Corporation Head Booked on Charge

San Francisco — (UPI) — The president of Burgermeister Brewing Corporation was booked on suspicion of felony drunk driving Thursday night as a result of an auto accident that took the life of a prominent California banker.

The accident took place on Golden Gate Bridge at 6:30 p.m. when a car driven by Henry E. Picard, 62, the brewery executive, crashed into one driven by Emrys Williams, 52, manager of the American Trust Company branch in Sonoma.

With Williams was Mrs. Pearl Andrews, 39, Sonoma, who suffered face cuts, a possible back injury and shock.

Highway Patrolman T. Alya Bragg said Picard's northbound car crossed the center line near the north tower and struck the Williams auto. The front ends of both cars were demolished.

The impact threw Williams out of his car. He was dead on arrival at Park Emergency hospital in San Francisco.

Picard was treated at the hospital for a badly cut nose. He refused to take an alcohol blood test.

Mrs. Andrews was treated at the emergency hospital and later was transferred to St. Luke's hospital. She is the widow of a Sonoma attorney.

New York — (UPI) — Former Brooklyn Dodger baseball star Jackie Robinson was credited with saving a San Antonio, Tex., couple Thursday night when he saw smoke coming from their hotel room and sounded an alarm.

Robinson, staying in an adjacent room on the 12th floor of the Belmont-Plaza hotel, went into the hallway to investigate after smelling smoke shortly before midnight. Seeing smoke coming from under the next door, he notified the management.

Firemen broke down the door and found Kenneth Brown, 50, and his wife, Juanita, 40, of San Antonio, overcome in their twin beds and their room ablaze.

Both were treated at a hospital for minor burns and smoke poisoning. They were able to return to the hotel several hours later.

Police Posted in Area of Slaying

St. Louis, Mo. — (UPI) — Fulltime details of plainclothes police were posted in a residential neighborhood today while other investigators probed a nearby park for clues in the multivictim slaying of a young mother.

The plainclothes army hoped to serve the double purpose of reassuring terrorized women neighbors of the victim, Mrs. Charles E. Montague, 32, the mother of two, and to trap Mrs. Montague's slayer.

Mrs. Montague's body was found Wednesday, slashed and molested, by her brother, Donald Jones, who had joined the search party organized when she failed to return from a sorority party Tuesday night.

Both Jones and Mrs. Montague's husband have taken lie tests, and authorities said the results were negative.
