400 Fun-Packed Pages for Children of all Ages . . .

Favorite stories, poems, games from TREASURE TRAILS,
. . . the magazine of the famous Children's Hour

40 stories • 50 gay poems • 58 games and puzzles •
328 fine illustrations by distinguished artists

HERE is a wonderful story book that will be read over and over again. Boys and girls will delight in Bertram's bloo-hoing walrus, the ostrich who ate the alarm clock, the bear who went to school, Polly Prentice's Indian, and Bunker's wolves. What a wealth of favorites for all! Magda and her real Thanksgiving, the little fir tree that celebrated Christmas, the chimp in the hospital robe who went gadding, the witch who found a squitch, Fringy and his precious bat, Tad North and his daring rescue, the Peddler of Ballaghadereen and his strange dream, Joan and Humphrey's secret code, Mrs. Rabbit and her wonderful tearoom, brave Kennet and his help for George Washington!

Now, in the permanent form demanded by our public, here are sure-fire favorites for boys and girls from seven to twelve, with many read-aloud stories for the youngest set, taken from TREASURE TRAILS, the very popular magazine of The Children's Hour.

In addition, TREASURE TRAILS PARADE is packed with games, puzzles, poems and letters that have made TREASURE TRAILS so much reading fun for children across the country. This book belongs on every boy's and girl's favorite bookshelf.
