

Patton-Douglass Wedding Held in Portland Church

An event of the holiday season in Portland was the wedding of Miss Shirley Douglass to William W. Patton. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adraen E. Douglass, Portland, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. C. Reese Braley, 245 Valley View drive, Medford, and Hamilton Patton, Pasadena, Calif.

Their ceremony took place Saturday, December 27, at Acreage Presbyterian church, with about 200 guests attending. The Rev. John L. Goodenberger read the double-ring rites at two o'clock in the afternoon, and Mr. Douglass gave his daughter in marriage.

Red and white carnations, red poinsettias and candelabra holding tapers decorated the church.

The bride wore a gown of white peau de soie fashioned with full, floor-length skirt, fitted bodice with oval neckline and long sleeves. Her finger-tip length illusion veil was held by a crown of seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink poinsettias, pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Mrs. John MacConnell, Portland, was honor attendant for her sister and bridesmaids were Miss Alison Cherry, Los Angeles, and the Misses Gayle and Virginia Harris, nieces of the bridegroom from Roseburg. They wore gowns of peau de soie, Mrs. MacConnell's of sea green and the other attendants of amulet green, designed on princess lines with velvet bands at the empire waistlines. Their bouquets were crescent-shaped arrangements of white carnations and red poinsettias.

Chardel Gibson, Portland, niece of the bride, and Kathleen Casey, Medford, niece of the bridegroom, were flower girls. They wore princess style frocks of amulet green and carried old-fashioned nosegays.

Louis Powell, Corvallis, was best man for Mr. Patton, and ushers were George Douglass, Portland, the bride's brother, Richard L. Hay, Wichita, Kan., and Wallace G. Iverson, Medford.

The reception was held in the church.

Of interest is the fact that the newlywed pair drank the traditional toast from an antique silver wedding cup. Made in Germany, the cup is a Victorian reproduction of the wedding cups used in the Renaissance period and is fashioned with double bowls in order that the bride and bridegroom may drink at the same time.

The cup was a gift from Dr. Margery Bailey, Palo Alto, Calif. Dr. Bailey is director of education for the Oregon Shakespearean festival, Ashland, and the bridegroom is the festival's general manager. His bride, an actress, was a member of the 1958 company.

The newlyweds flew to Mexico for their honeymoon and upon their return will be at home at 245 Valley View drive for the present. For traveling the bride wore a black and gold wool suit.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Stanford university.

Among the wedding guests were the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Braley, Medford; his father, Hamilton Patton, Pasadena, and Mrs. Patton; his brother, Kenneth Patton, Pasadena, Calif.; his sister, Mrs. Gerald Casey, Medford; a brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Harris, Roseburg; the Misses Shella and Sandra Schuerman, Mary Lou Hanke and Marjorie Simonsen, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Angus L. Bowmer, Ashland, and J. P. Douglass, grandfather of the bride from Tonasket, Wash.

The bride's parents were hosts for a dinner following the wedding rehearsal. Members of the families, the wedding party and out-of-town guests were present.

Second Lt. and Mrs. William David Seymour (Memory Lane photo)

Sue Carolyn Thorpe Wed To Lt. William Seymour

Ashland-Trinity Episcopal church was the setting December 21 for the wedding of Miss Sue Carolyn Thorpe and Second Lt. William David Seymour. The Rev. John L. Thompson officiated at the five o'clock afternoon rites. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. C. F. Thorpe, Ashland. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Gwen Seymour, 114 Granite street, and William Seymour, Columbia hotel.

White chrysanthemums decorated the church for the wedding while holly and white satin bows marked the ends of the pews.

Mrs. Lois Windsor was soloist.

The bride wore a white embroidered net frock over taffeta in ballerina length. Her veil of illusion was held by a lace and seed pearl cap and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis. George Thorpe gave his sister in marriage. Mrs. Ralph Beardsley, Billings, Mont., was honor attendant, while bridesmatron and maids were Mrs. Richard Chambers, Miss Suzanne Hughes, and Miss Sharon Kaiser, both Hayward, Calif. They wore sheaths of red velvet and carried white fur muffs trimmed with holly and red ribbons.

Ray Thiess, Coos Bay, served as best man while Thomas Jacobson, Coos Bay; Charles Crandall, Medford, and Larry Maurer, Cave Junction, seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Holly and white chrysanthemums decorated the rooms for the event. Mrs. George Thorpe and Mrs. Richard Thorpe, sisters-in-law of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake. Pouring the coffee and punch were Miss Jayne Killingsworth, and Miss Sally Devers, both Medford.

