

SHADY COVE Couple Returns Home

By EVELYN P. WATSON
Shady Cove-Trail—Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kelley of Shady Cove returned home last week from a three-month vacation in which they traveled through western and southern states and spent six weeks in Florida.

They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Chamberlain of Trail, who are expected home about April 1. Mrs. Chamberlain's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Max Lawson of Palo Alto, Calif., met the group in Florida, where they stayed a month.

Also in the group were the Kelley's friends, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hawkins of Lodi, Calif., and other friends, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nendel of Orcutt, Calif. The Nendels joined the group for their stay on the Florida Keys.

In Arizona, the Kelleys went on a rock hunting trip for fire agate near Oatman, where they met Mr. and Mrs. Boche, who are former residents of Shady Cove. They formerly lived on the River rd. and moved from here in about 1945.

In Scottsdale, Ariz., Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain visited former Trail residents, Mr. and Mrs. Winston McCleave, and Mrs. Miles Williams of Shady Cove and Mr. and Mrs. Walt Young of Eagle Point, who were spending the winter there.

Other stops were in Mobile, Ala., and in Baton Rouge and New Orleans, La.

In Panama City, Fla., the Chamberlains visited Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Jones, former Shady Cove residents.

Mrs. Henry Dufer of Trail is convalescing at the University of Oregon medical school hospital in Portland following major surgery. Mrs. Dufer is the mother of Mrs. Dean Elder of Shady Cove and Mrs. Joe Oliver and Mrs. Virgil Wilson of Trail.

Mrs. Clyde Stafford of Trail has returned from visiting her son and daughter-in-law in Lebanon and is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Norma Burroughs, Medford, where she is convalescing following a heart condition.

Newcomers to Trail are Mr. and Mrs. Spencer and family from Lake Arrowhead, Calif., who have purchased property on Elk creek from Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Hughes. The two boys are attending Crater High school in Central Point. The family plans to move in after school is out this spring.

Another newcomer to Shady Cove is A. J. Yarnall from Oklahoma who purchased property in Edgewood park where he plans to build.

Ed Brown of Shady Cove was elected secretary of the Shady Cove-Trail Volunteer Fire department recently. Meetings of the department are held on the first and third Mondays of the month with the board of directors meeting on the second Monday. A training film is shown on the first Monday and the third Monday is a practice run night. Practice runs are needed now because of the new fire truck. The department also asked all department volunteers to attend the meetings to learn to handle the equipment.

Other newcomers to Shady Cove are Mr. and Mrs. Delvin Zoller and two daughters who have rented the John Collins house on Old Ferry rd., Trail, and he is employed at Camp White.

There will be a meeting of the Rogue Wonderland association Tuesday, March 17, at 8:30 p.m. at Rogue River lodge. All members are asked to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nicholson have returned to their home on Rogue River rd. They have been in San Pedro, Calif. Mrs. Nicholson's mother, Mrs. Helga Hostetter, of Minneapolis, Minn., is visiting them.

Mrs. John Wilson of Shady Cove received word this week of the unexpected death of her brother, Dr. R. E. Walz, of Rapid City, S.D. Funeral services were held there Thursday, March 12. Dr. Walz recently retired from the Presbyterian ministry after 35 years of service.

Dick Bush of Trail is convalescing at home from a hip injury suffered in a one-car accident recently.

Members of Our Lady of Fatima Parish in Shady Cove will meet after Mass Sunday, March 22, for a clean-up day at the church to prepare for Easter and the Centennial. Work will not only be done in cleaning the church and hall but it is hoped that some planting of shrubbery to help beautify the grounds can be accomplished. Those planning to help are asked to bring a sack lunch. Coffee will be furnished.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dale

Sawyer of Shady Cove have been Sawyer's sister, Mrs. Jim Watkins, and his brother, Herbert Sawyer, both of Sacramento.

Newcomers to Trail are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McDaniels and Mr. and Mrs. Don Krizan, both couples from Fontana, Calif. They are renting both of Clyde Stafford's houses.

The McDaniels are friends of Mr. and Mrs. Craven. McDaniels and Craven were associated in the contracting business in California, and are now working as general contractors. The McDaniels also plan to open a cabinet shop in Trail.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Scott of Trail have expressed appreciation to the Shady Cove Volunteer Fire department and to others who helped to extinguish a fire last week at the residence of Glenn Albert. The Scotts owned the building.

Residents of the area who attended the annual meeting of the Rogue Basin Flood Control and Water Resources association in Grants Pass recently were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Satter, Mrs. Dick Pfeiffer and Mrs. Carroll Watson of Shady Cove, and Mrs. Burt Craven and George Field of Trail. Field was elected to the board of directors for a three-year term.

Guests present were Mrs. Charles Wells, Mrs. James Smith, Edgar Vanderlip and Ed Houston. C. B. Cordy, county agent, discussed grafting and budding. Eighteen members and guests attended.

Members of the Lucky Clover 4-H Cooking club met after school March 9 at the home of Judy Sanderson of Trail with 15 members present. Linda Scott, Peggy Dean Johnson and Judy Sanderson demonstrated a crab salad. The next meeting of the Cooking club will be held Monday, March 23, at the home of Sheri Watson in Shady Cove. A demonstration of cake making will be given by Kathy Middleton and Sheri Watson.

The Shady Cove PTA met March 10 in the Shady Cove school cafeteria. Following the flag salute by three Girl Scouts, the fourth grade band, under the direction of Gary Monical, played several numbers.

Mrs. William Kennedy and Mrs. Ed Brown were named to meet March 12 as representatives of the PTA at the VFW hall to plan the Centennial parade and celebration scheduled for early May.

Letters have been sent to all organizations urging them to have a representative present at the meeting to help formulate plans.

A variety show sponsored by the PTA and the Shady Cove school will be held on Saturday, April 11. Anyone who has talent is asked to participate.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barber of Laurelhurst rd., Trail, left recently for an extended European tour. During their absence, the place will be taken care of by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Finstrom of Trail. Prior to their departure, the Barbers were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Axtell.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kite and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Crumrin, all of Medford, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Massey, Trail.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Biddle and daughter, Carole, of Longbranch rd., Shady Cove, are planning to leave March 17 for a trip to San Francisco on business.

Mrs. Lawrence Sanderson of Happy Camp, Calif., spent Wednesday in Shady Cove visiting her son, Larry Sanderson.

Get It Off Your Chest
Does it make you angry to know that the Communists keep millions of captive Europeans buried under a blanket of lies? Do you want to fight these lies with the truth? Now you can get it off your chest. Now you can fight Communism lies with your own Truth Broadcast—beamed behind the Iron Curtain over Radio Free Europe.

And you may be flown to Europe to broadcast it yourself... or you may be awarded one of 200 high-powered Hallicrafters short-wave radios!

On a plain sheet of paper just complete this sentence in 25 additional words or less... "As an American I support Radio Free Europe because..." Double your award if you send one dollar (or more) with your entry! If you send a dollar to Crusade for Freedom, and your entry is selected, a member of your family may be flown to Europe with you... or you will receive a Westinghouse transistor radio along with your short-wave receiver!

Send your entries to: Crusade for Freedom, Box 32-E, Mount Vernon, N.Y. Truth broadcasts will be judged for appropriateness, clarity, sincerity and originality. Competition closes March 31, 1939. All contributions go in their entirety to Radio Free Europe.
