The Medical Roundup by Walter Alvarez

Our Ancient and Outdated Legal Ideas about the Insane. Today, when university, business, and some government departments are spending...

years later, we are still asking juries to base their decisions on the ancient and long-discredited idea that a man is insane if, at the time of his crime, he did not know right from wrong...

Why cannot we give up the ancient idea of "punishment to fit the crime," and do something instead to protect the public from known deprecators who steal from us several billions a year?

East German Reds Renew Warnings

Berlin—UP—Moscow and the East German Communists rattled Soviet inter-continental rockets Monday with a new warning of war if the West refuses to bow to Communist demands to get out of Berlin.

Strange As It Seems

Sometimes I wonder why we in America go to such extreme lengths to try to save human mad dogs from the chair or the noose or the gas chamber. We think it wonderful to send them to a mental hospital. But this week I was talking to an able psychiatrist about the special wing in one of our state mental hospitals where they have in their charge over 300 murderous men.

EMIL BERLINER—GERMAN ELECTRICAL ENGINEER, INVENTED THE MICROPHONE IN 1877—40 YEARS BEFORE THE FIRST RADIO BROADCASTING STATION WAS ESTABLISHED!

Dr. Horace E. Wheeler tells me that he has found paraffin wax plugs the best for avoiding noise. The plug must be warmed and softened before it is fitted in to the outer ear canal.

Dr. Alvarez hopes his readers will understand that it would be impossible for him to attempt to answer requests for information or to attempt to diagnose by mail.
