

AAUW Members, Guests To Hear Pakistan Woman

Mrs. Rehana Asif Latif, Islam of Pakistan, widely traveled and outstanding student of economics, will speak to members and guests of Medford branch, American Association of University Women, at a meeting set for Saturday, February 14. Luncheon will be served at 1 p.m. at Mon Desir inn near Central Point.

Soprano To Be Here

A noted singer, Miss Blanche Thebom, will present a concert at the Medford High school auditorium under the auspices of the Civic Music association Wednesday, February 18.

Accompanying Miss Thebom at the piano for the third concert of the season will be William Hughes.

Miss Thebom, a mezzo-soprano, is the first American woman ever to sing in Moscow's Bolshoi Opera and the first American woman concert artist to appear in Russia in more than 20 years. She sang for the United States at the Brussels Fair and during 1957 toured for the State department through South and Central America.

Admission to the concert, which begins at 8 p.m., is by season membership ticket only.

Club To Sponsor Centennial Dance

Hilltoppers Square Dance club will observe Oregon's 100th anniversary of statehood with a Centennial dance to be held Saturday, February 14. The square dance will be held at the Hilltoppers hall in the old Wagner Creek school, two miles west of Talent on Wagner Creek road.

It is thought the rustic atmosphere of the hall will be especially in keeping with the Centennial theme.

Costumes are optional for the dance, with western style of the Gay 90s suggested. "Handlebar" mustaches for the men and lace bonnets for the ladies will be furnished those attending.

Women are requested to bring a box lunch, suitable for two, to be auctioned at intermission. The lunch will also be the admission price. Coffee will be served by the Hilltoppers.

Francis Cronin and guest callers will call the squares.

Medical Auxiliary Slates Meeting

The Women's auxiliary to the Jackson County Medical society will meet Wednesday, February 11 at 7 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William Miller, 1307 Queen Anne avenue. Mrs. James Luce is co-hostess, and will be assisted by Mrs. Fred Lorish.

The program will emphasize the Oregon Centennial, with the history of the Rogue valley being presented by Mrs. Jack Sanborn, whose ancestors were early settlers in the Rogue river valley.

with Mrs. Islam's talk following.

The event is open to branch members, their guests and members of AAUW study groups. Reservations are to be made with Mrs. Nils Edin, luncheon chairman, SPring 2-9911, or Mrs. Joseph Clark, SPring 3-1504. Mrs. Gene Chamberlain and Mrs. Verne Wulthoff are also on the luncheon committee.

Mrs. Islam, now working for her doctorate at the University of California, Berkeley, is the wife of the deputy director of audit of the Pakistan government. Her father has been administrator of the Pakistan Refugee Rehabilitation administration and in earlier years held important positions in the government of India.

All through the years, both during and between periods of study, Mrs. Islam has been active in cultural and welfare organizations and given service to her government. She is a member of the Pakistan Federation of University Women and is one of the two "first international grant-holders from Pakistan" to study in the United States under AAUW sponsorship in 1958-59. Her grant is given by the Anchorage, Alaska, branch of AAUW.

The Interior Decorating Study group of AAUW will have a field trip to the Herr-dobler Furniture company in Ashland, Thursday, February 12 at 8 p.m. Members are to meet at the shop, 125 East Main street, in Ashland.

Following the time at the store, the group is invited to the home of Mrs. Marion McCaulley, 645 Glenwood drive, Ashland, for a social hour. Mrs. Kenneth Shuler and Mrs. Glen Guiley will be assistant hostesses. Those needing transportation are to call Mrs. Calvin Smith, SPring 2-7034.

AAUW Book Review group will meet at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Neilson, 2130 East Jackson boulevard, Wednesday, February 11, at 1 p.m. Mrs. Elmer Ness will review the book, "The Masters of Deceit," by J. Edgar Hoover.

Mrs. John Duffy will be co-hostess.

Littrells Home From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Littrell, 140 Greenway circle, returned recently from a six weeks trip in California and Baja, California.

The couple left Medford December 18 and visited Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Brainerd, Petaluma, Calif., and grandchildren, Lyn and Jan, during the Christmas holidays. From there they traveled to Carmel where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. James Towne, former Medford residents.

Other stops made by the Littrells were at Disneyland, Laguna Beach, San Diego, and Coronado. The couple also spent a week in La Paz, Baja California, prior to returning to Palm Desert and Petaluma.

The Jacksonville museum parlor, furnished in 1959 as parlors were furnished a hundred years ago, was filled with handsome women and pretty girls Monday afternoon who posed for Tribune pictures. Shown here seated at the parlor melodeon is Gayle Offenbacher, and Deborah Zuppan stands at her side. This melodeon, made in 1738, was brought to Oregon by an early-day minister and later was the property of the late Miss Alice Hanley. The handsome rosewood case is handmade, and the reeds of this organ-type instrument were made in Austria in 1822. Gayle wears a lavender and white checked silk dress given to the museum by Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter. The dress, about 100 years old, belonged to a great-aunt of Mrs. Carpenter.

Mackay - Brannan Rites Announced

Talent - Miss Glenda Brannan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Brannan, route 1, box 28, Talent, became the bride of Harry S. Mackay, son of Mrs. Mabel E. Mackay, 333 B street, Ashland, in a ceremony held January 29 at the Wedding Bell chapel in Santa Ana, Calif.

