

Wall Leader Going Into Final Round Of LA Golf Tourney

By HAL WOOD
United Press International
Los Angeles—(UPI)—Art Wall goes to the tee in the final round of the $35,000 Los Angeles Open Tournament today on the threshold of his greatest success.

The Pecono Manor, Pa., pro had a one-stroke lead and his play, after a fumbling start, is improving steadily.

Art shot a 3-under-par 68 Sunday to post a 54-hole total of 207—one shot in front of the half-way leader, Doug Sanders, of Miami Beach, Fla. The rest of the field is so closely bunched that any one of at least a dozen men still could win it all.

Iowa Pick Of Writers

New York—(UPI)—Iowa, which climaxed its season with a 38-12 victory over California in the Rose Bowl, was chosen the nation's leading college football team of 1958 today by the Football Writers Association of America.

The Big Ten champions received four first-place votes and one second for a total of 14 of a possible 15 points from the five-man committee which handled the voting.

Look Magazine will present Iowa with the Grantland Rice award.

Louisiana State the nation's only major unbeaten and untied team and a 7-0 winner over Clemson in the Sugar Bowl, was second with eight points and Army and Oklahoma each had four points.

Southern California Tops Oregon State Quint 49-41

Corvallis—(UPI)—Southern California ruined Oregon State's 1959 Pacific Coast conference basketball debut here Saturday night by defeating the Beavers 49-41.

It was the Trojans' second victory in two conference games. They trounced Oregon Friday night 65-56.

The Beavers meet Stanford here tonight with Floor Captain Lee Harmon an uncertain starter. He is suffering from the flu.

Southern Cal, after a 19-13 half-time advantage, jumped off with 10 quick points, weather a Beaver rally and then increased the lead on foul shots. Eleven of USC's last 13 points were free throws.

The Beavers closed in to 22-21 in the second half on baskets by Lee Harmon and Steve Flynn but Jim Hanna, Sanders had a miserable day on the greens and had to be content with a 73—which is 2-over par. He had earlier rounds of 66 and 69.

Maxwell Thir
Next in line came Billy Maxwell, of Odessa, Tex., with a 209 on rounds of 67-70-72. At 210 were Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N. Y., National Open Champion Tommy Bolt, Crystal River, Fla., and Johnny McMullin, Alameda, Calif. The 20-year-old McMullin had started the day trailing the leader by only one stroke, but skidded to a 74.

Veteran Lloyd Mangrum, Apple Valley, Calif., a four-time winner of this event, was at 211, along with Howie Johnson, Glenwood, Ill. Johnny Bulla, the first day leader from Phoenix, Ariz., was at 212.

All these men were in a fine position to make a run for the top prize money of $5,300.

Also in contention, each with 213 scores, were former National Open champion Jack Fleck, Northridge, Calif.; Mike Homa, Rye, N.Y.; E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, St. Louis, Mo.; Julius Boros, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; Masters champion Arnold Palmer, Latrobe, Pa.; and Jim Ferree, Winston Salem, N.C.

PLAYER SIDELINED
Evanston, Ill. (UPI)—Senior forward Phil Warren, who suffered a broken bone in his left foot against Notre Dame, Dec. 31, will be lost to the Northwestern basketball team for at least a month. He will be replaced by soph Chuck Brandt.

OUTSCORED MEDFORD 27 TO 19 in last stanza on 13 free points and seven field goals. The Tornado put in eight baskets from the field and three from the foul line in the quarter. KF on Top at 50-48

A pair of free markers by Bob Drace gave the Whitebirds their final lead to 50-48. This foul ousted Medford's George Koch with his limit of five. Anderson then plumped in a free tally for Medford but Drace sank a recovery try from close range and DeLap and Drace plipped in pairs of gifters for 56 to 49 with three minutes to go.

The Tornado was still in the game, however, and Anderson closed the deficit to 56 to 51 after taking a feed from Lowell Dean. Then Drace came back with a goal from the side of the free shot slot and Jim Hall got made two charity throws as Dean fouled out with 2 1/4 minutes left to play. The score was 60 to 51.

Medford collected 10 points in the remaining time but Klamath matched the total.

Harvey sank a driver goal for Medford and Durke connected on a steal with less than two minutes to play for 60 to 55. Then this effort was offset when Hall heaved a long pass to Drace for a sleeper bucket and Petersen added two free points. Harvey added another driver but Petersen tabulated off a fast break and Drace dropped in a rebound of his missed 789 up the charity alley.

Medford, itself, hit a hot 448 in the field goaling but just a cool 391 at the free stripe.

Tornado shooters swished in 26 from the floor to 20 by Klamath. But the big difference on the scoreboard total was made at the gift line where the Pels took advantage of 25 Medford personal infractions for 30 successful shots in 38 attempts. The Tornado put in only nine gifters in 23 tries.

