

Junior Club Plans Event

A bowling party and chili feed is planned by Medford Junior Women's club in observance of Federation day. The event will be held at the Medford Bowling lanes at 7 p.m. Saturday, February 28. Supper will follow at the home of Mrs. Robert Billingsley. Husbands will be guests.

Mrs. John L. Holmes reported that the club's philanthropic project, the school clothing pool, is operating quite successfully.

The membership chairman, Mrs. L. E. McConnell, asked Mrs. F. D. Nelson and Mrs. James Kirby to meet with her next week to discuss ideas for increasing membership.

Financial support was given to the School of Hope, the Sadie Orr Dunbar Nursing education fund, the Tillamook burn fund and the scholarship loan fund.

Transferring from the Portland Junior Women's club was Mrs. F. D. Nelson.

Guest for the evening was Mrs. Robert Hercher, newcomer from Roseburg.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. John L. Holmes with Mrs. J. W. Grigsby, Jr. and Mrs. R. E. Bridenstine as hostesses.

Medford Junior Women's club is a member of the General Federation of Women's clubs.

To Initiate

Mrs. James Redden Named Queen of Valentine Dance

Mrs. James Redden was named queen of the Beta Sigma Phi Valentine ball, held Saturday, February 7, at Rogue Valley Country club. Mrs. Redden was crowned by the 1958 queen, Mrs. Bob Norris.

Mrs. Walter Larsen was the mistress of ceremonies for the coronation and gave a short history of each of the candidates for queen. Princesses in Queen Joan's court were Mrs. Walter Smith of Beta Upsilon chapter, Mrs. Clinton Neeley of Alpha Beta chapter, and Mrs. Nils Edin of Xi Mu chapter. Each candidate was presented a silver heart from her chapter.

The queen was selected by a panel of judges. Serving as judges were Mrs. Raymond Reter, C. C. Leonard, and Robert Vroman. Following the coronation Mrs. Redden, a member of Alpha Rho chapter, and her husband led the first dance.

The queen wore a blue silk chiffon over taffeta frock, and her robe was of white velvet. She was presented a tiny coronet of rhinestones to wear on her brunette hair, and a long-stemmed daffodil in lieu of a sceptre. Her throne was decorated with white paper lace.

Mrs. Smith wore a gown of red velvet and silver lame, and Mrs. Edin's gown was of black lace over red taffeta. Mrs. Neeley wore a frock of cream color chiffon and taffeta with toast colored flowers on both the chiffon and taffeta.

More than 160 members and guests were present.

Music for the dance was provided by the Thunderbirds. Mrs. William Prentiss was music chairman. A buffet dinner was served preceding the coronation. During intermission The Tempests, a singing group from Southern Oregon college entertained with several popular selections.

The main dining room was decorated with large silver paper balloons hanging from the beams. Two life size silhouettes decorated the walls on either side of the band
