For Week End

Leoni Rysanek, new dramatic soprano of the metropolitan Opera company, will sing the role of Lady Macbeth when the opera presents its first broadcast of Verdi's "Macbeth" on KYJC-CBS Radio Saturday, February 21, at 11 a.m.

The New York Times said of Mme. Rysanek that "she performs unforgettably." Born in Vienna, Mme. Rysanek studied in Austria. She is a regular member of the Vienna, Munich and Berlin Opera companies, and has sung leading roles for the past three years with the San Francisco company.

The American baritone, Leonard Warren, will sing the part of Macbeth, tenor Carlo Bergonzi will play MacDuff and basso Jerome Hines will play the role of Banquo. The opera will be conducted by Erich Leinsdorf because of the recent illness of Dimitri Mitropoulos, who had been scheduled to conduct.

Associate Conductor Robert Shaw will lead the Cleveland orchestra in the first radio broadcast of the "Symphony No. 2" by the late young American composer, Robert Kurka, Sunday, February 22. It will be heard in Medford over KYJC-CBS at 11:05 a.m. Mr. Shaw will also conduct the opening work on the program, Beethoven's overture to "Egmont."

George Szell, musical director of the orchestra, will conduct a performance of Haydn's "Symphony No. 88 in D major." This work was composed at Esterhaz in 1787 for performance in Paris, and is one of the several symphonies which Haydn wrote on commission from the society known as the "Concert de la Loge Olympique."
