

State Tax Office To Remain at Its Present Location

The Oregon State Tax commission's Medford office will remain at its present address, room 321, Leverette building, until March 31, according to O. D. Binegar Jr., field auditor.

He said that "due to unforeseen circumstances" the commission will not move to quarters in the new Wilson-McCabe building at Fourth and Grape streets, on the first of March as planned.

Assistance in preparing state tax returns will be offered at the Leverette building March 2, 9 and 16 between 8 and 12 a.m. and 1 and 5 p.m.

In addition, assistance will be offered at Ashland in the council room at the city hall March 9 and 30 from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and at the administration building, Camp White, March 16 from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Assistance Available Assistance will be available at the new office in Medford April 1 through 15 weekdays except Saturday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Grants Pass tax assistance will be offered at room 3, courthouse annex, March 23-26 from 9 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. and on March 27 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Persons wishing help in preparing returns are asked to fill in the form as nearly as possible before calling at the commission office, he said. Information pertaining to total income for 1958 and copies of the 1957 state and federal returns should be brought.

In addition, those who paid additional federal income taxes during 1958 should be prepared to state the date and amount paid, according to the auditor.

The office will be closed Monday in observance of Washington's birthday.

An average modern watch contains upwards of 150 separate parts.

Association Holds First Meeting

The Oregon Restaurant and Beverage association held its first annual meeting in Portland recently following merger of the Oregon Licensed Beverage association and the Associated Restaurants of Oregon.

The new association is a trade group organized for the interests of restaurants, hotels, dinner-clubs, lounges and taverns.

Representatives of both organizations have been working out details for the merger for some time, officers reported. Each group held a meeting last week for membership approval of the merger.

Attending the Portland meeting from this area, representing the Rogue River Valley chapter, were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hamner, Wooden Shoe; James Clithero, Rogue Riviera; Edgar Dahack, Ed's Tavern; Major Connell, Gold Nugget tavern.

Clithero and Dahack were elected directors of the state executive committee. State headquarters are in the Weatherly building, Portland.

The trade magazine of the two former associations has been merged into "The Oregon Restaurant and Beverage."
