Ways and Means Seen as Key To Budget Battle

Salem —UPB— Rep. Clarence Barton (D-Coquille), chairman of the House Tax Committee, said Wednesday the budget battle probably would be won or lost in the Ways and Means Committee.

Barton said he had hopes the Committee could cut the general fund needs to 285 million dollars, below budgets proposed by Gov. Mark Hatfield and ex-Gov. Robert D. Holmes. He said he was "in favor of anything to lower taxes."

Staff Not Optimistic

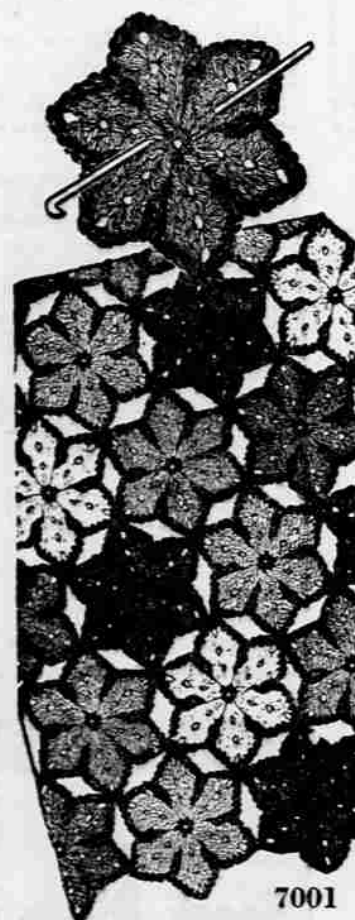

However, Barton said the Tax Commission research staff was not as optimistic as a group of House Republicans about a hike in revenue from present tax sources.

Barton said the Tax Committee planned to bring Hatfield's program to the floor for a vote. He noted the group of GOP members who suggested a new income tax plan had left out a change in capital gains recommended by Hatfield. This he termed unfortunate.

Barton said that among the cuts which may have to be made in an austerity budget would be higher salaries for state colleges.

Hollywood —UPB— Singer Lory White will go to Las Vegas this week to seek a "quickie" divorce from entertainer Sammy Davis Jr.
