

Quotes From the News

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

Miami, Fla.—Detective Marion Murreh, on the conduct of two gunmen who robbed a jewelry store of jewels valued at $250,000:

"At least they were gentlemen about the whole thing."

Madison, Wis.—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, on educational differences between the United States and Russia:

"You cannot compare our educational system with theirs. The aim of theirs is to produce people who are completely amenable to the Communist way of life. The aim of ours is to teach people to think for themselves."

Washington—Mrs. James C. Parker of Grand Rapids, Mich., president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers on American education:

"If the current cult of comfort and security continues to undermine the ideals of hard endeavor, the school will find it well-nigh impossible to inspire in youth a commitment to a purpose beyond self-gratification."

Columbus, Ohio—George P. Vierheller, director of the St. Louis Zoo, on chimpanzees as drivers:

"They are very accurate in their timing . . . sometimes more accurate than people."

PHOENIX Pioneer Program Set

By LILLIAN KNIGHT

Phoenix—A centennial program will take the place of the regular Grange program to be held at the Grange hall Tuesday, Feb. 10, at 8 p.m., according to Mrs. Bert Stancliffe, and Dee Hendrickson.

The meeting will honor the pioneers of southern Oregon and will be open to the public. Those attending are urged to wear early day clothing and Grange members particularly are asked to wear pioneer-type costumes.

A fashion show will be presented by Mrs. Stancliffe, and other entertainment will include Vaughn Quackenbush's barbershop quartet and square dancing exhibitions by Chris Wolf and the "Blacklighters" troupe.

A display of historical articles will be arranged by Mrs. Olen Poe. Members and guests are asked to bring their displays to the hall by Tuesday afternoon and to attach cards with name and other data to the article.

Pioneer type refreshments will be served by Mrs. Mervin Hixson and her refreshment committee.

Donald Korth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Korth, underwent minor surgery Friday at the Rogue Valley hospital. He came home Sunday and will be recuperating a few days before returning to school. He is a senior at Phoenix High school.

Bert Stancliffe underwent major surgery Tuesday at the Rogue Valley Memorial hospital. He is now home recuperating and is able to have friends visit him.

The centennial theme was carried out at the PTA meeting Thursday, Feb. 5, at the grade school gymnasium when Mr. C. Lester Wilson's eighth grade pupils gave talks on Oregon history. Jim Webb was master of ceremonies and girls taking part, dressed in early-day costumes, were Penny Simmonds, Dorothy James, Linda Sommers, Laura Griffith, Connie Patterson, and Darlene Coffman.

Their speeches were on subjects of early churches, schools, Indians, the discovery of gold in Oregon, and the early pioneering of Jesse and Lindsey Applegate. Refreshments were served by the fifth grade mothers. The eighth grade was winner of the room count.

The seventh and eighth grade basketball girls will play the Ruch girls Tuesday afternoon at 3:05 in the grade school gymnasium.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Furry are on an extended vacation trip which will take them to Visalia, Calif., where they will visit his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Furry, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Berger. They will go to Bakersfield, Needles, and will spend some time at Earp where they will go boating and fishing on the Colorado river. From there they will visit at Los Vegas and then go on to Tucson before returning home.

TO VISIT U.S. London—British Education Minister Geoffrey Lloyd will visit the United States and Canada from Feb. 15 to March 2, the Education Ministry announced today.