For her daughter's wedding and reception Mrs. Thorpe chose a blue floral print suit with light blue hat. Mrs. Seymour wore a navy blue suit with white accessories. Their corsages were of white rosebuds.

The couple traveled to Eugene on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a blue wool jersey sheath dress with matching hat and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended Southern Oregon college and is a teacher in the Hayward, Calif. elementary schools. She has been making her home in Hayward. Mr. Seymour is serving with the United States Marine Corps at Quantico, Va.

Wares Entertain Holiday Guests

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Ware and son Richard, 181 Winema way, had as their guests during the holidays, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Kimball and son Gerald and daughter Colleen, of Springfield, Ore. Gerald Kimball is a sophomore at the University of Oregon.

Other guest at the Ware home were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Morris and daughter, Miss Carol Morris, also Springfield.

Lady Elks Plan Dessert, Cards

Dessert luncheon will be served at the Tuesday, January 6 meeting of the Lady Elks at the Medford Elks Temple party lounge at 1 p.m. Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. L. J. Schade, Mrs. L. W. Buonocore and Mrs. Tom Anderson.

All wives and widows of Elks are invited to attend.

Lions Hold Party In Eagle Point

Eagle Point - The annual New Year's eve party of the Eagle Point Lions was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Geren, Agate road, Eagle Point, Wednesday with 28 guests attending. Cards were played during the evening. Flowers and greenery decorated the serving table for the refreshments.

Past Matrons

Reames Past Matrons club will meet with Mrs. R. A. Stewart, 3004 Delta Waters road Monday, January 5. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. L. D. Hodgkins, Mrs. F. S. Bean and Mrs. E. M. Lovell.

Ekerson-Nichols Rites Held Sunday

Miss Sandra DeVere Nichols became the bride of Arthur Arnold Ekerson in a ceremony held Sunday, December 28, at First Presbyterian church Medford. It was one of the holiday season's largest events, with about 275 guests attending the wedding and 225 at the reception which followed in Girls Community clubhouse.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Nichols, 232 Olwell way, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Ekerson, 42 South Groveland avenue.

Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated for the double-ring rites, held at six o'clock in the evening. James Baker was soloist and the Rev. Kenneth Raymond played the organ music.

The bride's gown was of white tulle with fitted bodice and portrait neckline outlined with embroidered appliques of Alencon lace; the appliques were repeated on the sleeves and over the full skirt which ended in a chapel length train. She carried a white orchid in a nest of white satin ribbon and orange blossoms were knotted in the white maline streamers. With the bouquet the bride carried a Bible which had belonged to her great-grandmother and which is more than 125 years old. Her pearls, brought from Japan, were the bridegroom's gift.

The bride's finger-tip length veil and face veil were held by a cap of rhinestones and pearls.

Five Attendants

Miss Judy Orcutt, Moscow, Ida., a Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority sister, was honor attendant for the bride. The Misses Sandra Montgomery, Sandra Thurston and Karen Morlan, all Medford, were bridesmaids and Miss Louise Ekerson, sister of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid.

The ballerina-length full-skirted gowns were of Christmas red taffeta worn with ribbon headbands and they carried red poinsettias with white maline and red velvet leaves.

Julie Sellick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sellick, was flower girl. She wore a red taffeta frock and carried a basket of red rosebuds and white hellebore, or Christmas roses.

The bride's mother wore a powder blue lace and taffeta gown and her corsage was red rosebuds. Mrs. Ekerson's gown was of peacock blue lace and taffeta and her flower girls wore also red rosebuds.

Mr. Nichols gave his daughter in marriage, and John P. Day was best man for Mr. Ekerson. William B. Clegg

Relatives Visit At Bohrer Home

Relatives of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bohrer, 559 South Keeneway drive, have left for their homes after spending the holidays here. The guests were Mrs. Bohrer's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lowry and family, Borger, Tex., and Mrs. Bohrer's mother, Mrs. Annie Lowry, Fresno, Calif.

The couple's son, Robert Bohrer, student at the University of Oregon Dental college, Portland, has also returned to school after a vacation at home.

Couple Leaves After Visit Here; Dinner Given

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Zundel of Payette, Ida., have returned to their home after a holiday-honeymoon visit with his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Zundel, 26 Almond street.

