

LT. COMMISSIONER & MRS. SAMUEL HEPBURN
Visit Local Salvation Army

Western Territorial Commander Visits Local Salvation Army

For the first time in many years the Territorial Commander of the Salvation Army will visit the local corps. Lt. Commissioner and Mrs. Samuel Hepburn, San Francisco, will be visitors for the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday at the Salvation Army of Medford.

The 11 Western states, Hawaii and Alaska. They will be accompanied here by the Oregon and Southern Idaho Divisional Commander, Lt. Colonel and Mrs. John Erickson, Portland.

As Territorial Commander Commissioner Hepburn commands more than 800 officers and 1,700 civilian employees at 170 Corps centers. Included in these services are hospitals, rehabilitation centers for men, community centers for young people and children, emergency disaster operations, participation in USO services to military personnel, police court work, aid to prisoners' families and maternity homes.

New Officers for Medford Adventist Sabbath School

Medford Seventh-day Adventist church Sabbath school members will meet at 9:30 a.m. Saturday under the leadership of newly elected officers for the year of 1959.

General superintendent of the Sabbath school will be Mrs. Malcolm McCarty assisted by William Riemer and Dr. Virgil Mohr.

Secretarial positions for the year will be held by Mrs. Robert Joffile, Mrs. Harvard Bresse and Miss Diane Mohr. Mrs. Inez Smith has been elected organist and Harold Yost will be chorister in the senior division.

Working with the senior officers will be the leaders of the various youth divisions including Mrs. Paul Beddoe, cradle-roll leader, Mrs. A. E. Merkel in the kindergartens, Mrs. Robert Mellicke and Robert Molander, primary, and Ersel Halsted, juniors.

Believing that regular Bible study is necessary to Christian life and growth, the church stresses daily Bible study in all divisions of the Sabbath school and each week both old and young members are divided into some 40 classes to study selected subjects.

Lessons from the life of the apostle Paul taken from his epistle to the Romans will be studied in the junior and senior divisions for the first quarter of 1959, and the children's lessons will be a continuation of those of last quarter on the life of Jesus.

Guest Speaker At 1st Church of God

The Rev. E. H. Ahrendt, Portland, will be guest speaker at the First Church of God, Haven and Holly sts., tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Ahrendt's message of the evening will be concerned with the matter of divine healing, and there will be opportunity for those wishing to be healed to be prayed for during this service.

Mr. Ahrendt has had many years of experience in pastoring and also in evangelistic work. While a minister he has experienced miraculous answers to prayer on behalf of those who have been in much need of help in both soul and body. He claims no power of his own to bring healing, but recognizes the power of God and His promises.

Talent Church Plans Series on Missions

Talent-A series on missions to be called "Our Search for Concerns" will begin at the Talent First Methodist church Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Clifford R. Miller, former missionary to Africa, will speak and show slides.

The second in the series will include films on Alaska and China with the commission on mission committee in charge. Jan. 25, Mrs. Eileen Baumeister, director of Wesley foundation at Southern Oregon college and former missionary to Austria, will speak on missionary vocations.

A Cappella Choir to Sing At Local Church Sunday

The a cappella choir from George Fox college, Newberg will present a sacred concert at the Friends church Sunday. The entire concert will be sung twice, first at 9:45 a.m. and again at 11 a.m., and will include choral selections from early composers as well as contemporary music, negro spirituals, and a Christmas section. Director of the 36-voice choir is Mrs. Harriet Storaker.

Dr. Milo Ross, president of the college, and Mrs. Ross will accompany the singers. The current tour has taken the choir through the states of Oregon, Idaho, Utah, Colorado, Arizona and California. A dinner will be served to the singers at noon by women of the church.

A new Sunday school class, "What Friends Believe," will begin Sunday, to continue for three months. It will be taught by Dr. Alvin Roberts at the 11 a.m. hour and is open to any who wish to enroll.

Pastor Clynton Crisman and Mrs. Crisman left Tuesday with several young people to attend Mid-Winter Christian Endeavor Convention at Tillamook Air Base. Others in the group included Mrs. Cecil Johnson, Lawrence Roberts, Jereal Brown, Judy Nelson, Karen Wolk-Laniewski, Marjorie Brood, Joyce Klutensbeker, Inez Viers, Suzanne and Carolyn Harmon. They will return today.

Local Pastor to Attend Meeting In New York City

Dr. D. Kirkland West, pastor of First Presbyterian church, will leave next week for New York City where he will attend a meeting of the committee for Stewardship and Promotion of the United Presbyterian church.

During the three day meeting to be held Jan. 7 through 9, the committee will formulate plans for the outreach program of the church at large during 1959. The sessions will be held at the New Yorker hotel where Dr. West will stay while in the East.

