

Ceremony In Yreka Weds Pair

Hills-Miss Geraldine Theresa Johnson became the bride of Jack Ralph Whiting in a double ring ceremony held in the Mormon church in Yreka, Calif., at 7:30 on the evening of December 27.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Johnson of Hills. The bridegroom, an airman second class in the United States Air Force, is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Plumb, San Francisco.

Bishop Douglas Whittaker of Hills officiated at the double-ring ceremony which was attended by members of both families and a few close friends.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Alencon lace and net over tulle, fashioned with a jacket having long sleeves. Her veil was of illusion net and she carried a white orchid. Her amethyst and pearl lavaliers were borrowed from her grandmother, Mrs. Geraldine Sheldrake, and she also wore a keepsake bracelet belonging to her great-grandmother.

Miss Louise Hitchcock of Yreka was maid of honor. She wore a gown of turquoise blue trimmed in white fur and carried white carnations.

Best man was Airman Larry Badger of San Francisco. Kent Johnson, brother of the bride, and Lloyd Jones, Redding, were ushers.

Miss Patty Swickard was organist.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Johnson home with approximately 60 friends and relatives attending. Miss Lena Faggiato and Miss Donna Green were in charge of the bride's book.

The young couple made a brief honeymoon trip to Oregon before the bridegroom left the first of the week for Topeka, Kan. where he will be stationed at Forbes Air base. Mrs. Whiting expects to join her husband in mid-January. She is a member of the senior class of Yreka High school. Mr. Whiting was graduated from Mission High school in San Francisco with the class of 1936.

Among the out-of-town guests was Mrs. Toni Wooden of San Francisco.

Cabbage Cousins

Plants, like people, inherit some traits. The cabbage family has a strong one. It smells. But the smell occurs when it is mistreated. Whether you are preparing Brussels sprouts, broccoli or cabbage, use a sharp knife for cutting. Shred or cut the pieces uniformly thin. This speeds cooking, and cuts odor. Heat vegetable oil in a skillet over a high flame and toss the pieces vigorously. Season with salt, a speck of sugar and just enough chicken broth to keep it from sticking. The reward: Beautiful color, crisp texture, delicate flavor.

Use a moist cotton swab to clean crevices of etched punch bowls, glasses, and dishes.

"Let's talk
dry cleaning"

By KEN HARDY

The start of a New Year is always a time for brave new resolutions, for taking stock, for starting with a clean slate. So here's a thought from one who specializes in "clean slates." Sort through your "holiday best" clothing. Check each piece carefully for those accidental liquid stains or that small spot left by a stray bit of cranberry sauce. Odds are that milady's party dresses, and every man's best suits, were worn much more than usual during the holidays.

Don't just tuck them back into the closet on a hanger and forget them. One good rule to remember about clothes care is that spots and stains of whatever kind should not be allowed to harden and become fixed in the fabric. That makes them even more difficult to get out.

So bring in your best finery now for our expert spot cleaning, for the thorough overall cleaning we give to every garment, and the expert pressing that will take out those wrinkles and creases to make your clothes look like new. It pays, to take good care of your good clothes. We pick up and deliver.

Peaches Marco Polo

Preheat your oven to 400 degrees. Then arrange drained canned cling peach halves in baking dish, cut side up. Mix 1/4 cup honey, 1/2 cup chopped raisins, 2 teaspoons finely chopped candied ginger and 2 tablespoons wine vinegar together and fill cavities of the peaches. Bake them in a hot oven for 20 minutes. Serve warm, spooning syrup over them. Garnish with vanilla ice cream if desired. Cocoanut cookies go nicely with peaches.

Breakfast Bread

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Mix 3/4 cup brown sugar, 1/4 cup chopped pecans, 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon and 2 tablespoons milk into 1/4 cup butter. Slash a loaf of French bread down to but not through the bottom crust. Spread the butterscotch mixture between the slices and set the loaf in a baking pan. Bake in the oven for 15 minutes. Serve with steaming mugs of coffee.

Pattie Cakes

New York - Sweet potato patties go well with pork, ham or poultry. For 8 servings, combine 3 cups mashed sweet potatoes with 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/8 teaspoon ground black pepper, and 2 tablespoons sugar. Shape into 8 patties, roll in crushed cornflakes and bake on buttered baking sheet in pre-heated 350-degree oven 15 minutes, or until browned.

