

Hillsdale Maturity Race Victor

Arcadia, Calif. —(UPI)— Most of the top handicap horses that have been eating Round Table and Hillsdale's dust at Santa Anita get together during the week in the San Pasqual handicap while the fillies and mares stage their big race Saturday.

Heading Wednesday's San Pasqual field is the consistent Terrang, winner of eight stakes at Santa Anita and is seeking his ninth in the mile and a sixteenth race.

The $50,000 Santa Margarita at a mile and an eighth Saturday brings out the C. V. Whitney team of Bug Brush and Gleaming Star; Two Cent Stamp, surprise winner of the Santa Maria Handicap; defending champion Born Rich, Milly K. Baller, Kahl, Galurullah and Well Away.

But the talk of the Western racing world today still centered around Hillsdale's victory Saturday in the $177,150 maturity for his sixth straight stakes win and fourth at the meeting.

Although he won the mile and a quarter race by three-quarters of a length, Hillsdale had to be whipped hard to hold off the closing challenge of Royal Living, a colt that scored its maiden victory only three weeks earlier.

Vote Puts Wheat in Fame Hall

New York —(UPI)— Outfielder Zack Wheat, generally regarded as the outstanding hitter in Brooklyn Dodgers' history, became the latest entry into baseball's Hall of Fame today as the 11th player ever to be voted in by a special "old-timers committee."

The 70-year-old Wheat, one-time idol of all Flatbush fans said he was "tremendously honored and delighted" at his Sunrise Beach, Mo., home when informed of his election by a unanimous vote.

Wheat compiled a lifetime average of .317, batting over .300 during 14 separate seasons, while starting in Brooklyn's outfield from 1909 through 1926. He wound up his major league career with the Philadelphia Athletics in 1927.

The popular left-handed hitter led the National League in hitting with a .335 figure in 1918 and then compiled identical marks of .375 in 1923 and 1924, only to lose out to Rogers Hornsby.

3-Point Basket Shooting Tried

Albany, N. Y. —(UPI)— There were mixed feelings today on the practicability of permitting three points for any basket scored from behind a 23-foot arc.

Sienna and St. Francis of Brooklyn played an experimental game here Sunday, and while each team gave the plan a fair trial, neither was able to score with any degree of consistency.

St. Francis, which won the game, 87-50, attempted the long shot six times and only made good on one. Sienna, bowing to the wishes of the crowd, which kept yelling for the long shot, tried nine, but also scored on only one attempt.

John Thomas Clears Seven in High Jump

Boston —(UPI)— Steel-sprung John Thomas will be back in his own backyard Saturday when he renews his high jump rivalry with Olympic champion Charlie Dumas in the BAA meet at Boston Garden.

Thomas, a 17-year-old Boston University freshman, was on home territory when he set a world indoor record of six feet, 11 3/4 inches two weeks ago in the Boston K. of C. meet. Jumping John bettered the mark with an even seven-foot leap in the Millrose Games at New York last Saturday.

The tall Negro now is reaching for the combined world outdoor and indoor record established by Russia's Yuri Stepanov with a jump of 7 feet, 1.2 inches, July 13, 1937.

Bill Dellinger of the University of Oregon, now in the Air Force, finished second to Delaney.

Medford Y Nat Crew Tops Rivals

Medford Y swimmers returned from Portland late Saturday night after winning a triangular swim meet with the Neighborhood House and the Longview YMCA.

Final scores for the afternoon meet were 226 for Medford, 120 for Neighborhood House and 79 for the Longview team. Interesting sidelight for the meet was the fact that the Longview team beat the Neighborhood House two weeks ago by 30 points.

Medford swimmers had a field day as far as individual events went, capturing 26 first places out of 39 events. Linda and Bruce Hess were top scorers for the meet, with eight first place ribbons apiece. Out of 19 swimmers making the trip for the Medford team, only four swimmers failed to capture a first place.

Fifteen year old Linda Hess came within seven-tenths of a second of knotting the national record for the 40-yard freestyle in her age group with a time of 21.8 seconds.

The next meet for the Medford swimmers is scheduled for Feb. 7 against a strong team from the Portland NE YMCA.

Teamwork Pays Off for Celts

United Press International The Boston Celtics remain top dogs in the National Basketball association's Eastern division because they know a good team effort can overwhelm a rival star's performance.

The Celtics, with five men scoring in double figures, nullified Dolph Schayes' 50-point personal-high performance Sunday to gain a 139-137 overtime victory against the Syracuse Nationals.

Schayes' previous top in the National Basketball association was 47 against Philadelphia two years ago.