Mick Sinnerud Enters Oregon
Eugene—(UPI)—One of Oregon's top prep athletes in 1958, Mickie Sinnerud, will enroll at the University of Oregon here today.

Sinnerud has been attending Menlo Junior college in California but announced his withdrawal from the California school while at home in Beaverton on holiday vacation.

Sinnerud, who was a star in football, basketball and baseball while at Beaverton High school last year, said he plans to concentrate only on baseball at Oregon.

He was all-state in both football and basketball last year while in high school.

TORNADO GOES IN TO SCORE—John Harvey, Medford thigh guard, is shown as he drives toward the basket for a goal in the Saturday night Southern Oregon conference hoop game with Klamath Falls. Harvey was an offensive gun in Medford's second half effort to keep in the contest and he had 16 points for the evening. Klamath won 70 to 61. Pelican player trying to prevent Harvey from firing is Jim Hall (30). Medford's John Frohnmayer (40) also is shown.

Klamath's Pelicans Subdue Black Tornado Cagers 70-61

Klamath Union High school's Pelicans, sharpshooting from the field and free line, battling persistently through the fray and poised in the clutch, calmed the Medford Black Tornado 70 to 61 here Saturday night in Southern Oregon conference basketball.

The Pelicans, fired by the long range gunning of Dean Dunsen and the rebounding and gift tossing of all-stater Bob Petersen, took the lead for good three minutes into the fourth quarter. Then they pulled out of range of the Tornado on crucial buckets by Bob Drace and a flood of free shots.

Dunsen with eight field goals, mostly long jump pushers, was high point man with 21. Petersen had 15 points, 11 on free throws, and 20 backboard retrieves. Drace also collected 15 markers and Don DeLap 12. Jerry Anderson accumulated 16 counters each for the Tornado and Ken Durkeke rang up five. Anderson cleared the backboard 13 times.

First Medford Loss
Klamath's victory was its first in its campaign for a third straight conference and District 6 A-1 mantle. The Pels felt to Grants Pass in their Friday league beginner. Medford, engaging in its first 1959 conference ruckus, suffered its first loss in its six games of the current season.

The Pelicans fired a scorching 571 from the field and 789 up the charity alley. Medford, itself, hit a hot 448 in the field goaling but just a cool 391 at the free stripe.

Tornado shooters swished in 26 from the floor to 20 by Klamath. But the big difference on the scoreboard total was made at the gift line where the Pels took advantage of 25 Medford personal infractions for 30 successful shots in 38 attempts. The Tornado put in only nine gifters in 23 tries.

Action was fast-paced and keyed-up throughout the 32 minutes of playing time and was nip and tuck and see-saw until Klamath went ahead to stay. Score was tied on 10 occasions and there were six lead exchanges. The Pelicans

Eagle Point Divides Game Scuffles With Redmond

Eagle Point—Eagle Point High, with Bill Turner back in shooting form, nudged the strong Redmond cage aggregation 55 to 53 here Saturday night to earn a non-league series split.

The Panthers of central Oregon had won the Friday mix 55 to 46.

On Saturday the Eagles worked well under the offensive backboard, shot a 378 team average from the field and were capable with their man-to-man defense. Turner led the attack with 13 field goals for 26 points and had a personal accuracy figure of .480.

Grants Pass Cavemen Trim Crater for Lone Loop Lead

Grants Pass—Grants Pass was lone unbeaten basketball leader in the Southern Oregon conference after whipping Crater high 55 to 34 here Saturday evening.

The Cavemen controlled the backboards and tightened up their defense in the second half to win their second league engagement.

Crater was ahead at the quarter 9 to 8 and GP had command 24 to 21 at the end of the close first half. By the third rest stop the Cavemen had pulled to 37 to 28. With the aid of free throws gained by fouls from Crater's pressing defense, Grants Pass outscored the Comets 18 to 7 in the final frame.

GP allowed Crater only two field goals on 13 tries in the second half and one of these was awarded on a violation. Dave Sharp hooked in a Crater goal in the fourth quarter. In the third Jim Eldred's shot was called good when Caveman Jerry Putnam touched the net. Grants Pass, itself, got only five field buckets against the Crater defense in the second half.

Rex Benner was point leader in the game for Grants Pass with 13 while Putnam topped backboard retrieving with nine. Tom White had the most counters for Crater with seven and John Burns had seven rebounds for the Comets.

Grants Pass gained almost half its points on free shots and made 21 of its 27 grifters in the second half. Crater's 18 free points made more than half its total.

In the junior varsity contest Grants Pass ran up a 17 to 0 gap and went on to win 44 to 35. Quarter scores favoring the Cavemen were 20 to 8, 24 to 14 and 35 to 23. Denny Edwards had 18 points for Crater and Walker 17 for Grants Pass.

GP Jayvee had its early success against Comet man-to-man defense. Crater more than held its own after switching to a zone and equalled the Cavemen in field goal output. Each had 15.

St. Mary's Tussles BF In B Tilt

Jackson County B Basketball league will have a single leader after Tuesday night's lone counting game.

