Lage-Lemings Ceremony Held in Medford Church

Miss Dorothy Coretta Lemings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin G. Lemings, 546 Mary street, became the bride of Delbert Elmer Lage, Seattle, Wash., in a ceremony held March 14 at the Foursquare church here. The Rev. R. H. Mathewson officiated at the seven o'clock evening ceremony attended by 53 relatives and friends.

Mr. Lage is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lage, Spokane. Stock and pink snapdragons decorated the church for the rites. Mrs. Loyd Rasmussen was soloist and was accompanied by Miss Velda Krause at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length white nylon frock styled on princess lines. The fingertip length veil was held by a nylon headpiece and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and hyacinth encircling an orchid.

Mrs. C. C. Rhoades was matron of honor for her cousin. She wore a pink brocade taffeta frock with white accessories. Her flowers were a cascade bouquet of pink carnations and pink hyacinth.

Jackie and Ronnie McCart were candlelighters. They wore pink nylon frocks and had pink carnations wristlets. Little Luana Hilby, Seattle, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a pink and blue flowered print frock with short face veil and a wristlet of carnations.

Walter Hilby, Seattle, served as best man for his brother-in-law. Ushers were Leon Lemings and Leonard Lemings, brothers of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Girls Community club. The couple traveled to California on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a light blue suit with white accessories. They will be at home in Seattle after March 23.

The bride attended Medford High school. Mr. Lage attended Spokane schools and is employed by Boeing Aircraft corporation in Seattle.

Session Planned By Methodists

The Rogue Sub-district of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet at St. Luke's Methodist church Tuesday, March 31. Registration will begin at 9 a.m. with a worship service at 10 a.m.

The business meeting will include reports and pledges from society presidents and election of officers will be held. Present for the affair will be members from Ashland, Talent, Cave Junction, Gold Hill, Grants Pass, Wilderville, and Medford.

Luncheon will be served by the St. Luke's WSCS.

General Federation Officer To Speak in Cave Junction

Mrs. Dexter O. Arnold, Concord, N.H., third vice-president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, will attend a meeting of the First district of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs set for April 4. It will be held at Cave Junction.

Mrs. Arnold will attend a luncheon planned for the district session, and remain for the afternoon session. She is expected to motor down from Portland with state federation officers.

Mrs. C. W. Peterson, Ashland, district chairman, states that the meeting will be held at Immanuel Methodist church in Cave Junction. Registration will begin at 9 a.m., and coffee will be served. Business is planned from 10 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. when luncheon will be served. The afternoon session will close at 3:30 p.m.

Mrs. Peterson invites all women of the district to attend the session and hear Mrs. Arnold speak, and states that those attending need not belong to any group. Women planning to attend the luncheon are asked to make reservations with Mrs. Doris Boyd, Route 1, Box 820, Cave Junction, not later than March 30.

Mrs. Peterson states that Mrs. Arnold has traveled much in both the United States and Europe, and spent nine summers abroad. A former teacher in Syracuse, New York, she has also worked as an interviewer and producer for the Columbia Broadcasting system, is the author of a textbook on speech and has written plays. She is active in both the Concord and New Hampshire Leagues of Women Voters, is a member of American Association of University Women and in 1952 was voted New Hampshire's most distinguished citizen.

As an officer of the general federation, Mrs. Arnold works with the largest international organization in the world, having 11,000,000 members in 50 countries.
