MISSING PLANE

Ontario - (UPI) - Planes searched without success Wednesday for pilot John Miller, 36, Vale, missing since early Tuesday on a flight to Vale from Reno, Nev. Miller was believed to have been near Rome, Ore., when he was last heard from.

MARTIN FAMILY

Portland - (UPI) - A glove and a paint chip, checked by the FBI in Washington, D. C., had no connection with the missing five-member Ken Martin family of Portland, authorities said today. The glove was found Dec. 28 near Cascade Locks and the paint chip was scraped from a rock leading to the Columbia river. The family has been missing since Dec. 7.

CALLER SENTENCED

Portland - (UPI) - Municipal Judge J. J. Murchison Wednesday sentenced Howard W. Eggleston, 45, to 180 days in jail for making a series of bomb threat calls at Reed College last fall. Eggleston was accused of making a false police report. The bomb threats were telephoned to police switchboard. Eggleston worked as a special officer on the Reed campus.

Eggleston appealed to Circuit Court and was released under $1,000 bond.

OREGON ENROLLMENT

Eugene - (UPI) - Enrollment for the winter term at the University of Oregon was 5,757 compared to 5,520 at the same period a year ago.

WORLD TRAVELLER

Hamden, Conn. - (UPI) - After he had driven eight miles on his tricycle, four-year-old Donald Clarkson of North Haven was found exhausted and crying. He told police, "I ran out of gas."
