

Pels Trim Crater With Quick Start

Klamath Falls — Klamath Union High school cooled off after a quick start but utilized gift shots in the later stages to stretch its margin over the Comets in a 62 to 40 decision over Crater in a Southern Oregon conference basketball game here Saturday evening.

Pelican cagers held a 27 to 11 bulge over Crater after the first quarter. In the second stanza the Pels iced up before the Comets and put in only six points. Crater in the meantime picked up 12 markers. KF led just 33 to 23 at halftime.

In the third canto the Klamath quint went for a lengthy period without scoring and Crater came within seven points of the Pels. However, the Comets missed many shots themselves in the quarter. Rupp Near 600th at Kentucky

By FRED DOWN

Kentucky, nearing its 600th victory under Coach Adolph Rupp, and three of the nation's other top 20 teams see action tonight in a college basketball schedule that also includes three important Big Ten games.

Kentucky's Wildcats, surprised by Vanderbilt last week, rebounded Saturday night with a 76-61 win over Louisiana State and will be trying to regain still more of their national prestige tonight against Tulane. A victory would move Kentucky into a second-place tie with Georgia in the Southeastern conference provided Vanderbilt beats Mississippi State.

Kentucky's romp over LSU increased its season record to 12-1 and marked the 596th win of Rupp's 29-year career. Rupp can reach the magic 600-mark by Jan. 29 if the Wildcats beat their next four Southeastern conference foes—Tulane, Tennessee, Georgia Tech and Georgia.

Sixth-ranked Cincinnati (8-2) defends its Missouri Valley lead against North Texas State (4-8) and eighth-ranked Bradley (9-1) and unranked Houston (6-5) battle for undisputed possession of second place in the same circuit while Illinois meets Iowa, Indiana plays Minnesota and Wisconsin takes on Michigan in the Big Ten. Victories by Illinois, Indiana and Michigan would create a three-way tie for first place in the already confused circuit.

This week's action also includes a showdown battle Wednesday night between the Atlantic Coast conference's top teams—second-ranked North Carolina State (11-1) and fourth-ranked North Carolina (9-1). State is 5-0 in league play after Saturday's 67-60 win over Duke while North Carolina is 4-0.

Indiana's 76-69 victory over seventh-ranked Northwestern produced the only upset of a team among the top 10 Saturday. Third-ranked Kansas State pulverized Colorado, 89-58, fifth-ranked Michigan State edged out Illinois, 97-96, Cincinnati whipped Houston, 62-54, eighth-ranked Bradley routed North Texas State, 79-58, ninth-ranked Auburn defeated Florida, 63-54, and 10th-ranked St. John's of New York nipped George Washington, 86-85.

Los Angeles — (UPI) — UCLA pulled away from Oregon State early in the second half and breezed to a 73-62 victory before some 5,000 fans at Pan Pacific auditorium Saturday night.

UCLA, now 8-5 for the season, jumped off to a 5-0 lead and was never headed.

The contest featured a tremendous scoring battle between Capt. Lee Harman of the Beavers and Capt. Walt Torrence of UCLA, who were guarding each other.

Podoloff will decide whether there will be any possible fines or suspensions as a result of Saturday's fracas after receiving reports from Borgia and Marty Cribbins, who was the second official Saturday.

Meanwhile, both Knickerbocker and Philadelphia players agreed that the police in Philadelphia were lax in breaking up fights which involved the fans as well as the athletes.

MEDFORD TRIBUNE SPORTS

High Court Upholds Decree Against IBC

Washington — (UPI) — The Supreme Court today approved a lower court antitrust judgment against the International Boxing clubs which ordered the monopoly dissolved.

The IBC operates mainly in New York and Chicago. It has arenas in those two cities.

The vote sustaining the decree in its entirety was 5 to 3, with Justice Tom C. Clark speaking for the majority. Justice Potter Stewart, new on the bench this term, did not participate.

Three judges thought part of the decree against the clubs should have been set aside. They were Justice John M. Harlan, Felix Frankfurter and Charles E. Whittaker.

Clark said if some of the anti-monopoly moves that have been ordered prove "so severe as to require modification," the IBC can apply to the district court later for a softening of the decree.

The opinion held that the clubs have monopolized championship bouts, which Clark called the "cream of the boxing business."

He termed this a violation of the Sherman Antitrust law.

California Quints Assume Early Lead

Southern California split a pair to drop into a tie with the Bears at 3-1 and move to a season mark of 10-4. Oregon State hung a 61-53 upset on the Trojans Friday, but Troy came back for an overtime 73-67 win Saturday over Washington State.

Meanwhile, UCLA and Stanford swept their week end contests to move into a tie for second at 3-2.

The Cards followed a smooth 50-36 victory over Idaho with a stunning 51-49 upset over the toothless Huskies.

UCLA dropped Washington State 68-41 and Oregon State 73-62.

UO-OSC Meet

The form book took less of a beating in the first week end of West Coast Athletic conference play.

St. Mary's is clearly the team to beat after invading two hostile gyms and bringing home the scalps of Loyola 50-41 and Pepperdine 74-65. Injured Tom Meschery returned in top form and the Gaels are rolling.

Santa Clara, probably the week end tussle with a 60-54 win over USF.

College of Pacific split a pair, losing to Pepperdine 72-64, but coming back to whip Loyola 70-57.

On Saturday, USF bounced back to defeat San Jose State, 51-46.

There were 13 varsity matches. Medford forfeited the 98-pound class because of having no foe for the Klamath man.

The Tornado salvaged the junior varsity tangle 42 to 41. Medford winners were Leo Shultz, Richard Greene, Ken Morse, Larry Gunn, Blake Taylor, Bill Foust, Bill Hobbs, Terry O'Sullivan, Harold Friend and Charles Shaw.
