

Havana Lays Carpet For Florida Tourist

Havana — (UPI) — About 1,000 Florida tourists poured into Havana Monday to open the city's bargain-basement "welcome tour," authorities here hope at least four times that number will be on hand by Wednesday.

Hotels here are holding 2,000 double rooms open for tourists who take advantage of the offer of three day's free lodging and entertainment, resigned to revive the stalled tourist trade.

The $55.50 cost of the three-day tour, open to any traveler from the Florida area, covers the round-trip air fare, hotel accommodations, a sightseeing tour of Havana, a street carnival, a parachute-drop and water show, night club performances and open-air concerts.
