

Rickey Issues Blistering Call For Expansion of Major Leops

By FRED DOWN
New York - (UPI) - Major league club owners were under fire again today to expand into a third circuit and to make drastic revisions in the competitive and financial set-up of the World Series.

Branch Rickey, one of baseball's elder statesmen, issued a blistering call for expansion "now—not 5 or 10 years from now" and further charged that big league club owners are strangling the minor leagues "with a selfish rush for television gold."

Almost simultaneously, American league player representative Eddie Yost of the Detroit Tigers disclosed that the players will meet on March 24 in Tampa, Fla., to discuss the possibility of renewing the already-lush World Series TV contract on a pay-TV basis.

Rickey, speaking at a luncheon in honor of Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals, blistered the owners policies in regard to expansion, the minor leagues and expansion. And he completely rejected the oft-heard anti-expansion argument that there are not enough good players to form a third major league.

Both fighters were bloodied when the final bell sounded and both received a standing ovation from the 6,062 fans who paid a gross of $17,062 to see the fight.

Chicago - (UPI) - Bill Vecek has plans for the Chicago White Sox, but he won't reveal them until he is certain he has charge of the fortunes of the Comiskey-founded baseball empire.

A great career," said Rickey, indicating Musial. "And so are the minors. Unless the owners do something fast, the minors won't last as long as Musial."

The time to expand into three leagues is now," Rickey continued. "Major league owners are neglecting their moral obligation to baseball in this country by holding back expansion. And they are strangling the minor leagues with a selfish rush for television gold. As a result of these policies, the minors are faced with certain doom in the next few years."

Referee Eddie Volk saw the fight the closest. He scored it 97-96 on the 10-point must system for Moyer. Judge Ralph Gruman had it 99-94 and Andy Crabtree 98-93 for Moyer.

The loss was Martinez' seventh in 68 fights. He has won 31 of them by knockouts.

highways are not short-term investments!

The Federal-Aid Highway program provides Oregon with an unprecedented opportunity. No longer are we compelled to base highway decisions on short-term expediency because of lack of funds. The emphasis is now on total cost as measured by the life of the highway. We are now able to build highways today that can carry tomorrow's traffic.
