

Episcopal Rites Held For Couple

Trail—Among holiday weddings was that of Miss Sheila Dee Dolenshek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dolenshek, Trail, to David Richard Bliss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Voyed Bliss, Prospect. The ceremony took place December 24 at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at St. Mark's Episcopal church, Medford. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster officiated.

The bride wore a gown of white brocaded satin fashioned princess style with scalloped neckline, long sleeves and full skirt with slight train. Her finger-tip length veil was held by a half-hat of material matching her gown and trimmed in sequins. She carried shattered white carnations with red rosebuds knotted in the streamers, and a white prayer book.

Miss Linda Hertager, Eagle Point, attended the bride. Her gown was of green lace and tulle over taffeta and she carried a colonial bouquet of yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Dolenshek wore a sheath frock of dusty rose taffet and white gardenia corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink suit with white gardenia corsage.

Miss Diana Getchell played the organ. For the small reception which followed in the Parish house, Mrs. Ray Briggs, Shady Cove, poured, and Miss Phyllis Briggs, Shady Cove, took charge of the guest book.

Decorations were in the Christmas theme.

The bride is remaining in Trail for the present and the bridegroom has returned to duty with an armored division of the United States Army at Ft. Hood, Tex. The bride, a graduate of Eagle Point High school, is a clerk at Swem's store, Medford.
