

PINCHED — Actor Barry Sullivan was arrested in Malibu, Calif., on a drunk driving charge. Police said he was "a little belligerent but not as bad as some."

Epps Says Hatfield Stand Hypocritical

Portland — (UPI) — Dave Epps, Oregon Democratic party chairman, declared Saturday Gov.-elect Mark Hatfield's stand on the problem of who shall appoint the next secretary of state is "hypocritical."

"His decision to seek a determination by the Supreme Court whether he has the right to assume the office of governor before resigning as secretary of state and providing for the transition in an orderly manner is long overdue," Epps said.

He added that if Hatfield "felt that an early decision from the attorney general was desirable, his right to ask for such a decision was equal to that of the governor."

An opinion issued by Attorney General Robert Y. Thornton last week said that Gov. Robert D. Holmes, who leaves office this month, has the right to name a successor to Hatfield, who relinquishes the secretary of state post to become governor.

Epps accused the Republican governor-elect of "attempting to avoid the onus of political maneuvering by accusing his political enemies of the same petty motives he harbors himself."

Neuberger on Group To Elect Famed

Washington — Sen. Richard L. Neuberger of Oregon has been chosen as an elector of the Hall of Fame for Great Americans by the senate of New York university.

As an elector, he will be one of a group of about 100 noted persons in the arts, science, education and public affairs who will select the next Americans of outstanding achievement to be honored posthumously with a statue in the Hall of Fame. Other electors include Historian Allan Nevins, Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter, The Rev. Harry Emerson Fosdick, Columnist Walter Lippmann, and former President Herbert Hoover.

The next election for places in the Hall of Fame, located on the campus of New York university, will be in 1960. Any American citizen who made his home in the United States and who has been dead for 25 years or more, is eligible for election to the national shrine. Nominations will be accepted from the public starting next April 1.

The Hall of Fame was founded in 1900 and now enshrines 86 men and women who made lasting impressions on the history and culture of the United States.

Two Men Rescued From Sandy River

Portland — (UPI) — Two Portland men were rescued from icy waters of the Sandy river near here Saturday afternoon after their boat overturned. They were Robert B. Bettendorf, 33, and his brother, Bernard Michael Bettendorf, 22.

Their rescuers were Glenn E. Otto, 34, of Troutdale. Otto looked out the window of his riverfront home and saw the two men float by, clinging to the side of their overturned boat. He hastily set out in his own boat and took the pair aboard. They were reported in good condition.

PROTEST RED TERRORISM

Saigon, Viet Nam — (UPI) — The government of South Viet Nam said today it had protested to the International Truce Commission over alleged sabotage, terrorism and murders committed by Communist Viet Nam agents.
