

Church Blessing Sunday; Sisters to be Honored

Plans are being completed for the Centennial celebration of the blessing of St. Joseph's church in Jacksonville, the first Catholic church in southern Oregon.

Guest of honor for the two-day observance will be the Most Rev. Edward D. Howard, DD, Archbishop of Portland in Oregon, who will preside at several of the scheduled functions.

Mother Mary Mark, provincial superior of the Oregon Province of the Sisters of the Holy Names Order.

Mother Mark's last teaching position before being named superior of the province was in St. Mary's High school here. She and Sister Leonella, with the Sisters of St. Mary's Convent, will attend the Centennial banquet Sunday evening.

Centennial Mass
Sunday at 9 a.m. Archbishop Howard will celebrate the Centennial mass in St. Joseph's church, and will preach the occasional sermon there. He will be assisted by the Rev. William McLeod, pastor of the church. Attending them will be an honor guard of local Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, led by State Master Otto L. Smith of Klamath Falls.

The boy's choir of St. Mary's High school will sing the hymns at this mass. The Centennial banquet, to which all interested persons are invited, will be served at 5 p.m. Sunday in the gymnasium of St. Mary's school. Honored guest and speaker will be Archbishop Howard. Several civic officials and pioneer members of the community, as well as the Sisters, will be special guests.

Following the dinner hour there will be a program including selections by the Shadows, a group of St. Mary's students, and songs by a barbershop quartet which has been organized by Dr. Abner Clark. The program will not be announced in advance.

Dinner music will be played by Jack Stong on the organ. The dinner will be catered by a local hotel and served by a group of St. Mary's High school students.

Sisters Honored
At 9 a.m. Monday in Sacred Heart church the Archbishop will be celebrating a pontifical high mass, honoring the Holy Names Sisters who have been active in the teaching field in Oregon since 1859. They came to Jacksonville in 1865 and to Medford in 1908.

Several priests of this area will assist Archbishop Howard. Music will be sung by students of the grade and high schools, the boys' choir, and Marian choir.

Since the small seating capacity of St. Joseph's church will make attendance at the Centennial mass impossible for most people, the younger school children will not take in the Monday pontifical mass.

1st Christian Tells Sunday Topics
The Rev. William C. Piper will preach on "The Frontier is Past Us" at both services at the First Christian church Sunday morning. This is a continuation of his series of sermons on "The Frontiers of Faith."

The violin solo "Going Home" will be played at the 8:30 a.m. service by Miss Julie Latham. She will be accompanied by Miss Lynn Latham. At the 10:55 a.m. service the choir will sing the anthem "Rejoice." A coffee hour will follow the second service.

The School of Missions will begin at 6 p.m. with study groups for all age levels. Mrs. Mabel Sims will be the leader for the adult group and the lesson will be on Thailand. At the general assembly Mrs. George A. Hicks will speak on Hawaii. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks lived in Hawaii for 12 years and she will bring much first-hand information about the islands.

Nursery care is provided for both morning services and the School of Missions.

Unitarians to Meet Sunday in Ashland
