Dr. Durno Gets Committee Spots

Dr. Edwin Durno, state senator-elect from Jackson county, will serve on at least two important committees in the forthcoming legislature, he said today.

Dr. Durno reported that Sen. Walter Pearson, president-elect of the senate, has asked him to serve on the ways and means committee, which is in charge of all state spending, and on the public health committee. He may have one additional committee assignment, Dr. Durno said.

Mrs. Lillith Pickell of Salem will be his secretary, the new senator reported. She is the wife of a Salem attorney, and has had long experience, most recently in the office of Gov.-elect Mark Hatfield, and before that as secretary to veteran State Sen. Rudie Wilhelm, Portland, and with the group which codified Oregon's laws several years ago.

Dr. Durno has obtained an apartment at the Royal Court, only a block from the Capitol, for the duration of the session.

Dave Beck's Trial Resumes in Tacoma

Tacoma, Wash. - Dave Beck's income tax evasion trial was scheduled to resume today after a two-week recess caused partly by the former Teamsters Union president's illness as well as the holidays.

However, Beck's personal physician and those appointed by the court were to testify concerning Beck's physical condition and his ability to face trial before other witnesses took the stand.

Beck is accused of evading $240,000 in federal income taxes for the years 1950-53. The trial started Nov. 10. The federal attorneys still are presenting their case against Beck.

Witnesses scheduled to be available to testify today included Frank W. Brewster, former Teamster vice president under Beck, and Sam Bassett, a Teamster attorney who also handled much of Beck's personal legal work.

Beck is accused of evading $240,000 in federal income taxes for the years 1950-53. The trial started Nov. 10. The federal attorneys still are presenting their case against Beck.

Assault Charged Against Youth

A 16-year-old Medford youth was lodged in the Jackson County Juvenile Detention home Saturday night on a charge of assault and battery, according to Medford police.

Police said the youth admitted beating and kicking Arnold Linden Oden, 19, of Crater hotel, Medford.

Peter Melvin Jacobson, 1508 Terrace dr., told police he discovered Oden at his front door Saturday evening, bleeding and asking for help. Oden was treated later at Rogue Valley hospital for cuts, bruises and an injured nose.

"He was trying," Oden told police in a signed statement, "to get me to say a certain guy's name, so I didn't and he hit me and kicked me."

Youth Arrested On Theft Charge

A 15-year-old Medford youth was arrested Saturday night on a charge of auto theft, Medford police reported.

The vehicle was taken from Joe's Jalopy Jungle, 400 East Jackson st., police said.

The youth told investigators in a signed statement that he had taken the vehicle twice last week, the first time New Year's Eve. The vehicle was cited that evening by Jacksonville police for "parking by fire plug and wrong way of street."

He was apprehended Saturday evening at Roethler's Shell Service, 101 East Sixth st., after police received a report of a suspicious vehicle at that location.

"I took it," the youth told police in his statement, "because I wanted to be picked up, so that I could get away from them (his foster parents)."

The youth was lodged at the Jackson County Juvenile Detention home.

City Rents House On Right-of-Way

The City of Medford is renting for $70 a month a house recently purchased for right-of-way purposes, a city official reported today.

The house and land, at 903 South Holly st., were bought by the city for $11,000 following approval by the city council Oct. 16.

They lie in the path of the proposed extension of Melrose ave. from Holly east to South Pacific highway opposite Barnett rd.

Duff told the council at the time it approved the purchase that the city would attempt to rent the house until construction of the Melrose extension was to get under way. He said the city would then attempt to sell the house for removal from the property.

The tenant, Phyllis I. Scott, moved in yesterday. Rental is on a monthly basis, the official said.

The city has set no definite date for commencing construction but it is understood that some properties to the east have not yet been acquired.
