturday and will receive trophies for their participation in the Medford Bowling lanes junior Christmas tournament.

John Hay and Dennis Salvers were second with 1097. Mike Davis had high game with 198 and high series with 542. Fowler picked a 4.5, 7 split.

McLoughlin Wins 32-12

McLoughlin seventh graders held North Grants Pass back with a tight defense and ball-hacked its way to a 32-12 win yesterday in the South Grants Pass gymnasium. The Macs edged ahead during the first quarter with a score of 4-3. The game was tied 9 all at the half.

The local seventh-graders went on to give it the big push in the second half with a good tight defense and repeatedly snatching the ball off the boards. The Macs allowed North Grants Pass only three points in the second half.

Iowan Captain Non- Starter But Inspirational Leader

By ALEX KAHN Pasadena, Calif.—UPI—A kid from the toughest section of Youngstown, Ohio, who became captain of the Iowa football team and then had to step aside this season for a younger player is the inspirational leader of the Hawkeyes.

He is John Nocera who as a sophomore started in the Rose Bowl game two years ago against Oregon State. But this year against California he may see the starting assignment go to rugged Don Horn.

"It's a thrill to be back for my second Rose Bowl game whether I get to start or not," Nocera said during a breather between practice sessions at the East Los Angeles Stadium.

"Everything seemed strange two years ago. Iowa had never been to a Rose Bowl game and we didn't know what to expect or how to get organized for it. But this time we slipped into the routine the minute we stepped off the plane.

"And when the school arranged for our wives to go along that really made it wonderful."

Nocera is one of 14 players on the Iowa squad who is married. Coach Forest Evashevski insisted that the married players should be permitted to bring along their wives and his views prevailed.

"You ask what sort of a squad we have this year? It's a team of young guys with guts and heart who are receiving great coaching," Nocera said. "It may sound a little corny but it was desire that made us a winning team. We worked as a unit and no man was out for personal glory."

"See Randy Duncan over there? He's always telling the coaches to use Mitch Ogiego more and he spends a lot of time showing Mitch his passing tricks. That's what I mean."

Nocera, nicknamed "The Nose" by his teammates, readily admits he has had to fight for his playing time because of the brilliance of Horn.

"That guy should be an All-America next year. He's been terrific this season. And I'm glad of it. Without him we might not have been the Rose Bowl team."

Take the words of quarterback Nick Pietrosante of Notre Dame and Coach Milton Bruhn of Wisconsin. They both participated in games against the Hawkeyes in which they lost in the last half—possibly because they didn't stick to the ground.

"That Iowa club has four of the fastest halfbacks I ever saw in my life," said Pietrosante, who was calling the signals when his club got licked, 31-21.

"But I don't think Iowa was the strongest team we met. I thought Purdue had a better club.

Not Hot Defensively "However, that Randy Duncan is really something. And he has great ends to catch his passes.

"We found that you could run against them, but if you try to pass they have those four speedy backs who pick off your aerials. I think it will be a high-scoring game. Iowa doesn't have the greatest defense in the world and I think it will be matter of which team scores the most. But I don't agree with those 18-point odds in any bowl game. This one has to be closer than that."

Bruhn, who had a fine year at Wisconsin, agreed in most instances with Pietrosante.

"We ran against them real good," said Bruhn. "We had a 9-0 lead at the half and we might have won if we had not booted a couple of good chances to score. But they came back the last half to beat us 20-9.

Scoring Sets Them Afire "They are an inspirational football team. Once they score, they just seem to catch on fire and gain momentum from there on in. They have a fine ball club—and especially fine on offense."

Pietrosante and Bruhn are here as members of the East team for the annual Shrine classic next Saturday.

Fish Regulation Hearing Jan. 9

Portland — Oregon's fishing regulations for 1959 will be tentatively set following a public hearing on Friday, Jan. 9. The hearing will be held at the game commission's Portland office, 1634 S. W. Alder st., and is scheduled to begin at 10 a.m.

During the hearing, winter and summer angling rules for all game fish will be covered. Following a two-week interval and publication of the tentative rules, a second hearing will be called on January 23 by the commission after which the final regulations for the 1959 season will be adopted.

All persons interested are invited to attend.

Butte Falls Hoopsters Top Scoring

Butte Falls — Butte Falls, at the bottom of the standings without a loss in its three games, nevertheless has three players among the top four scorers in the Southern Oregon Independent Basketball league.

Darwin Moore, Butte Falls, with 48 counters is the scoring leader, according to statistics compiled by league president Harry Chipman.