Richard Esplein, airman third class, will return to Castle Air Force base in Merced, Calif., Monday after spending the holiday here. He is a great nephew of Russell Zundel.

A family dinner and Christmas party was held at the Girls Community club. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Vosika and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Becker, parents of Mrs. Vosika, from Dunsuir, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wood and family, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vosika, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Zundel and family, Medford.

It has been the custom of the family to have a Christmas day dinner at the Girls Community club for the past several years.

Lodge Honors Homer Harvey

Medford Odd Fellow lodge honored Homer H. Harvey at a meeting December 30. Mr. Harvey celebrated his 87th birthday recently.

The honored man, reported by his fellow lodge members as "hale and hearty," spoke of the changes which have taken place since his initiation in 1905 by the lodge to which he still belongs.

A member of Siskiyou canton, Patriarchs Militant, Mr. Harvey wears a 50-year jewel of the Decoration of Chivalry. He is a past noble grand, and has filled many other positions in the subordinate lodge and the encampment.

Couple Returns From Portland

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Howard, 1725 Orchard Home court, have returned from a ten-day visit with their three daughters in Portland.

The Howards' spent part of the holidays with their new granddaughter, Julie Ann, who was born December 23 to their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald H. Knox.

Supreme Queen to Pay Visit

Mrs. Adam T. Neen, supreme queen of the Daughters of the Nile, will pay an official visit to Zuleima temple during a meeting set for Friday, January 9, in Medford.

Mrs. Neen will be honored at a ceremonial to be held at 1:30 p.m. in the Medford Masonic temple, and again at a banquet set for 7 p.m., also in the temple. The banquet is for temple members, their husbands or escorts, and it is expected that about 400 will attend.

Mrs. Morris Boughner is general chairman in charge of arrangements, and Mrs. V. A. Turpin will assist her. Reservations for the banquet may be made by calling Mrs. M. M. Morris, SPing 3-5281.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, will preside for the ceremonies. Mrs. Neen plans to go to Portland this week to attend a meeting of Nydia temple during Mrs. Neen's visit there. Following the ceremonial and banquet here, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a past queen of Zuleima temple, will travel to San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno, Calif., and Reno, Nev., to attend events planned in Mrs. Neen's honor.

Nydia temple of the Nile is the largest of the order branches, having a membership of more than 4,000 women. Zuleima temple for this area has a membership of about 1,800 women.

Branches to Hold Ashland Session

Medford and Ashland branches of the American Association of University Women will meet together for a luncheon Saturday, January 10, at 1 p.m. The luncheon will be at the College Commons in Ashland.

Dr. Arthur Kreisman of the English department of Southern Oregon College will be the speaker. The part to be played by the Fine Arts committee in the Oregon Centennial celebration will be explained.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. John Stong, president of the Medford Branch, SP 3-5867. This should be done not later than Monday evening, January 5.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. M. M. Morris, SPing 3-5281.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, will preside for the ceremonies. Mrs. Neen plans to go to Portland this week to attend a meeting of Nydia temple during Mrs. Neen's visit there. Following the ceremonial and banquet here, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a past queen of Zuleima temple, will travel to San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno, Calif., and Reno, Nev., to attend events planned in Mrs. Neen's honor.

Nydia temple of the Nile is the largest of the order branches, having a membership of more than 4,000 women. Zuleima temple for this area has a membership of about 1,800 women.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. John Stong, president of the Medford Branch, SP 3-5867. This should be done not later than Monday evening, January 5.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. M. M. Morris, SPing 3-5281.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, will preside for the ceremonies. Mrs. Neen plans to go to Portland this week to attend a meeting of Nydia temple during Mrs. Neen's visit there. Following the ceremonial and banquet here, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a past queen of Zuleima temple, will travel to San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno, Calif., and Reno, Nev., to attend events planned in Mrs. Neen's honor.

Nydia temple of the Nile is the largest of the order branches, having a membership of more than 4,000 women. Zuleima temple for this area has a membership of about 1,800 women.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. John Stong, president of the Medford Branch, SP 3-5867. This should be done not later than Monday evening, January 5.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. M. M. Morris, SPing 3-5281.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, will preside for the ceremonies. Mrs. Neen plans to go to Portland this week to attend a meeting of Nydia temple during Mrs. Neen's visit there. Following the ceremonial and banquet here, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a past queen of Zuleima temple, will travel to San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno, Calif., and Reno, Nev., to attend events planned in Mrs. Neen's honor.

