For Hasty Divorce
Oakland, Calif. — (AP) — George Matthews, 94, has asked the court to speed up his request for a divorce that would end his marriage of 5½ years. Matthews told Judge Chris B. Fox, "I want to live my last few years on earth in peace."

In the Day's News
By FRANK JENKINS

The news as this is written is a mishmash that perhaps reflects more or less accurately the state of the modern world. Here is an example:

An ordinance which would make it legal for 18-year-olds to SMOKE in Portland was proposed by Mayor Terry Schruk. It is now illegal for anyone under 21 to buy or smoke cigarettes or other tobacco in the city.

IN Salem, the Oregon legislature is considering a similar bill which would lower the smoking age from 18 to 16.

HMMMMMMMM. The reasoning seems to be that they're going to do it anyway, so we might as well make it legal.

IN a police station in San Antonio (Texas) Officer Thomas Fenley was holding down the desk. The telephone rang. He answered it. An excited feminine voice at the other end of the line reported that something supernatural was going on at her house and to GET OUT HERE QUICK.

He got there quick. The lady reported that after her husband had left for work she was sitting at the breakfast table finishing her coffee. Suddenly, she said, a round white object leaped into action. It jumped into her cup. Then it jumped out. It hippity-hopped around the kitchen and then hid behind the refrigerator. It was still making strange noises there.

OFFICER Fenley could hear the noises, so he went after the intruder. It turned out to be a golf ball her husband had left on the table. It had suddenly come loose at the seams. The tightly wound rubber center was popping out through a break in the cover. Every pop caused a bounce.

Such is the life of a policeman.

SECRETARY Dulles is heading for Europe again—presumably in an effort to get our allies together in some sort of a counter-proposal to Russia on the German problem.

It promises to be something of a job. France's De Gaulle opposes ANY kind of meeting with the Russkies before May 27. Britain is reported to oppose another airlift or any ramming through of supplies if Berlin should again be blockaded.

The dispatches report: "The situation facing Dulles adds up to everybody being sure WHAT HE IS AGAINST, but nobody being sure what he is FOR."

That's a common situation these days.

IN conclusion: President Eisenhower, in a breakfast meeting for "freshmen" GOP congressmen, defines his philosophy of government as "an effort to find a common ground for all Americans."

I'm sorry to have to say it, sir, but I'm afraid it can't be done. In these days, we all seem to prefer ARGUMENT to agreement.
