

School Principals To Meet Saturday

Elementary school principals from Jackson, Klamath, Lake and Josephine counties will hold their annual meeting at Wilson school in Medford starting at 8:30 a.m. Saturday, John Myers, principal of Phoenix elementary school and president of the Southern region of the association, has announced.

Keynote speaker will be Elliott Becken, assistant superintendent of Medford schools, who will discuss "Discipline in Today's Schools." General theme this year is "setting the pace in the age of space." Myers said various regions of the state are studying different aspects of the principal's role in today's schools. The southern region, he noted, is working on the subject "The Principle of Discipline."

The subject also will be the topic of a panel discussion led by Francis Farthing, principal of Talent school and chairman of the regional study committee of the association.

All superintendents and elementary supervisors in the southern region are invited. About 50 principals are expected to attend, Myers said.

MYSTERY WRITER DIES

La Jolla, Calif. — Raymond Chandler, 71, mystery writer and creator of the fictional, tough-talking private detective Philip Marlowe, died Thursday of pneumonia. He was dean of the country's mystery writers who featured a hardboiled, clipped style of writing about he-man heroes with hearts of gold.

The service is available by telephoning the Medford Moose lodge SPRING 3-9129 between 8:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. Sunday.

Los Angeles Man Appears in Court

Charles P. McCauley, Los Angeles, Calif., pleaded guilty in district court Wednesday morning to a charge of making a false statement in writing to procure benefit.

He waived the right to a preliminary hearing and an attorney and his case was continued until April 3 by Judge Roy Bashaw for sentencing.

McCauley, who is being held in the county jail without bail, was arrested by sheriff's deputies earlier this week.
