Scottie Parrick of Trail, who has been confined to a Veterans' hospital in Oakland, has been transferred to the Veterans' hospital in Livermore, Calif. Mrs. Parrick has had a medical check-up and the doctors find that she is not well enough to stand the entire care of Scottie so he was transferred to the Livermore hospital. Mrs. Parrick is staying for the time being in Lucerne, Lake county, Calif., where she can be near her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kelley, who are on vacation, were at St. Augustine, Fla., according to word received here by friends, and were preparing to sail for the Sanibel island. The men fish on the island while the women collect sea shells.

Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Peter Vachon are again living in the area, having purchased the Isaac home on Modoc rd. They plan to rename the place the same as their old home on the river in Shady Cove "Tettering on the Rogue."

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Sullivan and family have moved to Medford. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoff of Los Angeles have been visiting with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, and family of Shady Cove.

Our Lady of Fatima club held an election meeting and get-together at the Rogue River lodge on Jan. 21. There were 15 members present. Mrs. Pearl Meyer became a new member.

Newly-elected officers are president, Mrs. Pearl Adair; vice-president, Mrs. Walter Cross; secretary, Mrs. Pearl Meyer; treasurer, Mrs. Clarence Meyer; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Joaquin Medina; and church custodian, Mrs. Ernest Segessenman.

Plans were made to renovate the tables in the hall and discussion was held for a parish Xmas Night for members of the parish and invited guests. The next meeting will be held the third Thursday in February and all Catholic women of the parish are invited to attend.

The Rogue Wonderland association held a meeting Jan. 20 at the Rogue River lodge, with a good number attending. Guests were Mrs. Tom Yerxa of the Sugar and Spice Preserves at McLeod. She makes the delicious homemade jellies and preserves in her own kitchen and the business, which was only started a few years ago, has grown tremendously. Many of the tourists visiting the area return home with a jar of Mrs. Yerxa's homemade preserves.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Dey of the Evergreen ranch on the Crater Lake highway, who operate a trout pond. The Dey's started their business last year. Also visiting the meeting was Bob Conger who has a ranch at Prospect and who leads pack trips into the back country. Jim Wallis of Eagle Point, a professional river guide, gave a talk on the scenic boat trips to be taken on the Rogue, tying it in with the Oregon Centennial celebration. Jim Wallis, Monty Axtell and T. Lilya are working together to provide scenic trips for groups on the Rogue river.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Oscar Hanson and Mrs. Morris Bush of Elk Creek, Trail on the death of their father, Harry Nicholson, of Central Point. Mr. Nicholson passed away last week in a San Francisco hospital and funeral services were held at Conger-Morris funeral home in Medford on Saturday, Jan. 24.

The sympathy of the community is also extended to the Arley Spain family of Shady Cove on the death of Mrs. Spain's mother, Mrs. Henry Erzicklet in Canton, Ohio. Mrs. Erzicklet passed away very suddenly at her home on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Spain left immediately for Canton, going by bus to Portland and from there on to Canton by train. Funeral services were held on Monday, Jan. 26. The Spain's two children, Arley and Rita, are staying with the Delbert Spains during their parents' absence.

Dr. Ferguson and Dr. Morgan are taking care of him. Mrs. Elmer Young and daughter, Marlene, are vacationing in Los Angeles, where they are visiting with Mrs. Young's mother, Mrs. Mabel McGonagle. Lee Casey of Shady Cove is confined to Sacred Heart hospital where he underwent surgery recently.

Mars Landing in 10 Years Predicted

Washington—UPI—Top space experts said today that within 10 years men could be landing on Mars, reaching out for Jupiter, living in space stations and telecasting to all the world.

Moreover, one expert—Dr. Eugen Esanger of the Technical University of Stuttgart—said men within 40 years may be flashing to the stars and galaxies at the speed of light—186,000 miles a second. He also said men may be destroying their enemies with death rays.

The dazzling futuristic forecasts—compiled in a report by the House Space Committee—were written by 56 space experts in the United States, Great Britain, Germany, Italy and the Far East.

Tax Relief for Self-Employed Seen—Washington—(UPI)—Congressional tax writers soon will begin a drive to give major tax relief to self-employed persons, it was disclosed today.

The drive will start so early in the 86th Congress that backers figure the legislation has a good chance of reaching the White House this year. The tax relief proposal—which would cost the Treasury an estimated $365 million in revenue—is designed to help doctors, farmers, business proprietors and other self-employed persons build up retirement funds.

It would allow self-employed persons to defer payment of taxes until age 65 on 10 per cent of their earnings which they voluntarily place in retirement funds. The maximum amount on which tax deferral would be granted would be set at $2,500 a year.

Veteran Actor Under Care for Pneumonia—Santa Monica, Calif.—(UPI)—Actor Herbert Marshall, 68, was under treatment for pneumonia and pleurisy today at St. John's hospital.

Nixon Talk Seen Bid for Support—Washington—(UPI)—Vice-President Richard M. Nixon's tribute to the anti-Communist record of American labor leaders was viewed in political circles today as a bold bid for union support in 1960.

Informed sources said it was no accident that Nixon twice cited the labor leaders in a New York speech appraising Soviet Deputy Premier Mikoyan's recent visit to this country. At one point, Nixon frankly suggested that some business leaders who had entertained Mikoyan "could learn a lesson from our labor leader who had to fight to expel Communists from their unions and in the process learned how to deal with them."

TRYOUTS for MEDFORD FOOTLIGHTERS winter production "The Tender Trap," will be held at the Theatre behind the Army, TONIGHT, January 28, at 7:30. All interested are cordially invited.

Tape Lags Behind As Market Declines

New York—UPI—The stock market had one of its most severe declines in 1959 today. The bulk of the selling came late in the day.

Traders dumped shares in their efforts to salvage profits. The tape was as much as 11 minutes behind the market near closing time. Then prices met support and rallying tendencies developed. Prices came back from their lows in all sections of the list.

At the lows at 3 p.m., one half hour before closing time the industrial average showed a loss of more than seven points, a bit less than the decline of Jan. 7 when the average fell more than eight points.

U. S. Steel was hard hit as market men interpreted the company's 1958 report as unfavorable. Other steel shares were depressed along with big steel. Tobacco, chemicals, electrical equipments, metals, rails and miscellaneous issues fell sharply.
