Dow-Jones Averages At New Record High

New York - (UPI) - Strength in oils, chemicals, steels and special issues lifted the Dow-Jones industrial average to a new record high today, not far from the 600-mark.

Gains of one to more than two points dotted the tape. Demand for oils followed a prediction of a 6 to 7 per cent increase in oil product consumption this year. Steels reflected bigger demand for that metal as the auto industry picks up momentum. Special issues here and there rose one to four points.

International Salt at its best was up eight points at a new high. Gains of two to more than five points were set by Goodrich, Champion Paper, Interchemical, Philadelphia & Reading and Pittston Co.

DOW-JONES AVERAGES - New York - (UPI) - Dow-Jones final stock averages: 30 industrials 597.66, up 1.97; 20 railroads 167.24, up 0.04; 15 utilities 92.51, up 0.09, and 65 stocks 208.60, up 0.46. Sales today were about 3,940,000 shares compared with 3,680,000 shares Tuesday.
