

GOLD HILL Davis Now in Training

By MRS. CLYDE KELL
Gold Hill—William J. Davis, who enlisted recently in the Navy under the minority cruise program, is now stationed at the Naval Training center, San Diego, Calif. Prior to his enlistment, he attended Crater High school. His parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Davis, and Larry, reside at 1103 Fourth ave., Gold Hill, and his grandmother, Mrs. Iva Lentz on First st.

Gene Governor, who has resided in Santa Rosa, Calif., for some time, has returned to Gold Hill, where he is now living in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Dungey.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lewis returned to their home here last Friday after a week's vacation in San Francisco and Oakland, Calif. While in Oakland they were guests in the home of former residents, Mr. and Mrs. George Gillman. Mrs. Gillman is Lewis' sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas (Roby) Robinson and daughter Robin, who have been residing in Kennewick, Wash., returned to Gold Hill recently where they will make their home on Fourth ave. His mother, Mrs. Louise Robinson, visited with them in Kennewick prior to their return here.

Mrs. Carl Routh, local librarian, said that a dried winter bouquet arranged in an attractive basket has been presented as a gift to the Gold Hill Public library by Mrs. George Dorman.

Mrs. Routh reminded all eighth grade pupils of Hanby school who signed up for a library card at the Medford public library recently that their cards were sent to her, and may be obtained at the Gold Hill library.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bonney have returned to their home on Lampman rd. after spending several weeks in California. Bonney was a patient at the veterans hospital in Oakland for three weeks. In San Rafael, they visited a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilder Hook. Mrs. Bonney was a guest in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lois Liles, and family at Fairfax. Before returning home she also visited her grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Toni Merriman, in Oakland.

The Gold Hill Odd Fellows and Amethyst Rebekah lodges were host to a benefit card party last Saturday to raise funds for the annual community children's Christmas party and program sponsored by the two lodges.

It was announced that the inlaid coffee table would be awarded to Garold Robbins. The table had been donated by James Clement, member of the local IOOF lodge. Attendance gifts were received by Lester Parker and Mrs. Jerry Herrington. They were an oil colored photograph, given by Bob Routh, and a necklace and earring set made by Bill Lowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Phelps, Central Point, and former Gold Hill residents, are parents of twin daughters. The girls have been named Kathy and Karen. The couple have two sons, Jeffie and Ricky.

The paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Phelps, who now reside in Central Point also are former residents of this area. The maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Rigsby, live in California.

Women of the Sams Valley Gospel church said clothing of all kinds is needed for a project of the church to help underprivileged people in Mexico. Anyone having items of clothing they wish to donate for this purpose may contact Mrs. Floyd Sherman at ULrick 5-1073. She or another member of the group will pick up articles donated. Women of the church will make needed repairs to the clothing before sending it to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Berger, missionaries in Mexico, who will distribute the clothing.

Mr. and Mrs. Soren M. Christensen, well-known Gold Hill couple, received a telephone call from their son, Lt. George Christensen, early Monday to inform them of the birth of their 10th grandchild. Lt. and Mrs. Christensen became parents of a girl, Karen Jean, Dec. 22, at Ft. Rucker, Ala.

A capacity crowd of parents and friends of Patrick and Hanby pupils were welcomed by Gilbert Mack, principal of the two schools at the annual Christmas program held Dec. 18 in Hanby school gymnasium. The program was opened with choral numbers, with more than 30 Patrick first grade youngsters participating under the direction of Mrs. Marie Brannock who played the piano for the Patrick portion of the program.

Christmas cards in song and picture were presented by second and third grade students. Thirty-two voices made up the choir for the vocal selections, sung as the tableaux were depicted, with Donald Sizemore, third grade student, as the reader. Carol Rosecrans was soloist.

Several selections were played by the advanced Hanby school band under the direction of Charles Cook, band director, between the Patrick and Hanby school programs, including a special clarinet arrangement of his presented by eight clarinet pupils in the band.

The Hanby portion of the program opened with a professional and chorus of nearly 90 voices, with Mrs. Ruth Brewster, the school's music teacher, at the piano.

Dave Force, seventh grade student was narrator for the two-act play, "Christmas at Whitman Mission, 1845," presented by a cast of seventh and eighth grade boys and girls and three girls from the lower grades. Mrs. Whitman was played by Karen Peterson; Doc. Whitman, Ogden Kellogg; Johny, Sherman Kiger; Cathy, Loraine Hixson; younger children in the cast were Linda Mitchell, Judy Fisher, and Glenda Callahan.

Following the play, directed by Deane Roberts, seventh grade teacher, a violin obligatto was played by Mrs. Paul Molloy, with Mrs. Brewster at the piano.

Choral numbers by the choir concluded the school program. Santa Claus distributed candy to youngsters.

A large decorated tree at the rear of the gymnasium completed the atmosphere for the affair. Mrs. Roland Rosecrans and Mrs. Hamilton Ecker were in charge of decorating the tree. Mrs. Rosecrans supervised the treats, which were purchased for the occasion by the Gold Hill Parent Teacher association.

General chairman for the program was Mrs. Shirley Anderson. Those in charge of costumes and properties were Mrs. Vera Steele, Mrs. Ida Von Buskirk, Mrs. Cora MacDonald, Mrs. Barbara Toner, Mrs. Wilda Franks, and Mrs. Mildred Black.

Allen Hill, Deane Roberts, Al Beman, and Charlie Foote directed the lighting and stage sets. Gilbert Mack, Mrs. Beman and Mrs. Anderson were responsible for publicity for the event, and Mrs. Barbara Charles was in charge of seating the audience.

School parties were held in each of the class rooms.

About 275 Patrick and Hanby students had the annual free turkey dinner served at noon in the Hanby school's cafeteria. Members of the local PTA assisted Mrs. Frances Throne and Mrs. Edith Thompson with serving. They were Mrs. Paul Thompson, Mrs. Allen Hilkey and Mrs. Floyd Taylor. The PTA unit contributed a portion of the funds required by the cafeteria to enable the school to provide a free Christmas dinner for the children again this

TOO MUCH TROUBLE

Marion, Ill.—The Marion Junior Chamber of Commerce accepted and then rejected a building offered to the Jaycees without charge by the Williamson County Airport Authority for use as a clubhouse. The group turned down the offer when it learned the concrete block building would have to be removed from the airport piece by piece.
