Medford Couple Married

Miss Lorita Joan Jennings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jennings, 1605 Ridgeway drive, Medford, became the bride of Ronald Kent Wisdom, son of Mrs. Alma A. Windscheffel, 220 Chestnut street, also Medford, in a double-ring ceremony held December 31 at the Wedding Bell chapel in San Diego, Calif.

The Rev. Robert Loring officiated at the six-thirty o'clock candlelight ceremony, attended by 15 close friends.

Given in marriage by Jerry Verkaak of San Diego, the bride wore a white lace over taffeta gown in waltz-length, fashioned with a fitted bodice and a flared skirt. It was worn with a matching lace, long-sleeved jacket. The bride's veil was held by a white velvet crown and she carried a bouquet of white carnations. In her shoe she wore a good luck penny loaned by Mrs. Larry Pfuntner, San Diego, who was matron of honor. The attendant wore a waltz-length pink lace over taffeta gown. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Mr. Pfuntner served as best man.

The couple traveled to Los Angeles and Bakersfield, Calif., for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a beige suit with corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The newlyweds are making their home at 1988 First avenue, apt. 19, San Diego 1, Calif., where the bridegroom is stationed aboard the U.S.S. Cogswell with the United States Navy.

The bride and bridegroom both attended Medford Senior High school, graduating in 1956.

Mrs. Mark Odom Hatfield, wife of Oregon's new governor, poses here in the gown which she wore for her husband's inauguration last week. The gown of red chiffon was worn with a white petal hat and red shoes. Mrs. Hatfield, pretty and vivacious, and the governor will move soon from the Royal Court apartment they have been occupying in Salem to a large old-style house which is being remodeled to meet their needs. The Hatfields will be hosts for a number of parties during the current session of the Oregon legislature. (Kennel-Ellis photo loaned by Salem Statesman).