The Rev. A. S. Bash of the Christian church officiated at double ring rites held at four o'clock in the afternoon. The bride attended Talent High school and is employed by Dr. Christian L. Hald, Ashland. The bridegroom attended Ashland High school and is stationed at El Toro Marine Base, Santa Ana, Calif., and is scheduled to be transferred to Japan for 14 months tour of duty.

Hostesses Give Dinner Parties

Mrs. Robert Hart and Mrs. Floyd Hart recently gave two formal dinners in a series they are planning at Mrs. Floyd Hart's home, Pinehaven.

The events were attended by 38 guests.

Women Attend Van Gogh Show

Mrs. E. Tucker, Jr., 333 Lynwood avenue, Mrs. Emmitt M. Tucker, Ashland, and Mrs. Stanley C. Horton, 44 Windsor avenue, have returned from Portland where they spent two days viewing the Vincent van Gogh show at the Portland Art Museum.

The three women, all members of the Southern Oregon Society of Artists, also attended two evening art lectures at the museum while there.

Concert Planned By Philharmonic

The Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon orchestra is now entering the final phase of rehearsals for a concert that will be held later this month at the Medford High school auditorium.

The rehearsals are held at Lincoln school. The conductor of the symphony orchestra, Richard D. Werner, states that selections for the program are by composers of the romantic period.

Women to Meet At Lovejoy Home

Women of Rotary will meet at the home of Mrs. C. O. Lovejoy, Old Military road, Route 2, Box 442D, Wednesday, February 11, at 12:30 p.m. Members are asked to call the hostess, SPring 3-1963, for reservations.

Chapter to Hear Students Speak

Roberta Sleeter, who spent last summer in Norway as an exchange student, and Sissel Frogner, who is attending Medford High school as an exchange student from that same country, will speak at the Wednesday, February 11, meeting of Chapter AA of PEO Sisterhood.

The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Sleeter, 39 Berkeley Way, with luncheon at 12:30 p.m. Assisting Mrs. Sleeter will be Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer and Mrs. E. B. DeVoe.

Two Speakers Slated by Club

Two speakers are slated for a meeting of Jackson County Republican Women's club on Monday, February 16 at 12 noon, at Ping's Garden.

Mayor John Snider, who is a Jackson county member of the Oregon Centennial commission, will speak on the subject of legislation pertaining to the Centennial.

Mrs. Harry A. Pallady, Portland, will also be a guest of the club and will explain the National Federation of Republican Women. The Jackson county club is not currently affiliated with the federation, according to local president Mrs. Murray Gardiner.

Kiwanian Dames Announce Coffee

Another in the current series of coffees will be given by the Kiwanian Dames on Wednesday, February 11, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, at the home of Mrs. Emerson Anderson, 2131 Hillcrest rd.

Wives of all Kiwanis club members are invited to attend.

Rector to Speak At Guild Session

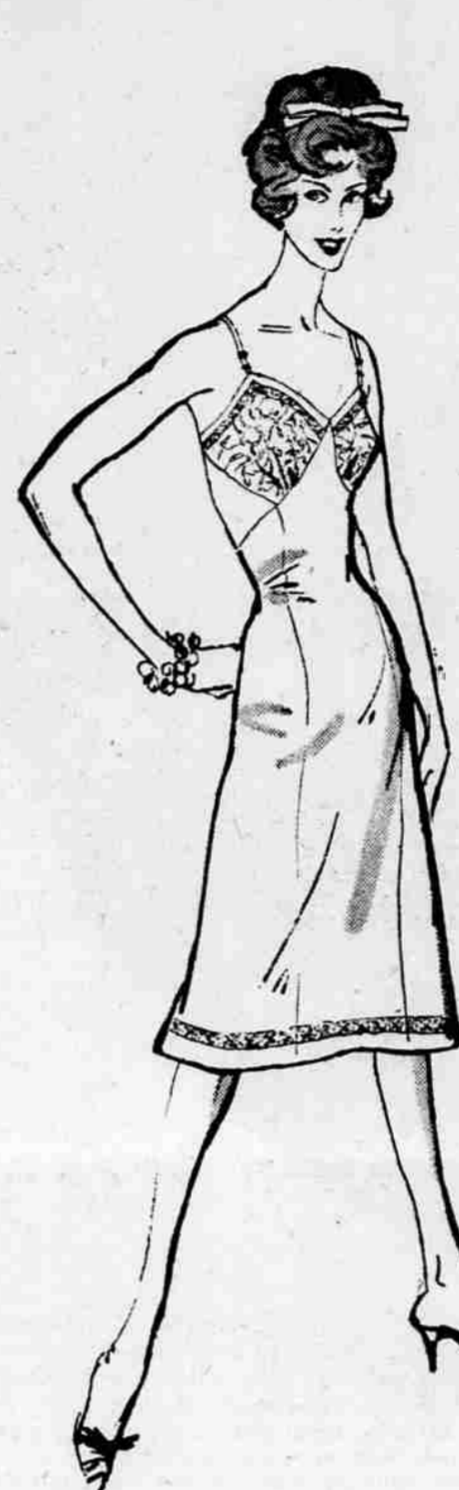

St. Elizabeth's guild will meet Friday, February 13, at 12 noon at the Parish house for luncheon followed by a business meeting and program.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster will speak on the missionary work of the church.

All women of St. Mark's church are invited to attend. Persons needing transportation are to contact the church office, SPring 3-3111.

Holy communion will be celebrated at 11 a.m. prior to luncheon.
