

Congress Occupied With Labor Issues; Proposals Studied

Washington—(UPI)—The labor issue occupied Congress on three fronts today with the administration submitting strong views on the subject.

President Eisenhower sent his recommendations for new labor laws to Congress in a special message. Eisenhower asked Congress to clamp down on labor racketeering, and restrict union picketing and boycotting activities.

Another union reform bill—regarded as milder—was the topic of hearings before a Senate labor subcommittee. The so-called Kennedy-Ervin bill is directed primarily toward anti-racketeering provisions and has the backing of the AFL-CIO.

Teamsters Target

The Senate Rackets committee, whose investigations led to agitation for most of the proposed labor legislation, was bearing down today on the fiscal affairs of the Teamsters union.

The committee checked testimony that a Chicago insurance broker, Allen Dorfman, received at least $1,650,000 in excessive fees and commissions on $86 million worth of teamster business over an eight-year period. Charges of this nature were presented Tuesday when the committee began taking a fresh look at the handling of teamster welfare and pension funds.

Other congressional news:

Radiation: A member of the Congressional Atomic committee said that in another 40 years there won't be enough fresh water on earth to safely dilute all the world's radioactive material. The statement came from Rep. Chet Hoffield (D-Calif.), chairman of the radiation subcommittee, as his group opened five days of hearings on the problem of radio-active waste disposal.

Housing: Chairman Albert Rains (D-Ala.), predicted his House banking subcommittee would finish writing an ambitious Democratic housing bill in about a week. All signs indicated the heavily Democratic Congress soon will enact a housing program going far beyond what President Eisenhower wants, and some lawmakers think there's a good chance he will veto it.

Projects: Democrats on the House Public Works committee defeated a Republican attempt to do away with voting on projects involving millions of dollars. The committee voted on strict party lines against two proposals to change the present rule which permits proxy votes.

Oldsters: The Senate Labor committee authorized an extended inquiry into matters affecting the nation's aged and aging persons. Sen. Pat McNamara (D-Mich.), was named to head a new subcommittee on the problem.

Royal Neighbors Plan Mothers March Tonight

Jacksonville—The Royal Neighbors lodge of Jacksonville will conduct the Mothers March for the March of Dimes Thursday, Jan. 29, from 7 until 8 p.m.

Residents wishing to contribute should leave their porch light on. Mothers planning to participate are to meet at the Earnest Rasmussen home at 6:45 p.m.

Los Angeles—(UPI)—Most of the estate of Cecil B. DeMille was left to his daughter, Cecilia, the will of the late producer disclosed Tuesday.

DeMille's wife, Constance, 84, was not named to share in the estate. The producer explained that she already had been adequately provided for.

As the moviemakers' only natural child, Mrs. Cecilia DeMille Harper, was bequeathed half of her father's stock holdings and all of his real estate with the exception of Paradise ranch which went to the Cecil B. DeMille trust.

The size of the estate was not disclosed but it was thought to be a multimillion dollar fortune.

TO VISIT U. S.

Berlin—(UPI)—West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt and his Norwegian-born wife, Rut, leave Feb. 5 on a tour of Canada, the United States and the Far East.

HORNBROOK Grange Installs Officers

By KATHERINE CHAPMAN

Hornbrook - Hornbrook Grange installed officers for the new year at the grange hall Friday evening.

Installed were master, John Shinar; overseer, Margaret Phillips; lecturer, Deana Shinar; steward, Marguerite Rines; assistant steward, Chris King; chaplain, Mary Bear; treasurer, Alice Burns; secretary, Kay Griffin; gatekeeper, Frank Bear; Ceres, Bertha Bradley; Pomona, Gloria Fay Fisher; Flora, Mollie Blankenship; Jody assistant steward, Agnes Sylva.

Frank Ohlurd was elected to the executive committee for a three-year term, and also will serve as insurance agent.

Installing officer was district deputy Wayne O. Ralston of Greenhorn Grange in Yreka, assisted by the Greenhorn drill team.

A potluck dinner preceded the ceremony. Another in the series of card parties will be held Saturday, Jan. 31, at the Grange hall at 8 p.m. The public is invited.

Graveside funeral services for Wilfred Joseph Peltier, 90, were held Friday, Jan. 23, in the Henley-Hornbrook cemetery. The Rev. Harold Coleman of the Yreka Methodist church officiated.

