Volunteers Needed By Service

A second training course for new volunteers who are willing to assist with the Friendly Visiting service will be held Wednesday, February 25 at the Red Cross building, 60 Hawthorne avenue, according to the committee from the Rogue Valley Council for the Aging.

The session will start at 10 a.m. and last until 2 with a sack lunch at noon. The Friendly Visiting program was started last November to provide cheer in the form of visiting, reading, writing letters, shopping and similar services for patients in nursing homes and homes for the aged.

Although there are now around 30 men and women calling in the homes once a week or every two weeks, there is too much need for as many more, the council reports.

The training course will again be conducted by Mrs. Frank Fairweather, assisted by Mrs. Fred Gardner and Miss Agnes White of the Jackson County Welfare department.

Both men and women are needed for this service. Mrs. Chester Guches, chairman, states.

Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Guches at SPring 3-2713 or Mrs. S. D. Earhart at SPring 3-3193.

Van Gogh Show Hours Extended

Portland - Open hours for the Van Gogh exhibition at the Portland Art Museum will be extended for the last five days of the show, according to an announcement by Dr. Max W. Sullivan, director. From Wednesday, February 25 through the final day of the exhibition, March 1, the museum will be open from 12 noon until 10 p.m. This will provide more opportunity to view this outstanding exhibition of the paintings of the famous Dutch artist.

Attendance at the exhibit is growing daily. Admission is 75 cents for adults; 25c for children under 14 and for high school students with student body card.

decorated by Mrs. E. A. Bowers, were served. Decorations included the PTA symbol, the oak tree.

Child care was provided by Girl Scout Troop 188 with Mrs. Cecil Emery and Mrs. Ivar Hult.

The fourth grade room of Miss Anna Honts won the room count at the meeting.

Past presidents of Roosevelt Parent-Teacher association hold an annual luncheon in February preceding the meeting which observes Founders' day. Attending the luncheon this year at Rogue Valley Country club were (seated, left to right) Mrs. Harris B. Janes, Mrs. Warren Lesseg and Mrs. Orrin L. Brown; and (standing) Mrs. William H. Seibert, Mrs. W. A. Arnold and Mrs. John Carter. Following the luncheon the women attend the February meeting of the association at the school.

Past Presidents Honored By Lincoln Association

Past presidents of the Lincoln Parent Teachers association were honored February 12 at the annual Founders' day meeting held at the school gymnasium.

A large heart decorated the stage through which past presidents walked prior to giving a resume of their activities during their term in office. Mrs. J. W. Jacobs, the PTA's first president, who served in 1917-1918, has been a member of the association since 1907. She was presented a lifetime membership and pin by the group.

Each of the past presidents was presented a certificate.

The past presidents included Mrs. J. W. Jacobs, Mrs. Florence Laing, Mrs. Ethel Florey, Mrs. Dee Newton, Mrs. Irene Shirley, Mrs. Grover Corum, Mrs. H. Martin, Mrs. John Benson, Sebastiano J. Fagone, John Weber, and Ted McLean.

The group sang a song written by Mrs. Bernice Viles, second grade teacher, about the association.

Jack Holmes, principal, reported on the fire marshal's inspection, during the business meeting which preceded the program.

An article from the National Lunchroom magazine in which the Lincoln school was cited for an outstanding lunch room, was read.

It was announced that the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary would sponsor the Lincoln school Brownie and Girl Scout programs.

John Weber, Mrs. Ray Jack, and Mrs. Virgil Stickley with Mr. Holmes and Mrs. Fagone, advisors, were elected to the nominating committee. In charge of the program were Mrs. Dexter Williams and Mrs. Bernice Viles.

Members of the executive committee were dressed in old-fashioned attire. Old-fashioned cookies and cake,
