Crater Comets Edge Ashland In SO Circuit Cage Starter

Central Point – Crater high opened up its 1959 Southern Oregon conference basketball slate on a victory note Friday night, outlasting the Ashland Grizzlies here 39 to 37.

The victors were out in front most of the way but put in only three tallies in the last quarter. Ashland fell 11 points behind in the third stanza but surged back with aggressive pressing, driving play to narrow the difference and was threatening to overtake the Comets when the final buzzer blasted.

The Comets applied their advantages under the backboards and at the free throw line in gaining the nod. Ashland had a margin of two in field goaling but Crater shot with the greater accuracy.

Loyal Higinbotham paced the Comet point making with 14 but Don Taylor, whose driving play produced seven field baskets for th Grizzlies was high man for the game with 16 total. Bill White and Chuck Turner contributed timely buckets for the Comet triumph and John Burns, White and Turner were leaders in the under-the-back board play. Bob Johnson was top rebound retriever for Ashland.

Tense Quarter

The Grizzly comeback made the final quarter a tense one. Crater entered the period on the long end of 36 to 27 and after a minute of scoreless activity Jim Eldred made it 37 to 27. With Ashland forcing the issue Johnson got a free shot, Taylor a field marker and gifter and Forrest a goal from 12 foot range. That made the score 37 to 33 with 3½ minutes to go.

With 2½ left Higinbotham put in two gift counters for Crater's last points and with 1¾ to go Johnson muffed a Grizzly free try. Then ball hawking Taylor batted the ball from Eldred's hands reand drove in for a goal for 39 to 35 with 45 seconds remaining.

Five seconds later Higinbotham missed a free chance. Ashland got the ball and Johnson plunked a driver with 25 seconds on the clock. Johnson fouled Higinbotham with nine seconds left and Ashland got the rebound on the free heave miss. Gerald Allen cast a long shot from the right side of the court and it was wide of the mark just ahead of closing signal.

White Puts Club Ahead

Ashland had the lead three times in the early going, twice by three points. The Grizlies headed 8 to 7 at the end of the first canto and the front position switched hands five times in the second quarter before Crater went in the lead to stay.

Bill White took a long pass from Dennis Pfaff and put in a short shot for 15 to 14 with 4¼ minutes left in the panel. Turner worked in under the hoop for a goal and Pfaff added a free marker for 18 to 14 with 3½ to go in the period. Burns got a single free toss and Higinbotham a pair for Crater while Taylor shot a field basket and free tally and Gray a long one-hander for Ashland for a 21 to 19 score with one minute left.

White whipped an eight-foot hook shot and then fed Higinbotham for a bucket on an out-of-bounds play and halftime favored Crater 25 to 19.

30 to 19 Bulge

Turner's two goals and a single pointer by Higinbotham gave Crater 30 to 19 edge in the early third quarter. Doug Forrest sank a driver and Taylors two fast break goals for Ashland cutting the difference to 30 to 25. But the Comets had another ballhawk streak and White hit a jump from the side, Pfaff dunked two free shots and Higinbotham swished a long jumper for 36 to 25. Bjork score for Ashland off of Johnson's recovery and feed for the 36 to 27 three-fourth standing.

Crater statistics showed an impressive 13 for 29 for .478 field goal average while Ashland was 15 for 44 and .341. The Comets gained their scoring edge by making 13 of 23 free attempts to the Grizzlies seven for 15.

It was Crater's second win in five games this season and the seventh setback for Ashland which has yet to win.

Crater won the junior varsity game by 43 to 23 with quarter margins of 10 to 6, 18 to 11 and 29 to 14.

Split Nod for Moyer Flabbergasts Writers

By JACK CUDDY

New York – (UPI) – The first TV fight of 1959 apparently will go into the records as a split-decision victory for young Denny Moyer over welterweight contender Gasper Ortega, since there was no official protest today.

Most of the sports writers at the ringside in Madison Square Garden Friday night were flabbergasted by the verdict that gave unbeaten Moyer of Portland, Ore., his 19th straight professional victory in his eastern debut.

That surprise decision followed a late betting-switch that sent 19-year-old Moyer into the ring favored at 6-5. Previously Denny had been an underdog at odds ranging out to 13-5.

Writers Favored Ortega

A poll of 18 writers in the garden disclosed that 16 had Ortega ahead at the finish. The United Press International had the lanky Mexican Indian winning on the New York rounds basis, 7-2-1.

Ortega, weighing 146¾ pounds to 148¾ for brown-haired, baby-faced Moyer, forced the action in every round and landed the harder punches. It appeared in the fifth, seventh and ninth sessions that Denny might be stopped.

However, Referee Arthur Mercante favored Denny, 6-3-1, and Judge Nick Gamboli also had him ahead, 5-4-1. But Judge Artie Aidala, a newspaper photographer, scored for Ortega, 6-3-1.

Pat Callahan, deputy commissioner in charge of the fight, said, "there'll be no investigation that I know of. Everything seemed on the level and we've received no protest."

Nick Corby, Ortega's manager, declared, "we've been robbed now four fights in a row." But he offered no official protest. He added "the cheering for the young kid seemed to sway the officials."