Bob Serak, Hawkinson Tire Tread, ranks second with 41. Jim Irwin, Butte Falls, is next 34 and his brother, Bill Irwin, ranks fourth with 32.

Hawkinson's is team scoring pacer with 203 tallies, an average of 67.6 per game. Riddle and Southern Oregon college junior varsity are tied for defense honors. Riddle foes have totaled 138 points, an average of 46 a game. The junior Raiders allowed 46 in the one game they've played.

Next game in the league will be Riddle at Grants Pass on Jan. 7, unless GP and the SOC team make up a postponed fray in the meantime.

Bill Veek May Buy White Sox

Chicago —(UPI)— Perpetual idea-man Bill Veek, who spurred Cleveland attendance into the millions and put a midget on the St. Louis Browns, today eyed the Chicago White Sox.

Veek, former head of both Indians and Browns, said he had "discussed" buying controlling interest in the Sox from Mrs. Dorothy Rigney, who with her brother, Charles Comiskey, owns the ball club.

Roy Egan, Mrs. Rigney's attorney, said there "is merit" to such talk.

"We discussed it with Mrs. Rigney's representatives," Veek said. "Any other statements will have to come from them."

A White Sox spokesman said such negotiations "were not a club matter" and he had not been authorized "to make any comment on the situation."

AMERICAN LEAGUE United Press International The Hershey Bears are sitting on top of the American Hockey league today, after winning a couple of "squeakers" over the week end.

The Bears nipped the Springfield Indians, 2-1, at Springfield Sunday night, after climbing into the top spot Saturday with a 3-1 triumph over Providence.

In other Sunday night games, the Buffalo Bisons crushed the Cleveland Barons, 7-2 and the Rochester Americans nosed out the Providence Reds, 4-3.

Boxer Risks Title In Fight With NBA

New York —(UPI)— Sugar Ray Robinson risked his middleweight crown today in a fight with the National Boxing association.

The angry champion announced he would ignore the NBA's order to sign before Jan. 11 for a title defense, "and they can vacate the title if they want to."

At Mullens, W. Va., Dr. Ward Wylie — president of the NBA — said Sugar Ray's title will be vacated on Jan. 11 "unless he can show good cause why he has not signed for a defense, or that he is making an honest effort to sign."

The Jan. 11 deadline had been set in a letter written to Robinson on Dec. 17 by Arch Hindman, NBA executive secretary. Hindman made public the letter at Hagerstown, Ind., over the weekend.

Robinson, 38, hasn't defended during the nine months since he recaptured the 160-pound diadem from Carmen Basilio at Chicago, March 25. NBA rules require each world champion to defend at least once every six months against a leading contender.

Sugar Ray's revolt will be the top subject at the New York meeting of the NBA executive committee on Jan. 11, President Wylie said. He added, "we do hope that Sugar Ray will cooperate with the NBA and not force us to take any drastic action."

Drastic action, Doctor Wylie said, would be the withdrawal of NBA championship recognition from Robinson, and the order for an elimination tournament to determine his successor.

The Hayward trophy is presented annually to the state's outstanding athlete while the other award goes to the coach, manager or individual who contributes most to sports in the state as a non-participant.

Tentative For February Final date for the banquet has not been set, McLeod said, but the tentative date is for the first week in February. The date and speaker will be announced soon.

This year's banquet will be held at Piluso's Theater restaurant, 8845, S.W. 30th avenue, just north of Barbur boulevard.

McLeod has named Hal Laman general chairman. Limited seating capacity at Piluso's will restrict ticket sales on an advance reservation basis this year. Tickets will be available immediately after the holidays, it was announced by Bill Muifur, reservation chairman.

Nominations should be sent to Carl Cluff, Oregon Journal, secretary of the screening committee.

Hawks Sparked By Lovellette

United Press International Clyde Lovellette, who used to grab headlines regularly, is giving the St. Louis Hawks a triple-threat scoring punch that is making a shambles of the National Basketball association's Western division race.

Lovellette looped in 27 points against Philadelphia Sunday as St. Louis lashed the luckless Warriors, 98-86, for a six-game lead over the Detroit Pistons.

The New York Knickerbockers spoiled Dolph Schayes' record-breaking day by defeating the Syracuse Nationals, 108-94, in the only other NBA game.

Schayes, who scored six baskets, set an all-time NBA field goal mark, surpassing the previous record of 4,097 held by former Minneapolis star George Mikan. The former NYU great now has 4,099 two-pointers.

Ground Play Advised For California

San Francisco —(UPI)— California's best chance to beat Iowa in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1 is to stick to the ground game.
