

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompsen and three daughters spent part of the holiday vacation at Sun Valley in Idaho. Skiing was spoiled by the lack of snow, so the family took to ice skates, deciding it was just as

New Classes At YMCA

This week the Medford YMCA will begin a new series of exercise, swim and game classes for women.

Tuesday and Thursday morning beginning at 10 o'clock "slim and trim" classes are planned. These will consist of 30 minutes of exercises, followed by ballet technique, badminton or volleyball. A short swim at 11 a.m. will be followed by exercise and swimming instruction for those who desire it. Mrs. Langell Wilkes will be instructor. Child care is available in the "Y" during morning classes.

Exercise and beginners volleyball is planned for Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. with Mrs. Jerril Hutton as director, and Thursday evenings will be devoted to varsity volleyball and league play.

Mrs. Wilkes and Mrs. Ruth Adams will instruct swimming classes Tuesday and Thursday beginning at 7 p.m. This will include advanced swimming and senior life saving for girls over 16 and women. An open swim period

Lions' Auxiliary Makes First Plans For Coming Party

Crater Lions' auxiliary is making plans for a St. Valentine's party for members and their husbands on February 14.

The entertainment committee reported on plans for the party at the first meeting of the auxiliary for the new year, held January 7 at Ping's Gardens.

A Chinese dinner was served at 8 o'clock. Twenty-three members attended, and guests were Mrs. Manville Heisel, Mrs. Robert Collins, Mrs. Robert Castle, Mrs. Aubrey Loper, Mrs. Richard Hawkins, Mrs. John Lusk and Mrs. Richard McLaughlin.

Mrs. Dan Dwyer read a thank you letter from the blind girl which the club has "adopted." Christmas gifts were sent to the girl.

Mrs. Jack Ingram, president conducted the meeting. The next session will be February 4 at the home of Mrs. C. D. Larson, 3278 Madrona lane, Medford.

is planned for Thursday at 8:30 p.m.

Staff Members Honored at Tea

Mrs. Shirley Reed and Mrs. Wilma Eubanks, staff members of the Jackson county library headquarters staff, Medford, were honored at a staff tea last week.

Mrs. Reed, who is with the adult circulation department, received an award for dependability in service. She had not been absent from work during the past calendar year. Mrs. Eubanks received a similar award as she has had only one absence in the past three years.

The awards, gold and pearl brooches, were presented by Miss Helen Webster, library director.

Mrs. Reed joined the local library staff in August, 1937, and Mrs. Eubanks in January, 1936.

Library Group To Hear Program By Californian

Dr. Kenneth Young, director of curriculum for the schools of Siskiyou county, California, will speak at a meeting of the Jackson County Association of School Librarians to be held at Southern Oregon college in the Library of Children's Literature, Tuesday, January 13, at 4 p.m.

Dr. Young's topic will be "Developing Reading Interests in Elementary and High School Students." He will illustrate his theme with moving pictures made by him and his wife, a teacher in Yreka High school. His films are in color and have soundtrack and music. Dr. Young has been active in promoting foreign student exchange. One film records the experiences of a German foreign student attending Yreka schools from his arrival until the student returned to Germany.

This meeting of the school librarians is being held on the second Tuesday of the month; however, future meetings will return to the regular date of the first Tuesday.

Scout Movement To Be Topic for Lone Pine PTA

A night in scouting is planned for the Lone Pine Parent Teacher association meeting Tuesday, January 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

A film on Scouts and the Explorer branch will be shown and a speaker will be present from the Boy Scout office. Scouts in the troop of Mrs. Paul Dalton will present the colors.

A nominating committee for officers will be elected during the meeting. Mrs. Bill Edwards, sixth grade room representative, will be in charge of refreshments. Child care will be provided during the meeting by the 4-H class.

A pegboard panel on the back of a bathroom closet door makes a convenient spot for cleaning tools.