Nydia temple of the Nile is the largest of the order branches, having a membership of more than 4,000 women. Zuleima temple for this area has a membership of about 1,800 women.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. John Stong, president of the Medford Branch, SP 3-5867. This should be done not later than Monday evening, January 5.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. M. M. Morris, SPing 3-5281.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, will preside for the ceremonies. Mrs. Neen plans to go to Portland this week to attend a meeting of Nydia temple during Mrs. Neen's visit there. Following the ceremonial and banquet here, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a past queen of Zuleima temple, will travel to San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno, Calif., and Reno, Nev., to attend events planned in Mrs. Neen's honor.

Nydia temple of the Nile is the largest of the order branches, having a membership of more than 4,000 women. Zuleima temple for this area has a membership of about 1,800 women.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. John Stong, president of the Medford Branch, SP 3-5867. This should be done not later than Monday evening, January 5.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. M. M. Morris, SPing 3-5281.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, will preside for the ceremonies. Mrs. Neen plans to go to Portland this week to attend a meeting of Nydia temple during Mrs. Neen's visit there. Following the ceremonial and banquet here, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a past queen of Zuleima temple, will travel to San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno, Calif., and Reno, Nev., to attend events planned in Mrs. Neen's honor.

Nydia temple of the Nile is the largest of the order branches, having a membership of more than 4,000 women. Zuleima temple for this area has a membership of about 1,800 women.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. John Stong, president of the Medford Branch, SP 3-5867. This should be done not later than Monday evening, January 5.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. M. M. Morris, SPing 3-5281.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, will preside for the ceremonies. Mrs. Neen plans to go to Portland this week to attend a meeting of Nydia temple during Mrs. Neen's visit there. Following the ceremonial and banquet here, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a past queen of Zuleima temple, will travel to San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno, Calif., and Reno, Nev., to attend events planned in Mrs. Neen's honor.

Nydia temple of the Nile is the largest of the order branches, having a membership of more than 4,000 women. Zuleima temple for this area has a membership of about 1,800 women.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. John Stong, president of the Medford Branch, SP 3-5867. This should be done not later than Monday evening, January 5.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. M. M. Morris, SPing 3-5281.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, will preside for the ceremonies. Mrs. Neen plans to go to Portland this week to attend a meeting of Nydia temple during Mrs. Neen's visit there. Following the ceremonial and banquet here, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a past queen of Zuleima temple, will travel to San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno, Calif., and Reno, Nev., to attend events planned in Mrs. Neen's honor.

Nydia temple of the Nile is the largest of the order branches, having a membership of more than 4,000 women. Zuleima temple for this area has a membership of about 1,800 women.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. John Stong, president of the Medford Branch, SP 3-5867. This should be done not later than Monday evening, January 5.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. M. M. Morris, SPing 3-5281.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, will preside for the ceremonies. Mrs. Neen plans to go to Portland this week to attend a meeting of Nydia temple during Mrs. Neen's visit there. Following the ceremonial and banquet here, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a past queen of Zuleima temple, will travel to San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno, Calif., and Reno, Nev., to attend events planned in Mrs. Neen's honor.

Nydia temple of the Nile is the largest of the order branches, having a membership of more than 4,000 women. Zuleima temple for this area has a membership of about 1,800 women.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. John Stong, president of the Medford Branch, SP 3-5867. This should be done not later than Monday evening, January 5.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. M. M. Morris, SPing 3-5281.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, will preside for the ceremonies. Mrs. Neen plans to go to Portland this week to attend a meeting of Nydia temple during Mrs. Neen's visit there. Following the ceremonial and banquet here, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a past queen of Zuleima temple, will travel to San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno, Calif., and Reno, Nev., to attend events planned in Mrs. Neen's honor.

Nydia temple of the Nile is the largest of the order branches, having a membership of more than 4,000 women. Zuleima temple for this area has a membership of about 1,800 women.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. John Stong, president of the Medford Branch, SP 3-5867. This should be done not later than Monday evening, January 5.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. M. M. Morris, SPing 3-5281.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, will preside for the ceremonies. Mrs. Neen plans to go to Portland this week to attend a meeting of Nydia temple during Mrs. Neen's visit there. Following the ceremonial and banquet here, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a past queen of Zuleima temple, will travel to San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno, Calif., and Reno, Nev., to attend events planned in Mrs. Neen's honor.