Ortega, 23 and ranked sixth among contenders by The Ring magazine, said, "I think I won the fight with ease. I think I won the first five rounds – every one of them." He, too, threatened no protest.

Moyer said: "It was my toughest fight and I thought I won it, but I was certainly glad when I heard the decision."

FIS Places Sailer First

Bern, Switzerland–(UPI)–The World Ski federation (F.I.S.) Saturday placed Toni Sailer first in the world downhill and giant slalom rankings for the 1959 season, although the Austrian world champion may never race again because of alleged violations of the amateur rules.

The rankings were issued by F.I.S. headquarters here on the basis of performances in 1958.

Sailers' fellow countryman, Karl Schranz, was rated No. 1 in the special slalom and Italy's Carla Marchelli, Austria's Putzi Frandl and Switzerland's Annemarie Waser split the top ratings for the three womens' events.

Bud Werner of Steamboat Springs, Colo., already in Europe to seek revenge for last winter's world championship defeats by the Austrians, was rated third in the downhill, ninth in the giant slalom and 11th in the special slalom.

Americans Penny Pitou of Laconia, N.H., Sally Deaver of Philadelphia, Betsy Snite of Norwich, Vt., and Linda Myers of Bishop, Calif., were ranked among the top 15 women racers.

Riddle Raps IV Cougars

Cave Junction – Riddle defeated Illinois Valley high 52 to 36 Friday evening in a non-loop maplecourt scrape at Riddle.

Lousignont with 18 points and Keele with 13 paced the win. Doug Lewis topped IV scoring with 12.

Illinois Valley had an 8 to 4 first canto gap but Riddle led 25 to 18 at half time and 35 to 24 at the three quarter rest.

Riddle also took the jayvee battle 41 to 31.

USSR Hockey Team Beats U.S.

Minneapolis–(UPI) – Russia's touring hockey team gave the U. S. Nationals an 8-3 hockey lesson Saturday at Williams arena here before 7,766 disappointed but appreciative fans.

The Russians completely dominated the game with their excellent passing and position play.

The game was the second in an eight-game United States tour by the Soviets. Thursday at New York's Madison Square Garden the teams played to a 5-5 tie. On Sunday the same teams conclude their three-game series with an afternoon game at Hibbing, Minn.

Round Table Loses Head and Head Battle to Hillsdale At Santa Anita

Arcadia, Calif. –(UPI)– Round Table, making his first start since becoming the all-time money-winning champion, Saturday lost a head and head battle to Hillsdale in the $56,400 San Carlos Handicap at Santa Anita.

The victory was a heartbreaking one to the 1958 "horse of the year" as he headed Hillsdale in the stretch only to have his opponent come on again and take the lead inside the sixteenth pole. At the wire Hillsdale was in front by about a neck as Round Table never ceased driving.

It was Round Table's first start since he won the money title last October and he carried 132 pounds to Hillsdale's 115 over the seven furlong distance. Eddie Schmidt, coming from far off the pace was third and Seaneen was fourth in the field of 10 starters.

Hillsdale, who a week ago captured the Malibu Stakes at the same distance, Saturday ran the seven-eighths in the good time of 1:21-4/5 and demonstrated he would be a horse to consider in all the major stakes at the meeting.

9-5 Favorite

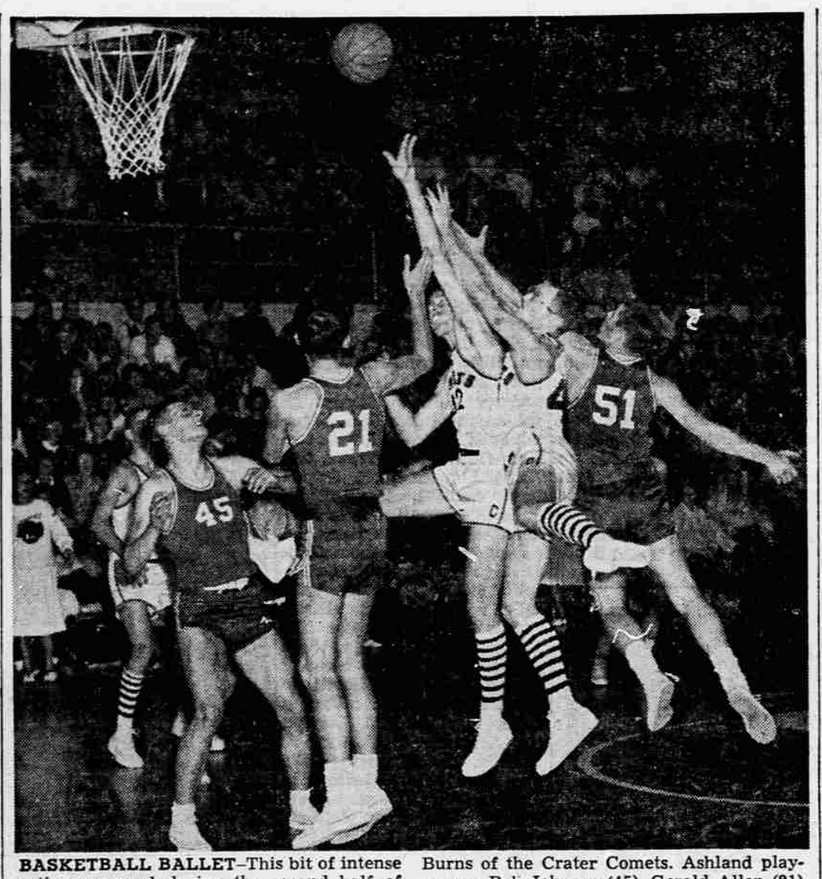
Sent off as second choice in the wagering by the crowd of 48,000, Hillsdale paid $9.60, $4.50 and $3.70 across the board. Round Table had been installed the 9-5 favorite and returned $3.70 and $3.20 for place and show while Eddie Schmidt paid $7.50 to show.

