Newlyweds At Home in California

Mr. and Mrs. David E. Lemos are making their home in Yreka, Calif., following their marriage in that city recently. Mrs. Lemos is the former Miss Mary Lea Savage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Savage, Green Oaks, Seiad Valley, and granddaughter of Mrs. Mable C. Bennett, 128 South Holly street, Medford. Mr. Lemos is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Lemos, Montague, Calif.

The ceremony was held in St. Joseph church November 29 with the Rev. R. J. Connelly officiating at the two o'clock afternoon rites.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white velvet gown and her silver embroidered fingertip length veil was held by a pearl crown. She wore pearl earrings, a gift from the bridegroom, which matched an heirloom pearl locket which the bride's grandfather gave her grandmother 55 years ago. She carried a white orchid and stephanotis on a fan carried by her grandmother at her wedding.

Mrs. William Haas was matron of honor and other attendants were Mrs. Norman Nichols, Mrs. Arnold Creech, Miss Edna Lemos, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Linda Ashcraft. They wore trapeze styled frocks in taffeta of yellow, green, pink, lavender and blue. They all carried colonial bouquets to match their dresses.

Little Linda Lemos was flower girl and Kim Dittner was ring bearer.

George A. Lemos served as best man for his brother and seating the guests were Bruno Salvestro, Hills, Calif., and Lee Roy Deas, Yreka.

Mrs. Mary Tusou was organist and accompanied Mrs. Maurice Dittner, soloist.

Mrs. Savage wore an electric blue suit with white accessories for her daughter's wedding and reception which followed. Mrs. Lemos chose a black velvet dress with matching accessories.

For the reception held at the Yreka Inn a home spun linen tablecloth, made by the bride's great-great-grandmother, covered the serving table. The punch bowl, cut-glass knife rest, and several other items on the table were family heirlooms, formerly belonging to the great-grandmother of the bride. Mrs. L. E. Lull, Medford, cousin of the bride, made and decorated the six-tiered