Mr. Peltier was a resident of Hornbrook for a number of years before entering the Siskiyou County General hospital in Yreka in 1955. He died there Jan. 19 after a long illness. He was born in Louisiana, Sept. 7, 1866. He is survived by a son, Lewis, of Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Killingsworth became grandparents for the 16th time Jan. 11, when a daughter was born at Ashland General hospital to their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Middleton. She has been named Raelynn, and is the couple's second child and second daughter. The baby's father is a paratrooper with the Army, and is based at Travis AFB, but is currently on maneuvers in Alaska.

The Altar Society of the local Catholic church met last Thursday at the home of the president, Mrs. Ed Smith. Plans were made and will be completed later for their annual St. Patrick's day card party.

Also meeting Thursday was the Women's Society of the Methodist church. The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Henley Clawson, with devotions led by Mrs. Wayne Cummins, at whose home the group met. Feb. 12 was set for the annual Valentine Silver tea, and committees were appointed to make arrangements.

The boys' and girls' basketball teams of the Hornbrook grammar school will travel by school bus to Ft. Jones Friday afternoon for games with the grammar school there, according to principal Harley Baker.

Baker also reports that his sixth, seventh and eighth graders are selling magazine subscriptions. The school keeps the money for half of all sales made. The individual out of each class selling the most subscriptions will be awarded a prize, and at the end of the sales campaign, all youngsters who have sold $5 or more worth will compete for prizes.

Cub Scout Den Mother Mrs. Frank Cardoza reports that the Cub Scouts will hold a potluck dinner at the school Feb. 11 at 6:30 p.m. This will be in connection with their regular pack meeting, and is in observance of national Scout week. All in the community who are interested in the Scout movement are welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bear, Mr. and Mrs. John Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ohlurd, Mrs. Bertha Bradley and Mrs. Norma Pickard drove to Yreka Thursday evening, where they attended the card party held at the Greenhorn Grange hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ohlurd were dinner guests Monday at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ohlurd and children, in Yreka. The dinner was in observance of Frank Ohlurd's birthday. Later the same evening, Mrs. Frank Ohlurd attended a meeting of her sewing club in Yreka.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Waumac of Selma, Ore., were guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Clawson. Mrs. Waumac is their niece.

Mrs. Pearl Grow spent the week end in Redding, Calif., with her sister.

Mrs. H. C. Reeve returned last month from Salt Lake City where she had spent five weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Udder.

Frank Cardoza was in San Francisco this week on a business trip.

A baby shower honoring Mrs. Della Sylva Hanke was held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Al King. Assisting Mrs. King were Mrs. George Smith and Miss Sharee Walsh. Since the honored guest lives in Castro Valley, Calif., and was unable to attend, the guests brought their gifts unwrapped, and the afternoon was spent in wrapping them, and writing a "Round Robin" letter to her.

Attending the party were Mrs. Hanke's mother, Mrs. John Sylva, her four sisters, Mrs. George Smith, Miss Vivian Sylva, Mrs. Wayne Smith and son, David Wayne, and Mrs. Bob Sanders and son, Bobbie, the latter three sisters from Yreka, Mrs. Ed Smith, Mrs. Ben Phillips, Mrs. John Shinar, Mrs. Harry Chapman, Mrs. Henley Clawson, Mrs. L. C. Walsh, Mrs. John Griffin, Mrs. Lennard Sloan, Miss Linda Blankenship, and the hostess' daughter, Terry.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith of Winston, Ore., were week end visitors at the homes of their daughters, Mrs. Bryan Wingham, in Hornbrook, and Mrs. Benny Raymond and son in Hills.

Luncheon guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bear and sons, Leonard and Ermin, were the Rev. Robert Connelly of St. Joseph's Catholic church in Yreka, and Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzgerald and children of the Bogus area. Mr. Connelly returned Friday from a three-weeks' vacation in Miami, Fla.

Bob Paine, a pre-med student at the University of Oregon at Eugene, spent the week end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loran Paine, and his brother, Lornie.

Phil Dozier has moved back here from Ashland, and is living in his trailer on the Orson Coleman ranch. Visiting Dozier last week, and also Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, were Mr. and Mrs. Noel Taylor of Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Burns returned Saturday from a two weeks' vacation in which they visited in Millbrae, Calif., their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Stickney, and daughter, Renee and Piper, and with their son, Don, and his family in Belmont, Calif. En route home they stopped in Anderson, Calif., to visit another son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Spearin, and sons. Their granddaughter, Renee, came home with them for a week's visit.
