Supper Planned By Wilson PTA

Wilson School Parent-Teacher association will sponsor a potluck supper Tuesday, Feb. 17 in the school cafeteria, according to Mrs. Everett McGraw, president of the group. This will be the only money-raising event of the year, and net proceeds will be used to buy books for the school library.

A fee of $1.50 per family will be charged, in addition to a covered dish to serve 12 persons. Parents of first and second grade children are asked to bring two pies or a cake; third grade, salads; fourth grade, vegetable dish; fifth and sixth grades, meat dishes or casseroles; and teachers, rolls and butter. The PTA will provide coffee, milk, cream and sugar, and table service will be furnished by the school.

Dinner will be served continuously from 6 to 8 p.m. Students of Wilson school will give two variety shows in the gymnasium at 6:45 and 7:30 p.m. Wilson Cub Scout pack will present awards between the performances.

General chairman of the affair is Mrs. H. S. Morris.

Mothers Honored By Scouts

A tea for mothers and a spring style show was given Saturday, February 7, by members of Girl Scout Troop 74 at Girls Community club. Troop 74 is the largest in the Rogue Valley Girls Scout council, having 36 registered members.

Decorations for the tea and show were in the Hawaiian theme, and mothers were greeted Hawaiian style with leis and a kiss. Girls on the hospitality committee were dressed in muu muus.

This seventh grade troop from Hedrick Junior High school had as special guests the girls' women teachers and the staff from the Girl Scout office. In addition to honoring their mothers, the tea was part of a program of good grooming and hospitality that the girls have been studying. Refreshments were prepared by the girls.

Leader of the troop is Mrs. Richard Finch, with Mrs. Berwick Wood, Mrs. John McCann, and Mrs. Jerold Poulos, as assistant leaders. Troop committee members are Mrs. David Irving, Mrs. Robert Root, Mrs. Jack Edson and Mrs. Claude Hoover. The troop is divided into three patrols, with Christine Finch, Christine Bartels, and Sandra Irving as patrol leaders.

The hospitality committee for the tea was Christine Finch, Susan Root, Terri Crovette, Sharon Tucker, Sandra Joyce, and Anita Brenner. Decorating was done by Nancy Atwood, Patty Lindsay, Jill Crawford, Ann Parsons and Bette de Place. Mrs. B. Brandt Bartels and Mrs. H. L. Bush poured.

Modeling fashions for Mann's Department store were Louise Hoover, Janice Ayres, Susan Higgins, Linda McCann, Carolyn Poulos, Gay Howe, Sandra Jones, Donna Budge and Claudia Edson.

Modeling clothes from Leon's were Sandra Irving, Beverly Bush, Vickie Nissen, Judy Wood, Cathy Brown, Penny Sage, and Christine Bartels. Jean Gastineau modeled the Girl Scout uniform and Christine Finch modeled a muu muu which the troop will wear in the May Festival. The commentator for the style show was Marybeth Lockington.

The next important activity of the troop will be an overnight camping trip to Camp Chinkapin in May.
