Drysdale Exhibits Campanella's Help

By FRED DOWN United Press International Don Drysdale, one of the biggest flops of the 1958 baseball season, is exhibit A today that Roy Campanella can help the Los Angeles Dodgers even from a wheelchair.

The partly-paralyzed Campanella, serving as a Dodger coach this spring, insisted at the start of training that he could help the 22-year-old Drysdale recover the form that made him one of the National League's most effective pitchers in 1957. Drysdale slumped to a 12-13 record and 4.16 earned run average last year after a 17-9 and 2.69 slate in 1957.

Campanella insisted that Drysdale was losing his effectiveness because he had unconsciously discarded his three-quarter motion in favor of a sidearm delivery. He and Drysdale discussed the problem shortly after Campanella arrived at the Dodgers' Vero Beach, Fla., base and the 6-foot, 5-inch, 210-pound right-hander decided to follow Roy's advice.

The 1958 tailenders in each league "had a ball" for themselves, meanwhile, as the Philadelphia Phillies whipped the National League champion Milwaukee Braves, 13-7, and the Washington Senators shaded the world champion New York Yankees, 13-12. Wally Post hit two homers and Gene Freese hit one to pace a 17-hit Philadelphia attack on four Milwaukee pitchers. The Braves announced after the game that Mel Roach, the ailing substitute who was being groomed to replace Red Schoendienst will fly to Milwaukee Thursday to have his left knee examined by Dr. Bruce Brewer, who operated on it last August. NATIONAL LEAGUE United Press International The Chicago Black Hawks, fined $100 apiece for their lackluster play earlier this season, today owned a berth in the National Hockey league playoffs for the first time in six years. Led by their "pappy line" of Ted Lindsay, Tod Sloan and Ed Litzenberger, the Black Hawks scored three goals within a two-minute span in the final period Wednesday night to whip New York, 5-3. Coupled with Montreal's 6-2 triumph over Toronto, the Black Hawks' stirring victory enabled them to nail down a playoff berth and also helped them solidify their hold on second place. Pilot Says Pirates Need Hefty Bat at First Base

By LEO H. PETERSEN UPI Sports Editor Fort Myers, Fla. — (UPI) — Manager Danny Murtaugh feels his Pittsburgh Pirates can go all the way this year if "we come up with a big bat at first base." He's pretty sure he's going to get it, too, from among Dick Stuart, Ted Kluszewski, Rocky Nelson and R. C. Stevens.

Mr. WATERFILL, this is the purest surface limestone spring in Kentucky.

"We made the deal because we believe we improved our defense, got the left-handed starting pitcher we lacked last year in Haddix and a fine catcher and hitter in Burgess." Counting On Stuart, Klu The players he is counting on most at first is Stuart, who hit 16 home runs and batted in 48 in 67 games with the Pirates last season, and Big Klu. Stuart has the power, but he strikes out a lot.

Mr. FRAZIER, we could make beautiful bourbon together.

"We need a long-ball hitter at first to make up for the loss of Frank Thomas," Murtaugh reasoned. "There's no doubt we will miss his bat. So I figure whoever wins the first base job will have to plug the gap."

TRUE LIMESTONE BOURBON Pure surface limestone springs proclaimed Kentucky bourbon uniquely flavorful among the world's great whiskies. Today, Waterfill and Frazier maintain one of the last remaining surface limestone springs in Kentucky—ever loyal to the original formula of Jesse Waterfill and Holman Frazier.

Charley Equals Rifle Record

Clinton Charley tallied 394 out of a possible 400 last night to tie the highest rifle score ever posted on a Medford Rifle and Pistol club indoor range. He did it the hard way. After dropping two points sitting, one of the easier positions, he tallied 99 out of 100 kneeling and 97 standing. His prone score was a perfect 100. Ivan Waddell and Charles Botter are the only other ones who have equalled this score on a range of the Medford club.