In The Air

Chicago - An all-aluminum model home is to be exhibited over the city's shopping center, State Street.

Planners said the home will be built 18 feet in the air on a bridge support spanning the street. The home will have seven rooms and be completely furnished.

It is best to use ground beef within two days of purchase because it is subject to more bacterial action, drying, and flavor loss than other cuts of meat.

A new touch to cabbage slaw—shred cabbage, thinly, dress with French dressing combined with mayonnaise. Add chopped chives and parsley.

Home Economics Training Combines Home and Career

Corvallis-Schools of home economics may once have been considered just training grounds for marriage but today that's only half the story.

The other half is training for a career, and career opportunities in home economics were never brighter, says Oregon State college school Dean Miriam Scholl of the home economics.

"Home economics jobs are important to both our homes and way of life, and the same college program today provides for a 'double future' of either a career or homemaking," she emphasized.

Demand for home economists today far exceeds the supply in almost every field—teaching including nursery schools, research, business, extension service training, dietetics, communications and health and welfare.

Fine opportunities exist for men as well as women in some of the fields, Dean Scholl pointed out. She has long contended that there is a real place for men in home economics in such fields as commercial and institutional food service, clothing and textile merchandising, retailing and manufacturing, and in family life education and child development.

Many Women Work

Women are becoming increasingly important, as part of the labor force, she noted. Six out of every 10 working women in the U.S. today are married.

And whether they work after marriage or not, women who are trained for particular jobs are in a highly favored position in case something should happen that necessitates their going to work, Dean Scholl commented. At the same time, higher education in home economics gives girls much broader understandings in foods, housing, clothing, home management, and family life for the "big and highly important" job of homemaking," she said.

Dean Scholl recently conducted a survey of the 102 Oregon State graduates in home economics last June. Ninety-four of the 102 have reported to date, and their reports show the interplay of careers "in and out" of the home.

Forty-five of the 94 June graduates are married. Nineteen of the 45 are full-time homemakers; 26 are working at part-time or full-time jobs along with their homemaking responsibilities.

Forty-two graduates are teaching home economics in high schools in eight different states and Hawaii; 7 are in dietetics internships in hospitals and institutions across the country; 7 have positions in business including merchandising in department stores and work with newspapers, radio stations and TV; 4 are in extension service work as home demonstration agents or 4-H club agents.

The others are in graduate school are stationed with their husbands at overseas military camps, and are working at a variety of other jobs including social work and secretarial work.

Posture, Health Program Topic

Medford Home Extension unit will hold the first meeting of the new year Tuesday, January 12, at 10:30 in the Jackson County courthouse. Miss Mary Pat Lucy, county home extension agent, will conduct the program on "posture and exercise for health and obesity."

The luncheon committee will be Mrs. Dayton Varner, Mrs. Harry Daugherty, Mrs. Cleve Ferriss and Mrs. Porter.

All-purpose flour cannot be substituted for an equal measure of cake flour for cakes. The gluten of flour forms much of the cake's framework and varies with the type of flour.

Apple, Pepper, Pear Combined for Salad

Apples, green pepper and pears combine well for a salad. Use 1/2 green pepper, 1 small red-skinned apple, 1 1/2 cups cottage cheese, head lettuce, 9 canned pear halves and parsley.

Wash pepper and apple; remove seeds or core. Dice and add to cottage cheese, mix lightly. Line three salad plates with lettuce. Mound 1/3 of cottage cheese mixture in center of each plate. Place three canned pear halves against cheese, cut side up and tips point in. Garnish with parsley. Makes three servings.

Elysian Hamburgers

Slice hamburger bun into 3 sections but do not cut through. Spread with softened butter and fill one section with cream cheese seasoned with scallions, salt and pepper. Sauté hamburger and finely chopped mushrooms over a medium flame in butter. Season with salt, pepper and soy sauce. Fill the other section of the bun with this mixture. Thrust a wooden pick through the bun. Top with stuffed olive.

To stay fresh, crisp and tasty, vegetables should be kept moist and cold. Keep in film bags or in closed containers in the refrigerator.
