Bobbett-Edwards Rites Held at Catholic Church

Miss Barbara Ann Edwards became the bride of Robert Eugene Bobbett in a ceremony held February 7 at 10 o'clock in the morning at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Rev. William McLeod officiated at the double-ring rites attended by 100 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Edwards, 1122 Morrow road, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bobbett, 1740 North Riverside avenue.

Baskets of white and red carnations decorated the church for the ceremony. Bruno Pellegrini played the organ wedding music.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of Alencon lace with bouffant skirt which terminated in a train. Her veil was of illusion and fell from a cap of lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations encircling red carnations.

Joe Hassler served as best man. Ushers were Paul Read, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Stanley Read. Acolytes were Jim Calhoun and Michael Read.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Edwards wore a blue grey suit with red accessories. Mrs. Bobbett chose a pink knit suit with black accessories. They both wore white orchid corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Pioneer room in the Jackson hotel. Red and white carnations decorated the rooms, arranged by Mrs. William Totton. Mrs. Paul Read, sister of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake which was served by Mrs. Jack Smith, Roseburg, aunt of the bride. Mrs. William Johnson presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Eugene Edwards, aunt of the bride, poured the coffee. Miss Janet Edwards was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Ted Yarnell and Mrs. Larry Ryden were at the gift tables. Also assisting at the reception was Mrs. Ray Edwards, aunt of the bride. The newlywed couple traveled to southern California on their wedding trip. The bride wore for traveling a black and tan suit with black accessories. They will make their home at 506 Kenwood avenue after February 21.

The bride attended Medford High school and Robert School of Business. Mr. Bobbett attended St. Mary's High school and is in business with his father at the Medford Battery shop.

Out-of-town relatives of the bride who attended the wedding included Mrs. Eva Smith, her grandmother, Central Point; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith, and three sons, Roseburg, uncle and aunt; Mr. and Mrs. William Keep, Mapleton, great-uncle and aunt; and Mrs. Joan Halfhill, Salem.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honored at three showers. They were given by Mrs. Ray Edwards, 323 King street; Mrs. Eugene Edwards, Foothills road, and Mrs. Jean Barde, 924 South Ivy street.

Valley Residents Attend Art Show

Among valley residents who saw the Vincent Van Gogh show in Portland last week were Mrs. John Ousterhout, Eagle Point; Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter, and Mrs. Bren H. Starcher, Medford.

The Carpenters were in Portland in order that Mr. Carpenter might attend a meeting of the Oregon Egg Producers' association of which he is vice-president.

While away Mrs. Ousterhout and Mrs. Starcher were guests of Mrs. Ousterhout's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nill, Eugene. The three women motored from Eugene to Portland Wednesday to see the exhibit which is attracting record-breaking crowds at the Portland Art museum.

Return

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Miksche have returned to their home on Greenway circle after spending a winter vacation in Laguna beach and Palm Springs, Calif.

Centennial Seniors Guests Of St. Mary's Junior Class

"The Centennial Seniors of '59" of St. Mary's High school were saluted at a banquet Monday, February 9. The Junior class honored the class to be graduated this year with a Pioneer dinner held at Pings' Garden at 7 p.m.

Covered wagon nut cups, place cards and printed programs promoted the theme. Kathleen Elbert, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Leonard E. Elbert, created the blue printed design used on the red programs. Miss Elbert is a student in the art class of the school. The programs carried out the class colors of red, white and blue.

A western fort centered the table and bowls of floating painted daisies were used with streamers of ivy. Helping with decorations were Ann Darland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Darland; Dianne Day, daughter of the Ben Days; Anne Haviland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Haviland; Mary Ruth Hennebeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Hennebeck; Marilyn Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Martin; Lynne Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Parsons, and Miss Elbert.

Miss Haviland and Miss Hennebeck were co-chairmen of the decorating committee. General chairman of the banquet was Jere Randolph, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Randolph. He was assisted by Thomas Tomjack, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tomjack.

Donald Davy, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Davy, was in charge of programs. Donald Macpherson, son of the Donald Macphersons, and Ronald Schaefer, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Schaefer, assisted him.

Senior class officers are President Robert Farra, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Farra; Vice-President Harold Daley, son of Walter P. Daley; Secretary Diane Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adams; and Treasurer Sharon Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd O. Roberts.

Junior class officers are Jere Randolph, president; Thomas Tomjack, vice-president; Marilyn Martin, secretary and Michael Duggan, treasurer, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Duggan.

The Very Rev. Carl Mai, the Rev. William McLeod, the Rev. John Ilg, William McKibbin, Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Randolph, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tomjack were guests and chaperones.
