Central Point Grange

The first Grange visitation was held with Central Point Grange at the regular meeting Feb. 20. Members from Eagle Point, Phoenix, Griffin Creek, Roxy Ann, Applegate, Upper Rogue, Gold Hill and Live Oak Granges attended. Guests presented at the master's station were Pomona Master Bob Bitterling, and subordinate masters, Kimping, Richey, Christenson, and Johnson.

Reports of standing committees were given by H. Conger, agriculture; Edwin Gebhard, horticulture; John Neidermeyer, legislative; Mrs. Charles Janzter, HEC, who said the Centennial booklet will be available all year.

She also expressed thanks to all who attended the Centennial dinner or contributed in any way to make it the success it was. The Grange realized the largest receipts from this dinner ever recorded.

The costumes and beads worn by those attending made this an affair to be long remembered.

Mrs. Walter Mang, reception committee, reported 74 visitors present. Master Benton Boyce asked C. C. Hoover of Eagle Point Grange to explain the tree planting project, which his Grange is sponsoring. Central Point Grange will consider this at a later meeting as a community project.

To the refrain "Happy Birthday" Master Benton Boyce was escorted to the HEC station and presented a three tiered cake with lighted candles in honor of his birthday. Mrs. M. Weidman and Mrs. G. Floux were presented perfect record cards from the State Grange for having had all their reports to HEC and state lecturer in on time in 1958.

Mrs. O. T. Wilson, chairman for the group of members S through Z, presented the lecturer's program by introducing Ed Griggs and Bill McFarlane, instructors in the Crater High vocational agriculture department. Griggs presented Don Denning, whose speech was entitled "Let It Be Known," which was a talk on the value of publicity. This is the speech Don will give when he represents Crater FFA in the district speech contest on Feb. 26 at Crater.

McFarlane introduced the FFA Rogue River Ramblers, five FFA boys who play electric guitars, in a group of Western and boogie numbers. The first edition of a local paper was read by Mrs. M. Weidman, which was followed by a serious article being read by Chuck Taylor, which turned out to be a "short tale."

A song with original words by Mrs. Wilson entitled "Song of Oregon," was sung by all present. Pictures, dishes, clothing and other articles of early times which were on the display table, were explained by Mrs. Wilson. A Virginia Reel, with two sets of members in costumes, concluded the program. Instead of the usual whisker contest, there was a ladies long hair contest which resulted in Mrs. Bruce, of Gold Hill Grange, being declared winner.

This was the last membership program and the final count revealed that the group K through R with Mrs. Walter Mang, chairman, had won with the largest attendance on Feb. 6. The three losing groups will entertain the winners with a dinner on March 6.

Serving committee for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morehouse, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Darras, assisted by the visiting ladies, also furnishing cookies and sandwiches.

Extortion Plot Brings Five Years

Los Angeles — (UPI) — A 34-year-old movie studio commissary worker was sentenced to five years in prison Tuesday for attempting to extort $100,000 from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production chief Sol Siegel.

Herbert Strauch, a naturalized German, pleaded guilty last Feb. 2 to the extortion plot in which he threatened the life of both Siegel and his wife. He was arrested last Jan. 15 by FBI agents as he talked with Siegel on the telephone about payment of the extortion money.
