

Convention Announced

Mrs. A. O. Floyd, Medford, president of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, has announced the 32nd annual convention will be held at Lewis and Clark college, Portland, June 16, 17 and 18.

Portland, Multnomah, Pioneer and Clackamas districts will host about 600 delegates as well as national and regional officers.

Mrs. Verne I. Brader, Chemult, federation vice-president, is general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Lloyd Burris, Portland district director, as local chairman.

Dr. Elmo Stevenson, president of Southern Oregon college, Ashland, will speak on "Oregon History" the first evening. Mrs. Joe E. Wolff, Bellevue, Washington, one of the northwest's outstanding flower arrangers, will demonstrate the many uses of flowers and other material Wednesday evening. The convention will conclude June 18 with installation of state officers and presentation of annual Horticulture awards at the banquet.

Dinner to Aid Building Fund

A dinner dance will be held Monday, March 30, at Mon Desir Dining Inn to aid the building project for Our Lady of the Mountain Catholic church, Ashland.

The event is open to the public but due to space limitations, reservations must be made in advance, it was reported.

Dinner will be served from 7 until 9 p.m. and will be followed by dancing starting at 9 p.m. Music will be by the Thunderbirds, a five-piece dance band.

Reservations may be made in Ashland by telephoning Mrs. Richard Grubb, MURdock 2-9956, or contacting Mon Desir, NORmandy 4-2513.

League to Study Foreign Policy

Medford League of Women Voters will combine morning and afternoon unit meetings at the home of Mrs. David Boals, 34 Glen Oak court, Wednesday, March 18, at 9:45 a.m.

First part of a two-month discussion of foreign policy is on the agenda. Mrs. Frederick Burich has prepared the material and will moderate the discussion. The March meeting will cover the history and organization of U.S. foreign policy and its procedures. How foreign policy is formulated and put into operation will be explained.

Mrs. Fred Carr, unit chairman, cordially invites anyone interested in the discussion to attend.

Medford couples attending the annual formal ball of Hillah temple of the Shrine March 7 included Dr. and Mrs. Frank L. Unmack and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jorgensen. Dr. Unmack (at left) is a past potentate of Bagdad temple in Montana, the couple having lived in that state until coming to Medford a few years ago. Mrs. Jorgensen is seated at Dr. Unmack's left. About 700 Shriners and their ladies from Oregon, Washington, California and Nevada attended the ball.

Among the guests at the annual Potentate's ball of Hillah temple of the Shrine, held March 7 at the Medford Armory, were Potentate John D. Goss (at right) of Al Kader temple, Portland, and Potentate Hugo del Pero, Ben Ali temple, Sacramento, Calif., and their wives. Mrs. Goss wore a white taffeta gown designed with draped skirt trimmed with roses of the same material, and Mrs. Del Pero wore a lace frock of rose-beige trimmed with satin bands.

Blue Star Mothers To Elect Delegates

Delegates will be elected at a meeting of Medford chapter, Blue Star Mothers of America, Thursday, March 19, at the home of Mrs. Helen Watson, 617 Catherine street, at 1 p.m.

Dessert will be served. Reports will be presented on the school of instruction which was recently held at Grants Pass.

The department convention is scheduled in Cottage Grove April 24.

Miss Linda Lee Jackel Bride of Leroy Regester

Eagle Point—Miss Linda Lee Jackel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Jackel, route 1, box 441, became the bride of Larry Duane Regester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy L. Regester, Eagle Point, in a ceremony held March 5 at the New Age Church, Eagle Point.

The Rev. D. E. Millard officiated at the double ring ceremony, attended by 80 relatives and friends. Baskets of stock and blue carnations decorated the chapel for the eight o'clock evening wedding.

Mrs. Frank Powell played the traditional organ wedding music. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown fashioned with white lace bodice and satin skirt. Her fingertip length veil fell from a heart-shaped headpiece trimmed with pearls and she carried gardenias on a white Bible.

Mrs. Errol Tresham was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Bever and Miss Renny Hicks, Whittier, Calif. They wore floor length dresses of silver and powder blue lace over powder blue satin and carried nosegays of white carnations. Miss Carol Jean Jackel was candlelighter for her sister.

Errol Tresham served as best man while Charles Jenks and Douglas Chamberlain, Shady Cove, seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed Mrs. Jackel wore a Navy blue sheath dress with blue and white accessories. Mrs. Regester chose a cinnamon colored suit with turquoise accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations.

Mrs. M. H. Bever cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Max Woodward presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Herman Higday poured the coffee. Miss Beverly Tresham and Miss Maxine Woodward were in charge of the bride's book and the gifts.

Couple At Home In Salem

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Ivan Griffin, whose wedding took place February 14 at St. Andrew's Episcopal church in Portland, are living at 2050 North Capital avenue, Salem. The bride is the former Barbara Patricia Roach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Douglas Roach, 208 South Grove-land avenue, Medford and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Griffin, Salem.

The Rev. John Bright, formerly of St. Mark's Episcopal church, Medford, read the ceremony and Mr. Roach gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a suit of scholastic blue with corsage of white orchids and carried the prayer book given to her as a member of Bethel 14, International Order of Job's Daughters. She is a past queen of the Bethel.

Miss Joan Sherrill, Portland, sorority sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She also wore a blue suit and her corsage was of pink carnations.

Joseph Stewart, Lebanon, fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Following the double-ring ceremony, a reception for a small group of relatives and friends was given at the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Robert Saunders.

Both Mr. Griffin and his bride are seniors at Willamette university, and both are employed at the Oregon School for the Deaf. Mr. Griffin's major is physics, and Mrs. Griffin is majoring in psychology. She is being trained in special techniques for working with deaf children, and at present is engaged in testing and doing case histories at the school.

The bride is a member of Delta Gamma sorority, and the bridegroom's fraternity is Beta Theta Pi.

Family Dinner Observes 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie F. Scott, 2503 Finley lane, were honored recently on their fiftieth wedding anniversary. For the occasion a dinner was held at Mary's Casa March 11 followed by a family gathering at the Scott home.

The Scotts moved to Trail in 1944 where Mr. Scott was owner of the J. F. Scott and Sons Grocery store. Prior to his retirement he had been in the grocery business 33 years. Before moving to Medford they lived in Cascade Gorge.

The honored couple have four children. They are Carl W. Scott, Trail; Lyman Scott, Los Angeles; Mrs. Henry McCrary, Sullivan, Mo., and Mrs. William Cahill, St. Louis, Mo.; seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

The honored couple were married March 11, 1909, in Steelville, Mo., at the home of the bride's uncle, Cain Whitecotton. Mrs. Scott, the former Miss Bessie Broombaugh, recalled that on their wedding she and Mr. Scott had to cross two creeks by boat due to recent floods, and completed the 16 mile journey in a farm wagon. The ceremony was performed by a Baptist minister.
