The Family Council

Editor's note: The Family Council consists of a judge, a psychiatrist, three clergymen, a newspaper editor, a woman's editor and two writers. Each article is a summary of an actual report. The Family Council does not give advice; it merely reports on problems that have been dealt with by responsible agencies and counselors.

Larry J. - Life would be beautiful if she'd say yes. Betty S. - I feel like making him suffer as I suffered.

Larry J. - I've made a terrible mess, and I'm trying to straighten out. I only need the help of the girl I love - she doesn't want to give it to me.

Betty S. - I was engaged to be married, but I got into trouble with another girl. I had to break the engagement and marry Lee, now after a year of married life, Lee tells me that she's pretty sure the baby isn't even mine.

I never can stop loving Betty and I told her so at the time I broke the engagement. I can't stand the life I'm living and I can't believe that at the age of 23 I have to just give in and take my punishment.

Betty S. - I really don't know what to do. I feel like making Larry suffer now the way he made me suffer, but I may be cutting off my nose to spite my face.

Larry pointed out one thing I've always felt guilty about. We used to do some heavy petting when we were going together, but I refused to go all the way. It may have been my fault that he was driven to this girl.

I was hit so hard by what Larry did that for many months I was unable even to walk out in the street with my head up. Everybody knew what happened. It is only in the past few months that I've managed to pull myself together and start dating again.

The Council: Larry appears to be reaching toward Betty as to a lifeline to save him from his miserable fate. His humility and need for her must taste sweet after her bitter experience but she should not allow herself to be tricked by it.

Betty's degree of responsibility for the mess Larry has made is a relative small one. Larry was a responsible adult and might have chosen to behave differently.

Larry's mess is something he must work out for himself and Betty would be very foolish to get herself involved at this point. Larry cannot

Millard, Crawford Named Judges Pro Tem

Salem - The Oregon Supreme Court announced that it has appointed Circuit Judges James W. Crawford, Portland, and Orval J. Millard, Grants Pass, to serve as judges pro tem of the high court.

Portland - Cleanhaven Ray Calvert, Umatilla county Centennial chairman, said Friday that beard-growing is being officially discouraged in his county. "We think it's unsanitary, unsightly and wholly unnecessary," he said.
