

Raiders Crush OCE, Bolster OCC Lead

Ashland - Southern Oregon college continues hoop action in midweek when they tangle with the Owls of Oregon Tech Wednesday night in Klamath Falls.

Currently, the Raiders are leading the pack and the Owls are in third place behind Portland State. SOC's big question mark is Punk Biddington and his injured knee. His loss could be a big handicap to the Raider scoring punch for he has scored 105 points in his last six games.

Ashland - Southern Oregon college extended its Oregon Collegiate conference basketball record to 4-0 by downing Oregon College of Education 76 to 49 Saturday evening in the SOC gym.

After overcoming a short lead by the OCE Wolves, the men of SOC tallied 16 straight points while the visitors were held scoreless in the opening minutes of the first half.

Dave D'Olive was high point for both squads again for the second time in as many nights when he added 19 points to the Raider's winning cause.

All was not peaches and cream for the men of SOC though for they lost Punk Biddington with 14 minutes remaining in the second half. Biddington got involved in a pile-up and reinjured his ailing knee and his services in the Oregon Tech game Wednesday are very doubtful.

Biddington had 14 points up to that point and Larry Nye was high for the Wolves with 15, which started with the first field goal of the game and his first in varsity competition.

The men of SOC jumped to a 34 to 28 halftime lead and then in the second half they put in two for every OCE point scored.

Yreka Clubs Eagle Point

Eagle Point - The Miners' 6-6 pivot man Bill Wilson was the difference Saturday night turned back Eagle Point 77 to 51 in a non-league hoop contest at Yreka.

Wilson scored 32 points and gave the Miners strength under the boards.

Quarter standing favored Yreka 24 to 8 and at the half it was 41 to 20. Peters scored 16 for the Miners and Bill Turner was tops for all the Eagles with 10.

Welu, Ladewig Capture All-Star Bowling Titles

By ED FEINEN Buffalo, N. Y. - (UPI) - Billy Welu, a transplanted Texan from St. Louis, won the men's championship in the National All-Star Bowling classic Sunday night in a memorable duel with Ray Bluth, another courageous pin-toppler from the Mound City.

The women's title went to Mrs. Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids, Mich., for the seventh time in 10 years.

Bowling before a capacity crowd of 2,500 and a national television audience, Welu and Bluth squared off against each other in the last position round. They split four games in the semifinal, then Bluth won two of the first three games in the final.

That brought them down to the decisive game with Welu holding a slim nine-pin lead. It looked life curtains for the lanky Texan when he rolled open spits in the second and third frames, but he then produced five straight strikes from the fourth through the eighth frames to gain a narrow victory.

In walking off with the $5,000 top prize, Welu totaled 311-48 points under the Petersen system compared to Bluth's 310-26.

Bluth, in addition to winning second place money of $2,500, also established a new tournament record with a total pinfall of 13,726 compared to Welu's total of 13,448.

St. John's Stock High

United Press International St. John's of New York, responding once again to the magic touch of old-Celtic Joe Lapchick, has raised New York City basketball prestige to its highest level since the college scandals of 1952.

A smashing 97-72 victory over St. Joseph's at Philadelphia Saturday night wiped out all doubts of St. John's right to national ranking and established the Redmen as the strongest independent team in the country. They are almost certain to move up from their No. 10 ranking of last week and may soon be challenging Kentucky, North Carolina State and Kansas State for No. 1 honors.

St. John's victory was easily the most significant of a Saturday night program on which six of the seven teams rated among the top 10 won. The lone loser was ninth-ranked Northwestern, which lost to Ohio State, 88-72, in a typical Big Ten conference upset.

Art Wall Falter But Wins Crown In Crosby Golf Meet

Pebble Beach, Calif. - (UPI) - Bob Duden of Portland, Ore., finished with a 73-293 in the Bing Crosby golf tournament here, 14 strokes off the pace set by winner Art Wall.

