Eagle Point Couple Wed In Recent Church Rites

Eagle Point — Miss Barbara Lou Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Henderson, 215 South B street, Eagle Point, became the bride of Larry B. Dodenhoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Dodenhoff, also Eagle Point, in a ceremony held January 16 at the Eagle Point Community Bible church.

The Rev. Joseph Munshaw officiated at the double-ring ceremony, held at 8 o'clock in the evening. Baskets of red carnations and white stock decorated the church for the event, attended by 150 relatives and friends. Mrs. Raymond Chamberlain played the traditional organ music and accompanied Mrs. James Pond, Ashland, sister of the bride, who sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white chantilly lace over taffeta in ballerina length and styled on princess lines. Her shoulder length veil was held by a lace bonnet and she carried a cascade bouquet of red and white carnations, centered with a white orchid. For something old she carried a handkerchief carried by her paternal grandmother at her wedding over 75 years ago.

Mrs. Pond, was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a red sheer wool dress with blouson bodice and full pleated skirt and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Lloyd Dodenhoff served as best man for his brother, Dewey Henderson, brother of the bride, and Charles Pettigrew seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor. Mrs. Lloyd Dodenhoff, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, cut and served the wedding cake while Mrs. Arthur Philpot presided at the punch bowl. Miss Kathy Moore, cousin of the bridegroom, poured the coffee and Mrs. Norman Stinger, Mrs. Leland Meyer and Miss Linda Neese, assisted with the serving. Miss Barbara Bruegger was in charge of the guest book.

The bride attended Eagle Point schools and is employed at Sacred Heart hospital. She is a past queen of Bethel 56, International Order of Job's

Past, Present Contrasted In McLoughlin School Show

The past and present were contrasted in the semi-annual homemaking style review held at McLoughlin Junior High school Wednesday afternoon. The setting typified these contrasts — a stage coach for the past and a rocket for

Observance Announced

A Medford observance of the World Day of Prayer, an annual event in Christian countries all over the world, will this year be held in the Church of the Nazarene on February 13. Theme for the day is "Lord, I Believe." Medford Council of United Church Women sponsor this observance.

The planning committee, working with Mrs. William Ricken, chairman for the day, announces that the chain day of prayer will not be observed this year but that in lieu of that service, a meditation luncheon is to be held in the annex of the church, preceding the afternoon service in the sanctuary.

Each one attending the luncheon meditation is asked to bring just one sandwich. Tea and coffee will be provided. Mrs. Grover Corum is in charge of the morning meditations and several ministers will participate in the devotions. Mrs. L. B. Pierce heads the prayer circle groups.

Mrs. Milton Snow will conduct a dramatic presentation of the projects to be considered, with women from the various churches taking part. Mrs. Lyle Schoppert is in charge of music arrangements.

Miss Nancy Newton

August Wedding Planned by Pair

The couple both attended Willamette university. Miss Newton is a graduate of University of Oregon Medical school, School of Nursing, and is employed at Doernbecher Memorial Hospital for Children in Portland.

Mr. Alvord is completing his senior year at Church Divinity School of the Pacific, Berkeley, Calif.

The wedding is set for August 1.

McIntosh-Coons Rites Announced

Cave Junction—Miss Jeanne Kathleen Coons became the bride of Kenneth James McIntosh in a ceremony held December 19 at Calvary Baptist church in Salem.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. O. R. Loganbill, attended valley schools while the family were residents of O'Brien. The wedding and the reception which followed at the church, was given for the young couple by the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Parks.

Shower Honors Ashland Woman

Mrs. Martin Tucker, Ashland, was honored Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ray Edwards, 323 King street, Medford at a shower. Co-hostess was Mrs. Larry Edwards. Balloons, storks and pussywills decorated the rooms and serving table for the event.

Mrs. Tucker is currently making her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Miller, while Mr. Tucker is serving with the U.S. Army at Fort Campbell, Ky.

Attending the event were 32 relatives and friends from Ashland, Medford and Phoenix. A prize was won by Mrs. Robert Frazier, Ashland.

In South

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Allen Jr., left Medford Friday for southern California. They will be absent several days on a winter vacation.

the present jet age. About 60 ninth-grade girls modeled garments they had made, walking down a path which represented the Old Oregon Trail. Dresses ranging from the late 1800's to the 1940's were modeled from time to time during the revue to show Oregon fashions through the past 100 years. Each girl reached the stage by stepping from the stage coach. Those modeling the latest fashions came from behind the rocket.

A blouse brigade, as well as school skirts, jumpers, and date dresses made during the semester were shown for the girls' mothers and friends. Narrators for the program were the Misses Julie Latham, Lana Merrifield and Judy Alder.

Entertainment interludes provided interest. Two numbers were sung by a Triple Trio, "Let's Sip a Soda at the Sweet Shop" and "People Will Say We're in Love." Girls were Vivian Dewierd, Sandra Allan, Jean Banks, Joyce Leon, Ann Rojas, Lois Stedman, Joanne Johnson, Pat Methvin, and Claudia Owen.

A square dance group made up of Nancy Kime, Donna Johnson, Wyllojo Mills, Devonne Prough, Dave Jackson, George Clearwater, Dave Foreman and Kenneth Paschke danced the Wabash Cannonball; and the Charleston was danced by Donna Johnson and Judy Alder.

Playing background music for the style review was Mrs. Dorothy Jones of the music department. Usherettes were Joyce Leon and Kathy Uridel.

Chairmen of the various committees were Julie Latham, chairman of Oregon's Fashion Trail theme; Cheryl Potucek, music; JoAnn Kibler, staging; Devonne Prough and Nancy Kime, invitations. Mrs. Joanne Weatherford is the clothing instructor.

At the close of the fashion show a tea was given for mother and friends in the foods department. Refreshments were served by the sixth period foods class and their instructor, Miss Phyllis Black.

UN Chapter To Meet Thursday

Officers for the coming year will be chosen at a meeting of Medford chapter, Oregon United Nations association, at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, January 29, at the Girl's Community Club on North Bartlett street.

The program will be a briefing and fact-finding session on the United Nations. Originally planned for members of the association who will be participating in the annual Great Decisions program which starts this week, the program is also offered to all leaders and members of these groups. It is pointed out that the United Nations is offered as one of the answers to some of the questions which will be explored during the Great Decisions study.

Bruce Manley, a past president of the UN chapter here, will talk on "can the United States become more flexible in dealing with communism through the machinery of the UN." Mrs. Rex Nicodemus will speak on how a permanent UN police force might prevent direct and indirect aggression.

Jim Frohnmayer, president of the International Relations league of Medford High school, will speak on how economic aid can be channeled by the United Nations. Talking on the topic of how the UN's international atomic energy agency can help the U.S. make a greater contribution to peaceful atomic development will be Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr.

A sound film, "United Nations Workshop for Peace," will be shown, and Mrs. Bosworth, who attended the United Nations Assembly in New York this winter, will report on the United Nations workings, and her impressions of the accomplishments of the United Nations.

The meeting is open to all persons who are interested in the United Nations, and who wish to know more about the aims of U.N.

Merit Badge System Adopted by Bethel; Council Session Set

A new merit badge system was adopted by Bethel 14, International Order of Job's Daughters, at a meeting January 21. Plans for the drill team were also discussed.

L. H. Manning, grand inner guard of Oregon, was introduced by Miss Sylvia Morris, honored queen.

Bethel activities were reported by various members.

The guardian council will meet Friday, January 28, at 7:30 p.m. at the Lloyd Parson home, 2329 East Main street. The next meeting of the Bethel will be Wednesday, February 4, at the Masonic temple.