The race was a hard-fought affair from the start as Terrang and Seaneen set the early pace with Hillsdale and Round Table close behind them out of the long seven-furlong chute. As the field neared the half-mile pole, Hillsdale went to the front and Round Table moved into second position only a head back.

But when the horses straightened out in the stretch, Willie Shoemaker booted Round Table to a head lead with Hillsdale clinging stubbornly to him on the inside.

And in the final sixteenth of a mile jockey Tom Barrow was able to pull Hillsdale in front by a head and here he held him to the wire for his second straight stakes win here.

There was no question that the 17-pound pull in weights affected Round Table in his first start but the champion gamely kept on driving in the stirring finish that had the crowd cheering the two horses through the stretch. It was strictly a two-horse finish as Eddie Schmidt was two and a quarter lengths back of the leaders.



BASKETBALL BALLET–This bit of intense action occurred during the second half of the Crater-Ashland high basketball game at Central Point. White-jerseyed players in the center are Bill White, left, and John Burns of the Crater Comets. Ashland players are Bob Johnson (45), Gerald Allen (21) and Doug Forrest (51). Crater was winner 39 to 37 in the Southern Oregon conference tilt. (Knackstedt photo)

On January 9 Medford PAL boxers will square off against the Talent club at the Camp White domicillary for the vets.

Tennis Teams Move to Finals

Miami Beach–(UPI)–Favored teams from the United States and Brazil advanced to the finals Saturday of the Orange Bowl International Junior Tennis Cup matches.

The U. S. team met rugged competition from Chile but defeated the South Americans in the doubles match after splitting singles. Brazil easily eliminated Venezuela, 3-0.

Chile's Omar Pabst edged No. 4 U. S. Junior Paul Palmer, Phoenix, Ariz., in a five-set affair, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4, 2-6, 9-7. But Chuck McKinley, St. Louis, No. 2 P. S. Junior, swept past Ernesto Pabst in three straight sets 6-0, 6-0, 6-1.

McKinley paired with Lawrence Nagles of Los Angeles to defeat the Pabst brothers in the doubles, 6-2, 7-5.

Redmond Quint Beats Eagle Point

Eagle Point — Redmond high cagers, on the strength of a decisive margin at the free throw line, downed Eagle Point 55 to 46 here Friday night in a non-league mix.

The Eagles kept close until the final minutes but fouled in their pressing tactics as the game drew to a close and the Panthers built up their victory gap with the aid of gift tosses.

Redmond put in 21 free markers to eight by Eagle Point which had only four free shot chances in the second half. EP led in field buckets 19 to 17. The Panthers lagged 15 to 11 at the quarter but were on top 30 to 25 at the half and 42 to 39 after three periods.

Van Zitek piled up 19 points, nine at the gift stripe, and Don McCrae 18 for Redmond. Eagle leaders were Jim Nease with 15 and Bill Hubbard with 12.

Larry Smith of EP was banished on personal fouls in the third quarter and teammates Dave Huffman and Hubbard followed him to the side lines for the same reason in th fourth.

Hula Bowl To Feature Joe Kapp

Honolulu –(UPI)– Joe Kapp of California checked in Saturday to replace Iowa's ailing Randy Duncan as quarterback for the Collegians in today's 13th annual Hula Bowl game.

Duncan sustained a bruised kidney while leading the Hawkeyese to a 38-12 victory over Kapp's outfit New Year's day in the Rose Bowl and was advised by a physician not to come here.

In the meantime, Bobby Layne of the Pittsburgh Steelers and Ollie Matson of the Chicago Cardinals indicated that they were unworried over National Football League Commissioner Bert Bell's threat to sue them for breach of contract for not showing up in Los Angeles to join the East squad for the Pro Bowl in Los Angeles Jan. 11.

Both were dropped from the East's roster and Bell said in Philadelphia that all NFL players were obliged by their contracts to play in the Pro Bowl.

Matson said he had decided to play in Honolulu this year to fulfill an obligation which he failed to meet in 1952 when he came here as a senior from University of San Francisco then withdrew after he was advised his appearance might affect his eligibility to compete in the Olympic Games.

"They knew I was coming to Honolulu," the Cards' great ground gainer declared. "I told people I was coming here and no one said anything to me about not making the trip."