Ed Oldfield of Astoria had a 299. Oldfield's four-day pro-am total with Jackie Jensen was 270. Duden did not compete in the pro-am play.

Pebble Beach, Calif. - (UPI) - Art Wall well known, there are more ways to win or lose a golf tournament than meets the eye.

Wall, the top money-winner of 1959, backed into first place in the $50,000 Bing Crosby national pro-amateur golf tournament Sunday by bogeying the last three holes and still winning top money of $4,000.

Two weeks ago in Los Angeles, where top money was $5,300, he finished second because Ken Venturi came from eight strokes off the pace to beat Art's one-over-par 73.

In the Crosby event, the 35-year-old Wall came close to seeing a duplication of that feat as he three-putted 16 and 17 and hit a trap on 18.

"I never won a tournament that way in my life before," said the mild man from Pocomo Manor, Pa.

Actually, Art won the championship, along with the pro-amateur title which is worth another $2,000 in cold cash, by starting the final 18 holes of competition with three straight birdies.

Lake Mentor To Seek Replay

Minneapolis - (UPI) - Owner Bob Short of the Minneapolis Lakers said he will file an official protest today demanding that last Friday night's game with the Cincinnati Royals be replayed because of a segregation incident involving rookie Negro star Elgin Baylor.

Cincinnati won the game, 95-91, at Charleston, W. Va. when Baylor refused to play after he and two other Negro Minneapolis teammates - Ed Fleming and Boo Ellis - were denied admittance to a Charleston hotel.

Short said the Lakers never would have gone to Charleston had they known such an incident would occur. The game originally had been scheduled for Cincinnati.

Ruthie Jessen Tampa Titlist

Tampa, Fla. - (UPI) - Young Ruthie Jessen today credited two months of hard practice for her first major crown as a professional woman golfer.

The blonde-haired, 22-year-old native of Seattle, Wash., fired a three-over-par 76 Sunday to capture the $7,500 Tampa women's club open tournament.

Her 72-hole total of 301 was six strokes ahead of Mary Lena Faulk, Thomasville, Ga. who came in second with an 80 on the final round. Fay Crocker, Wichita, Kan., finished third with a 78 for a 72-hole total of 308.

Carl Jensen, Portland, captured the major honors in the first annual Southern Oregon Autorama at the Medford Armory on Saturday and Sunday.

His street roadster pick-up won the grand sweepstakes trophy. The vehicle was also judged the best "rod" and won the trophy for its class. The pick-up is a 1928 Ford.

Monty Wray, Ashland, was awarded the trophy for best local entry and took top street roadster prize. Sonny Morris, Hayward, Calif., entered a flashy double-hooded auto which took full custom honors and was designated the "people's choice."

The show which drew 1,828 persons was successful so far as interest shown was concerned and Manager Mike Batnich said he is planning a second autorama here next fall. More than 30 vehicles were entered in the competition. The cars drew much comment from adults who were amazed at the work done by the young men who displayed their machines.

Other Prizes Mike Myers, Medford, took first in the quarter-midget class; Dick Travis, Medford, second and Eugene Richmond third.

Four antique cars entered by Tucker Sno-Cat gained awards with the big Pierce-Arrow getting top trophy. Southern Oregon Wheelers competition coupe, the Zombie, was No. 1 in its division. In the competition roadster classification the Whipp-Hammond-Johnson car, Redding, Calif., was first and the Belton Webber vehicle, Medford, second.

In the dragster division the impressive Swiftan's Blackbird of Medford gained first trophy with the pee wee machine of Jack White, Medford, and Pat Franzen, Grants Pass, runner-up. Keith Wilson, Ashland, claimed the competition pick-up trophy and Stan Jones, Portland, took custom sport class with his Thunderbird. Dave Aos, Medford was second. Jones' car was judged best upholstered.

Fur Lined Car Cliff Pedersen, Medford, took two trophies for his furnished semi-custom convertible, the award for the class and the one for best local up.