MISS JEAN CUNNINGHAM
Minister-Student

Missionary Now Gold Hill Pastor

Gold Hill—"The Compelling Motive" will be the sermon title at the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday by Miss Jean Cunningham, former missionary to Mexico, now minister of the Gold Hill Christian church.

A recent newcomer to Jackson county, Miss Cunningham spent several years doing missionary work on the border and in Mexico. She is now attending Southern Oregon college, Ashland, where she is majoring in secondary education besides her duties as minister of the Gold Hill church she also teaches piano in Ashland where she makes her home.

A daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. J. Frank Cunningham, Winema, Ore, she attended Northwest Christian college, Eugene, where she was graduated in 1949. During the winter of 1951 she toured Mexican missions.

She has assisted other missionaries with their work in the Chihuahua, and Parral, Mexico, areas. Her present plans are to return to mission work in Mexico in 1960. Miss Cunningham, a friend, Mrs. Gloria Jewel, who accompanied her to Mexico, write bulletins to further the emphasis on personal evangelism. The two women have completed a course of study on the subject and mail it to approximately 50 persons and churches.

Adventist Youth To Attend Meeting

Young people from ten southern Oregon Seventh-day Adventist churches, including those of the Medford area will meet Saturday, Jan. 10 at a youth rally to be held in the Grants Pass Seventh-day Adventist church. Purpose of the rally is to emphasize the positive and attractive aspects of Christianity to American youth according to Elder R. C. Schwartz, state director of youth activities for the church.

Elder Schwartz will be featured speaker at the one-day meet. The first service will be held at 3:30 p.m. and the second at 7:30 p.m. Students of Milo academy will present the music for the rally. Over 500 young people are expected to be in attendance.

Episcopal Churches Schedule Epiphany Pageant This Week

Shady Cove—A Epiphany pageant lighting of the Wise-men candles will be presented by the members of the St. Martin's Episcopal church Sunday school Sunday at 8 p.m.

Prospect—The pageant will be also presented Tuesday, Jan. 6 at 8 p.m. at Church of the Good Shepherd, Episcopal. Prospect.

The public is invited to both programs.

Nazarenes to Hold Candlelight Event Sunday at Church

A candlelight communion service will be observed at the First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st. Sunday. The pastor, the Rev. Raymond W. Hurn, will present the communion meditation, "A Look Into the Unknown." Members of the teen-age choir will assist with the service.

International radio broadcast of the Church of the Nazarene, "Showers of Blessing" will be heard at the new time, 10 a.m. beginning Sunday on station KDOV. Formerly the program was heard at 9:30 a.m.

The Sunday morning service will feature music by the male quartet and will be broadcast over station KDOV, at 11 a.m.

Young adults will attend the final session of a seven-week series to discuss the New Testament at 6 p.m. The Christian Service training course, "Know Your New Testament" has been presented by Gerald Gardner, instructor. The course has been registered at the general church schools office in Kansas City and credit will be given those completing requirements for the course.

First Methodists Plan Offering

First Methodist Church begins the New Year with observance of holy communion in the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services. The communion offering will be for Methodist work in Alaska to help with the newly established Methodist churches. Dr. George G. Roseberry's communion meditation will be "Seeking God in the New Year."

The anthem for Sunday will be "God so Loved the World" and the vocal duet for both services is "O Divine Redeemer" sung by Dr. and Mrs. Milton Snow.

The all church annual School of Missions will begin Sunday, Jan. 11. The study this year will be "Christian Concerns of our North American Neighbors" with special emphasis on Alaska and Hawaii. The study books for all departments have arrived and will go on sale Sunday at the coffee hour time. These classes will begin at 5:30 p.m. There will be a snack supper at 6:30 p.m. and the inspirational hour from 7 to 7:30 p.m. Four department studies are offered for the entire family to attend. There will be a nursery for tiny tots.

Eastwood Baptist Tells Sunday Events

The Rev. Richard M. Jones, pastor of the Eastwood Baptist church, North Keene Way drive at Ridgeway, ave., will speak on "Growing Into Wholeness" at the 11 a.m. service Sunday. Guest soloist will be Ronald Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Thompson, who will sing "He Filleth the Hungry."

The Lord's Supper will be commemorated. The chancel choir will lead in the worship of song under the direction of Mrs. Jones. Mrs. Dean Anderson will be at the organ. Nursery care is provided for both the church school and morning worship hours.

The Senior High and Junior High Baptist Youth Fellowships will meet at 6:30 p.m. at the church for their fellowship groups. The evening service begins at 7:30.

Eastwood Baptist church is located north of Hedrick Junior High school and is affiliated with the American Baptist convention. Visitors are welcome to its services.
