Railroads Propose Change in Delays

Portland-UPI-An Interstate Commerce Commission hearing which may run all week or longer was under way here today into a railroad proposal that "free" routine delays be allowed in shipments of lumber from the Northwest to the East.

The Soo Line and Chicago & Northwestern filed tariffs with the ICC asking new privileges whereby shipments of lumber may be stopped in transit at certain "hold points" for periods not to exceed 15 days without assessment of demurrage charges. The present "free" holding limit for routing purposes is 24 hours.

The moon's highest-known mountain is five miles above its average surface level.

Strength in Steel Shares Help Market

New York-UPI-Strength in steel shares gave the stock market an appearance of strength in quiet dealings today.

Steel issues gained one to more than two points. Lukens at the outside was up four points, selling ex-dividend. Demand for the steels reflected demand for steel metal which has been stimulated by strike fears.

Copper issues advanced on the recent rise in the prices of the metal. Some of the oils rallied with Richfield a feature. That stock turned a loss of more than a point into a gain of similar size.

Goodyear rose more than two in its section while Johns-Manville rose more than a point to a new high in the building department.
