SOUTHERN OREGON CONFERENCE STANDINGS

Klamath Falls	4	2	.667
Grants Pass	4	2	.667
Crater	2	4	.333
Ashland	0	3	.000

The Medford high Black Tornado continued to live up to its 1959 basketball promise Friday night and took over the top perch in Southern Oregon conference basketball.

Gunning well from both the field and free shot line, playing real tough defense in the second half, gaining the edge under the backboards and coming up with a splendid team output, the Tornado drubbed the Klamath Union Pelicans 66 to 48 at Klamath Falls to reverse the outcome of a previous loop conflict with the Pels.

Medford with the victory pushed into a half-game lead in the District 6 A-1 standings. Klamath fell into a second spot knot with Grants Pass which downed Crater 71 to 53 also on Friday.

"They outdefended and outoffended us," Klamath Coach Dean White said of the Tornadoes after the tussle. He echoed a growing opinion that "Medford is one of the best, if not the best, teams in the state."

Anderson Has 24

Jerry Anderson again was the Tornado's main cog with 24 points and 15 rebounds. Booth Deakins turned in all-around fine performance and contributed 16 points. Lowell Dean was next high with 12 and Ken Durkee contributed some adept ball handling when Klamath put fourth a press in a try to rally against the Medfordites.

Bob Petersen had 13 points and nine rebounds for the main individual showing of the Pelicans.

Deakins and Anderson each hit eight for nine for the Tornado from the free line. Anderson shot eight for 17 and Deakins four for eight from the field.

Medford was in front at the quarter pauses 12 to 11, 32 to 25 and 46 to 35. The Tornado went on top permanently at 18 to 17. Closest Klamath came in the third quarter was 32 to 29. Widest advantage for the Pear city team was 62 to 43.

An even 40-40 on 22 for 55 was the Tornado's accuracy average from the field and Coach Frank Roelandt was particularly pleased with the 22 for 29 shooting from the gift toss stripe. He praised his Medford squad for "real good ball" and "good team effort."

Klamath field firing figures were not available. The Pelicans shot 20 for 28 from the free barrier.

Medford was ahead in the early moments of the mix. Klamath tied it a 6-all and went on top 10 to 6. The Tornado evened at 11 and George Koch made it 12 to 11 at the quarter with a gifter. The Pelican got a 17 to 14 lead before Medford roused up to nab the lead for good.

While not wanting to take anything away from Medford's sparking play, Klamath sources made a point of mentioning that the Pels were subpar physically because of the illness bug.

Medford won the junior varsity game 44 to 40 and Klamath the Wildcat encounter 53 to 41.

Eagle Point - Eagle Point high rallied in the final quarter here Friday night and kept its undefeated status in the Rogue league. The Eagles overcame Illinois Valley's high baskets 57 to 53 to assume lone lead in the circuit by half a game.

IV suffered its first setback in four lopp scuffles.

Bill Turner scored 19 counters and Bill Hubbard 13 for Eagle Point and Lewis and Jerry Buckhaultz each 12 and Dan Slanaker 11 for the Cave Junction team.

Glendale scored in the first minute of play against Phoenix and kept in front for the distance. The Douglas county club jumped off 11 to 11 command. Quarter difference for Glendale were 14 to 11, 26 to 21 and 37 to 32 and the eventual winners then hopped to 43 to 32.

Bud Smart pumped in 24 points for Glendale, all on field goals. Cliff Worley piled up 18 with 10 points on gifts. Gerald Sloper had 13 for Phoenix.

Glendale gained most of its margin from the free line, getting 15 to the Phoenix five. Phoenix hit 19 of 50 from the field and Glendale 21 of 60.

Phoenix had the rebounding edge for the game 44 to 36 on the strength of 24 to 13 in the second half.

Jim Demaret Rips Golf Course Up

Palm Springs, Calif. - (UPI) - Jim Demaret, the old clothes horse from Houston, ripped the Thunderbird course apart with a spectacular seven - under par 64 Saturday and grabbed the third round lead in the $15,000 Thunderbird invitational golf tournament.

The granddaddy of the current era of golfers posted a 54-hole score of 199 on rounds of 69-66-64-199 to take a two stroke lead over young Wes Ellis of Aldecress, N. J., who had a 68 Saturday for a 201. The final 18 holes are slated for today.

Trailing the leader by four strokes are defending champion Ken Venturi of San Francisco and Bo Winger, Odessa, Tex., each with 203 total.

Demaret, who already has won this tournament three times out of the seven it has been played, admits he doesn't understand his prowess of this course.

"I just don't understand why I play so well here," said jaunty James, who is 49 and several times a grandfather.

"Maybe it's because it is a good tough course for drivers. There is an out of bounds on nearly every hole and I've always been a good driver."

Demaret had seven birdies today without a bogie. His longest birdie putt was from 12 feet. He missed only one green - that when he hit a trap on the fifth hole, but he blasted out for a two-foot, one-putt par. He had 28 putts for the round.

"I had the irons going real good, and that's why I had all those short putts," he explained.

Venturi was making a strong bid for the lead as he went five-under par after 15 holes Saturday. However, he fell apart when he hit a trap for a bogie on the 16th and then lost a stroke on the 17th when his tee shot landed behind a tree.

There was a six way tie at 204 between masters' champion Arnold Palmer, Latrobe, Pa.; Friday's leader, Jim Ferree, Winston - Salem, N. C.; Fred Hawkins, El Paso, Tex.; Lloyd Mangrum, Apple Valley, Calif.; Jackie Burke, Houston, Tex.; and Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex.

Bassett said today that Johansson has been served with the papers in New York.

Johansson knocked out Machen last summer in Sweden in the first round. Manager Sid Flaherty claims that the return contract was signed before the fight.

However, Edwin Ahlqvist, Johansson's manager at the time, said that he signed the return bout agreement under duress.

Red Sox Hit Charge

Boston - (UPI) - The Boston Red Sox are interested in good baseball players, not their race, top officials of the club said.

American league president-designate Joe Cronin and new Red Sox general manager Buckley Harris deny the Boston club is prejudiced against negro players.

The charge had been made Thursday night by Jackie Robinson, former star of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who visited Boston in a public relations capacity. Robinson, who returned Friday to New York, said that 15 major league teams have had Negro players but the Red Sox have not.

But Robinson blamed the situation on the Red Sox management, not the team nor the fans.

Cronin, who officially turns over the reins as Sox general manager to Harris on Feb. 1, said the oBston club was "interested in players, not their color."

"Just let the Yankees offer Elston Howard or let Cleveland offer Minnie Minoso and see how quickly the Red Sox will make a deal," Cronin said.