Nydia temple of the Nile is the largest of the order branches, having a membership of more than 4,000 women. Zuleima temple for this area has a membership of about 1,800 women.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. John Stong, president of the Medford Branch, SP 3-5867. This should be done not later than Monday evening, January 5.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. M. M. Morris, SPing 3-5281.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, will preside for the ceremonies. Mrs. Neen plans to go to Portland this week to attend a meeting of Nydia temple during Mrs. Neen's visit there. Following the ceremonial and banquet here, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a past queen of Zuleima temple, will travel to San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno, Calif., and Reno, Nev., to attend events planned in Mrs. Neen's honor.

Nydia temple of the Nile is the largest of the order branches, having a membership of more than 4,000 women. Zuleima temple for this area has a membership of about 1,800 women.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. John Stong, president of the Medford Branch, SP 3-5867. This should be done not later than Monday evening, January 5.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. M. M. Morris, SPing 3-5281.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, will preside for the ceremonies. Mrs. Neen plans to go to Portland this week to attend a meeting of Nydia temple during Mrs. Neen's visit there. Following the ceremonial and banquet here, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a past queen of Zuleima temple, will travel to San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno, Calif., and Reno, Nev., to attend events planned in Mrs. Neen's honor.

Nydia temple of the Nile is the largest of the order branches, having a membership of more than 4,000 women. Zuleima temple for this area has a membership of about 1,800 women.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. John Stong, president of the Medford Branch, SP 3-5867. This should be done not later than Monday evening, January 5.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. M. M. Morris, SPing 3-5281.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, will preside for the ceremonies. Mrs. Neen plans to go to Portland this week to attend a meeting of Nydia temple during Mrs. Neen's visit there. Following the ceremonial and banquet here, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a past queen of Zuleima temple, will travel to San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno, Calif., and Reno, Nev., to attend events planned in Mrs. Neen's honor.

Nydia temple of the Nile is the largest of the order branches, having a membership of more than 4,000 women. Zuleima temple for this area has a membership of about 1,800 women.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. John Stong, president of the Medford Branch, SP 3-5867. This should be done not later than Monday evening, January 5.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. M. M. Morris, SPing 3-5281.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, will preside for the ceremonies. Mrs. Neen plans to go to Portland this week to attend a meeting of Nydia temple during Mrs. Neen's visit there. Following the ceremonial and banquet here, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a past queen of Zuleima temple, will travel to San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno, Calif., and Reno, Nev., to attend events planned in Mrs. Neen's honor.

Nydia temple of the Nile is the largest of the order branches, having a membership of more than 4,000 women. Zuleima temple for this area has a membership of about 1,800 women.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. John Stong, president of the Medford Branch, SP 3-5867. This should be done not later than Monday evening, January 5.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. M. M. Morris, SPing 3-5281.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, will preside for the ceremonies. Mrs. Neen plans to go to Portland this week to attend a meeting of Nydia temple during Mrs. Neen's visit there. Following the ceremonial and banquet here, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a past queen of Zuleima temple, will travel to San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno, Calif., and Reno, Nev., to attend events planned in Mrs. Neen's honor.

Nydia temple of the Nile is the largest of the order branches, having a membership of more than 4,000 women. Zuleima temple for this area has a membership of about 1,800 women.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. John Stong, president of the Medford Branch, SP 3-5867. This should be done not later than Monday evening, January 5.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. M. M. Morris, SPing 3-5281.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, will preside for the ceremonies. Mrs. Neen plans to go to Portland this week to attend a meeting of Nydia temple during Mrs. Neen's visit there. Following the ceremonial and banquet here, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a past queen of Zuleima temple, will travel to San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno, Calif., and Reno, Nev., to attend events planned in Mrs. Neen's honor.

Nydia temple of the Nile is the largest of the order branches, having a membership of more than 4,000 women. Zuleima temple for this area has a membership of about 1,800 women.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. John Stong, president of the Medford Branch, SP 3-5867. This should be done not later than Monday evening, January 5.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. M. M. Morris, SPing 3-5281.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, queen of Zuleima temple, will preside for the ceremonies. Mrs. Neen plans to go to Portland this week to attend a meeting of Nydia temple during Mrs. Neen's visit there. Following the ceremonial and banquet here, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a past queen of Zuleima temple, will travel to San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno, Calif., and Reno, Nev., to attend events planned in Mrs. Neen's honor.

Nydia temple of the Nile is the largest of the order branches, having a membership of more than 4,000 women. Zuleima temple for this area has a membership of about 1,800 women