St. Mary's will play Butte Falls on the Medford school's floor. Each is unbeaten in three league games.

The Tuesday tussle is a make up of a tangle which had been set for December. Butte Falls could not field a team then because of illness and ineligibilities. Logger Coach George Bray offered to forfeit at the time but St. Mary's Mentor Bill McKibbin declined.

Non-league scrambles on Tuesday will have Eagle Point at Jacksonville, Illinois Valley at Brookings and Canyonville at Rogue River.

Pro Tennis Pact Inked By Cooper

Sydney, Australia—(UPI)—Australia's Ashley Cooper bolted the amateur tennis ranks today in a move that gives pro king Pancho Gonzales a glamorous new opponent and probably assures a United States victory in the next Davis Cup challenge round.

United States promoter Jack Kramer announced that the 22-year-old Wimbledon and U. S. and Australian national champion has agreed to a three-year contract which should earn him about $140,000.

Cooper, considered the smoothest player ever developed in Australia, is scheduled to make his pro debut Tuesday night against Ecuador's Pancho Segura in the Jack Crawford Testimonial tournament.

Cooper's move, shortly after Davis Cup teammate Mal Anderson also turned pro, breathes new life into Kramer's 1959 professional plans but was a tremendous blow to Australia's chances of regaining the Davis Cup from the United States this year—and perhaps for several years.

With Cooper and Anderson out of the picture, the United States' controversial Peruvian star, Alex Olmedo, stands practically unchallenged as the world's No. 1 amateur.

Orr Named Top Rookie

New York—(UPI)—Jim Orr, an end who averaged 27.6 yards per catch for the Pittsburgh Steelers during the past season, today was named the National Football league's outstanding 1958 rookie in the annual United Press International poll.

Orr beat out three other first-year players by the slim margin of two votes. Halfbacks Bobby Mitchell of the Cleveland Browns and Ray Brown of the Baltimore Colts and Lou Michaels, defensive lineman and linebacker for the Los Angeles Rams, tied for second with four votes apiece.

Jim Gibbons, offensive end for the Detroit Lions; Alex Karras, defensive tackle for the Lions, and Phil King, offensive back for the New York Giants, were next with two votes apiece. End Jerry Mertens of the San Francisco Forty-Niners, guard Gene Hickerson of the Browns and guard-tackle Dale Meinerd of the Chicago Cardinals split the other three votes.

Orr led the balloting in voting by 27 sports writers who covered the NFL games in the 11 league cities.

No Place For Auburn Five To Go

By NORMAN MILLER
United Press International
Auburn's crack basketball team owns the nation's longest college winning streak, an honored place in the top 10, and a good chance to break Kentucky's monopoly of the Southeastern conference championship.

But just as in football, Auburn has no place to go if it keeps winning.

Even if Coach Joel Eaves' Tigers win the SEC title, the same recruiting penalties that ruled out a football bowl berth would prevent them from playing in the NCAA basketball tournament, where they might prove their claim to national honors.

With an 8-0 record for this season, Auburn seeks its 20th straight triumph tonight at home against Mississippi. The Tigers were the last team to beat Kentucky, winning 64-63 last Feb. 24. They meet this season at Lexington, Ky., Feb. 21.

Cincinnati Faces Bradley
Cincinnati, which held the No. 1 national rating last week before losing twice in the Dixie Classic at Raleigh, N. C., returns to the wars to play Bradley in the leading game on tonight's schedule. The slate also includes two key Big Ten conference games Michigan State at Iowa and Northwestern at Michigan; an inter-sectional clash which finds St. Louis at Pittsburgh, and Furman at West Virginia.

Kentucky, rated No. 2 last week by the United Press International Board of Coaches, ran its season record to 11-0 and its holdover streak to 16 straight triumphs by beating Georgia Tech, 72-62, last Saturday. Coach Adolph Rupp's defending NCAA champions play two SEC road games this week, against Vanderbilt Tuesday night and against Louisiana State Saturday.

Auburn, ranked No. 10 last week, scored its 19th straight victory by beating Mississippi State, 97-66. The Tigers held Bailey Howell to 19 points after the maroons' star had averaged around 30 points per game. The defeat was the first in nine games for Mississippi State.

Form generally held up in last Saturday's games. Fourteen of the 20 top-ranked teams played and only three lost. The victims, in addition to Mississippi State, were Purdue and California. Purdue, 11th last week, lost at home to surprising Michigan 82-75; California was upset by Oregon, 59-57.

Sydney, Australia—(UPI)—Australia's Ashley Cooper bolted the amateur tennis ranks today in a move that gives pro king Pancho Gonzales a glamorous new opponent and probably assures a United States victory in the next Davis Cup challenge round.

United States promoter Jack Kramer announced that the 22-year-old Wimbledon and U. S. and Australian national champion has agreed to a three-year contract which should earn him about $140,000.
