

Two Couples Married in Double Rites

A double ceremony January 1 at First Presbyterian church, Central Point, married Miss Carol Kaye Bailey to Arthur Terrance Brereton, and Miss Marilyn May Bailey to Eugene Dow Wright. The brides are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bailey, 157 South Keeneway drive. Mr. Brereton is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Brereton, 161 Ross lane, and Mr. Wright's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Wright, Butte Falls.

The double-ring rites took place at two o'clock in the afternoon, with the Rev. Bruce J. Weber officiating. Mr. Wright gave both daughters in marriage, escorting Miss Marilyn down the aisle first, and returning to escort the second bride. The sisters had attended Central Point Presbyterian church when the family lived in that town.

Cesar Muzzioli played the wedding music on an accordion, and accompanied Miss Donna McFarland, Klamath Falls, who was soloist.

The brides wore matching ballerina length gowns of Alencon type lace fashioned princess style with scoop necklines, three-quarter length sleeves and full circle skirts. Their shoulder-length veils were of tulle caught by bandeaux of sheer braid trimmed with braid flowers. They carried identical bouquets of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Each couple served as attendants for the other. Ushers were Darrel Brereton, brother of Arthur Brereton, and Ronald Lapp, Ashland.

About 125 guests attended the wedding and the reception which followed in the church reception room.

The church and reception decorations were in pink and white. Identical wedding cakes decorated in pink and white had been made for the two brides by Mrs. Doris Burkhardt, Central Point.

Mrs. Leota Tuttle cut and served the cake for the newly-married Mr. and Mrs. Brereton, using an heirloom knife loaned by Mrs. Carl Bennett. Mrs. James Higinbotham, Central Point, presided at their gift table, and Mrs. Robert Hill, Sams Valley, took charge of their guest book.

Mrs. Paul Davis, Shady Cove, cut and served the wedding cake of Mr. and Mrs. Wright, using a knife belonging to the bride's mother, Mrs. Dwaine Richardson, Provolt. Mr. Wright's sister, took charge of their guest book and Miss Lydia Tetrick, Klamath Fall, their gift table. Mrs. Bennett took charge of general arrangements* for both receptions, and Miss Phyllis Briggs, Shady Cove, served the punch.

Both couples traveled north for brief honeymoons. For traveling Mrs. Wright wore a beige dress with brown accessories; Mrs. Brereton's traveling attire was a green knit suit worn with black accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Brereton are living at 10 Portland avenue, and the Wrights at 205 1/2 Summit avenue.

Mrs. Wright attended Shady Cove and Prospect schools and is a senior in education at Southern Oregon college. Mr. Wright attended Central Point and Butte Falls schools, and Southern Oregon college. He served four years with the United States Navy and is employed by Elk Lumber company as an assistant engineer. Mrs. Brereton is a graduate of Crater High School. Mr. Brereton is a graduate of Medford High school, attended Southern Oregon college and is on the staff of Littrell Parts company.

The two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bailey, 157 South Keeneway drive, were married in a double ceremony January 1 at First Presbyterian church, Central Point. Pictured following the ceremony are (left) Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dow Wright (Marilyn Bailey) and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Terrance Brereton, (Carol Kaye Bailey). Mr. Brereton is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Home Rites Wed Couple Eagle Point - Miss Lenita Gaye Nelms, daughter of Mrs. Erlene Beckstead, Douglas, Ariz., and Donald William Wyatt, son of Mrs. Nelson Smith, Crater Lake, were married Friday, December 26, at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Porter Allen, Butte Falls Star Route, Eagle Point.

The Rev. Howard Simmonds of the Butte Falls Community Bible church officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Porter Allen. She wore a white satin bridal gown and a tiara of seed pearls held her finger-tip length veil. Her bouquet of red roses was carried on a white Bible.

Max McKinney, Medford was best man for the bridegroom.

The brides' aunt wore a navy blue dress with a white gardenia corsage and Mrs. Smith wore a black suit with white gardenias.

Mrs. T. B. Freeman, aunt of the bride, poured coffee, Miss Sandra Smith, Crater Lake, poured punch, and Mrs. Irvin McKeen baked and served the wedding cake.

The wedding and reception was attended by approximately 30 guests including Mr. Smith, Crater Lake, Miss Joanne Mole, San Francisco, cousin of the bridegroom, J. S. Allen, Phoenix, Ariz., uncle of the bride.

The newlyweds left immediately after the reception for Fort Gordon, Ga., where the bridegroom is stationed in the armed forces.

The bride has made her home with her aunt and uncle, and attended Eagle Point High school. She has been employed by Western Union. The bridegroom was graduated from Crater High school and entered the service after graduation.