The St. Louis Hawks, led by Bob Pettit's 40 points and a .543 shooting percentage from the field, swamped the Detroit Pistons, 130-96.

Andy Johnson, used sparingly, came into the game with about three minutes to go and quickly scored six points to give the Philadelphia Warriors a 113-105 decision over the New York Knickerbockers.

Presbyterians Tip Nazarenes

Presbyterian turned back First Nazarene 39 to 24 Saturday night in a YMCA men's Church league basketball game. Curtis Cook put in eight points for Presbyterian and John Bodenstab six for Nazarene.

FIGHT COST $750
Stockholm, Sweden —(UPI)— Swedish travel agencies and newspapers have estimated that it will cost a Swedish fight fan about $750 to see Ingemar Johansson try to win the world heavyweight boxing championship from Floyd Patterson. The estimate of $750 was made on the assumption that the bout will be held in New York and includes the price of a plane ticket, two days in a hotel, meal bills and a ringside seat. It will cost about $200 more if the bout is held in Los Angeles or Colorado Springs.

Chiefs Nab Two From Pilot Quint

Portland —(UPI)— The Seattle Chiefs nabbed the two University of Portland Pilots here Sunday night, 80-76, to take both ends of a two-game series.

Seattle defeated the Pilots Saturday night, 85-76. Charlie Brown led the way for the Chiefs with 25 points although Portland's Jim Armstrong took high honors with 26. Francis Saunders collected 20 points for Seattle and Wally Panel was second-high for Portland with 22.

The Chiefs were never behind, and shot .484 from the field. Portland hit .346 and out-rebounded the visitors, 54 to 47.

In Saturday's game, Ogorok scored 27 and Brown 25. Armstrong was high for Portland with 21.

Elite Cage Clubs Have Full Week

United Press International Then nation's top-ranked college basketball teams swung into their first full week of activity in almost a month this week — and all figure to come out unscathed unless hit by the same bugaboo that floored St. John's in its annual tour of the Midwest.

Five of the elite get things rolling to night when third-ranked Kansas State (15-1) plays Nebraska, fifth-ranked Cincinnati (13-2) meets Tulsa, seventh-ranked Michigan State (11-2) tangles with Big Ten rival Wisconsin, eighth-ranked St. John's (12-3) invades Notre Dame, and ninth-ranked Bradley (14-2) hosts Wichita.

Kentucky's top-ranked team, which didn't take time out during the annual January lull, doesn't play until Saturday — meeting Mississippi. The Wildcats rewarded Coach Adolph Rupp with 3 victories last week, including the 60th of his career, while pushing their victory record to 17-1.

All of the other top 10 play at least two games this week. Second-ranked North Carolina (12-1), which picked up two victories last week, may find a stumbling block in Duke on Friday, while fourth-ranked N. C. State (14-2) has what amounts to a pair of set-ups in Virginia Tuesday and South Carolina on Saturday.

Cincinnati, trying to crack the grip Kentucky, North Carolina, Kansas State and N. C. State has held on the top four spots in recent weeks, has a relatively tough week ahead. The Bearcats, who romped over Wichita Saturday, 95-87, with national scoring leader Oscar Robertson netting 44 points, play Dayton on Wednesday and then hook up with Temple on Saturday.

Auburn, ranked sixth despite an unbeaten record in 14 games and the nation's longest winning streak of 25, plays Georgia Tech Tuesday and Georgia Saturday. The Tigers had a bad scare from Vanderbilt, the only team to beat Kentucky, Saturday, but kept their streak alive with a 64-66 victory over the Commodores.

St. John's, though, wasn't quite as fortunate. The Brooklyn Redmen, who conclude their tour tonight, took a 12-1 record to St. Louis on Thursday and lost to the Billikens. Then they fell in double overtime to Loyola, Ill., Saturday, 95-85, despite a 38-point effort by Alan Seiden.

St. Louis —(UPI)— The St. Louis Cardinals today had more infield insurance in the person of Billy Harrell, former utility man for the Cleveland Indians.

Crosby Perjury Trial Under Way

Washington —(UPI)— The perjury trial of Oregon Teamster leader Clyde C. Crosby got under way today with a prosecution statement outlining the charge against him.

Government Attorney Philip T. White told a jury of seven women and five men that Crosby lied when he testified before the Senate Rackets committee in March, 1937.

The Senate committee, headed by John L. McClellan (D-Ark.), was investigating alleged efforts of certain individuals to seize control of organized vice in Portland.

Crosby is charged with lying to the committee when he denied taking part in a meeting at his office in November, 1934, with James (Big Jim) Elkins and Thomas Sheridan, the latter a former official of the Oregon Liquor Control Commission.
