

Lady Margaret, Beau Jack, Queenie Win Trial Stakes

Lady Margaret of Crater Lake, Queenie of Redding and Beau Jack of Honey Lake were stake winners Friday and Saturday in the eighth annual Rogue Valley Retriever club field trial.

Lady Margaret, Labrador female, owned and handled by Otto L. Lily, Trail and Medford, was victor in the qualifying stake yesterday. Roland Watt, Redding, Calif., and Queenie, Labrador female, captured amateur all-age laurels on Friday. And, in the other Friday event, the derby, first spot was earned by Beau Jack. The Labrador male, is owned by Ed Bailey, Redding, Calif., who also handled the dog in gaining the honors.

The American Kennel Club-licensed trial is being conducted in the Camp White area on game commission management land and at Hoover lakes. Completion of the open all-age stake today will wrap up the competition. One open series was run yesterday afternoon.

Today's first series is to start at 8 a.m. at the clubhouse at Hoover lakes off the end of McLoughlin dr.

Public Welcome
The public is welcome to join the gallery at the trial. Signs, beginning at the Y at the north edge of Medford point the way. Trial area may be reached by driving out Crater Lake highway. Special note of the signs should be taken at the Four Corners.

A concessions booth is operating at the trial site. Pheasants shot at the event are sold and RVRC officials reported that the birds are good and fat.

Lady Margaret was one of 33 starters in the qualifying stake. Nineteen dogs were entered in the amateur and 28 in the derby.

Second in the qualifying fair was The Judge of Dublin

Gulch, Labrador male, owned by Father John P. Kendregan, Belt, Mont., and handled by Ed. Minoggie, Portland. Shawn's Golden Boy, golden male, owned by Mrs. John M. Preston, Hillsborough, Calif., and handled by Marvin Bellevue, Sonoma, Calif., was third. Fourth was Peter Dee of Hawk Home, Labrador male, owned by Ward Hawkins, Garden City, and handled by Roy Wallace, Garden City, Reserve Award

Reserve certificate of merit in the qualifying stake was given to Ace's Pacer of Winniway, Labrador male, owned by Durward Turner, Bothell, Wash., and handled by Paul Shoemaker, Issaquah, Wash.

CMS were presented to B.I. Lone Prince of Smudge Lake, Labrador male, owned and handled by B. I. Claska, Eugene, Mount Joy's Jug Ears, Chesapeake female, owned by E. C. Fleischmann, Sebastopol, Calif., and handled by Mrs. Fleischmann and Platte River Jane, Chesapeake female, owned and handled by Mrs. Walter Heller, San Rafael, Calif.

Four series were run in the qualifying stake in the game management area. One was a two-pigeon retrieve in heavy cover and one was a blind retrieve of a pigeon with a diversion gunner. Three ducks were retrieved in tules and pot holes in a third with decoys used. A two-duck series with water blind and a diversion bird was the fourth.

Tremendo Second
Taking second in the amateur was Tremendo of Quesnel Lake, Labrador male, owned by Mrs. Bruce Wallace, Sebastopol, Calif., and handled by her husband, Rogue River Devilkin, Labrador male, owned and handled by Claude Miles, Medford, gained third. Fourth place entry was My Lady Castlemaine, Labrador female, owned and handled by E. R. Desrosiers, Eureka, Calif.

A second Roland Watt dog, Lucinda of Crater Lake, Labrador female, was awarded the reserve certificate of merit. Amateur stake CMS went to Atom Bob, Chesapeake male, owned and handled by Dr. John Lundy, of Boise, Idaho, and to Nodak Black Target, Labrador male, owned and handled by L. P. Floberg, Fargo, N. D.

There were four series in the amateur. First was a double pheasant retrieve in the Hoover lakes area. There was heavy cover with ridges and the dogs honored. Second test, also at Hoover lakes, was a land blind pheasant event with about a 100-yard retrieve, diagonally across ridges. Then there was a triple duck retrieve on water, on game commission management land on the north side of Rogue river. A water blind with a diagonal retrieve across the lake and with a diversion made up the fourth test, and was on the management property.

Aksarben Gent Runner-Up
Aksarben Gent, Labrador male, owned and handled by Roger E. Horton, San Gabriel, Calif., was derby runner-up, and Techacko's Ranger, Labrador male, owned and handled by Minoggie, was third. Fourth place was awarded to Bellota Clinker, Labrador male, owned and handled by Nick C. Peters, Sauk Rapids, Minn.

Cookie, Labrador female of Tom Rickard, Medford, received a reserve certificate of merit in the derby. CMS were given to Primo Gringe, Labrador male of B. I. Claska; Shas Lassen Biff, Labrador male owned by R. G. Watt, Redding, Calif., and handled by Bob Hyatt, Redding, and MacKenzie's Di Dee Doe, Labrador female, owned by Bert Carlson, Seattle, Wash., and handled by Shoemaker.

Dogs were run through three series in the derby. First was a long single pigeon retrieve and third was a double duck test on water. Right duck was a short retrieve and the other, across a channel in tules, was a long one. All series were on the game management property on the south side of the river.

James F. Stillwell, Klamath Falls, and Siebert Stephens, Redding, Calif., judged the amateur. Stillwell and Robert Morris, Central Point, the derby and Stephens and Morris the qualifying stake. Stephens and Stillwell are the open judges.

Oregon Staters Defeat Idaho

Lewiston, Idaho —UPI— Dick Monte pitched Washington State college to a 13-1 victory over Montana State university here in a Banana Belt collegiate baseball tourney game Friday.

In an afternoon game, Ray Lunde pitched nine innings, gave up five hits, and walked four to help Oregon State to a 10-2 win over Idaho.

Grim Mason of Oregon State got three hits, scored two runs and knocked in four more to clinch the Beaver win.

Chisox Have Best Shot at Yankees, Al Lopez Figures

(This is the 10th dispatch on the prospects of the major league clubs in 1959.)

By LEO H. PETERSON
UPI Sports Editor
Tampa, Fla. —UPI— Al Lopez, who has beaten the Yankees only once in eight tries, claims he is going to do it again in 1959.

As manager of the Cleveland Indians he beat the Yankees in 1954. In five other seasons with Cleveland, and the last two years with the Chicago White Sox, he always has finished second.

He thinks his third White Sox club is going to do the job.

"I figure we have the best shot at them, with Detroit right up there, too," Lopez reasoned. "One of us is going to beat the Yankees this year. I honestly feel we're the club that is going to do it."

He likes his pitching, his down-the-middle combination of Luis Aparicio at shortstop, Nellie Fox at second and Jim Landis in centerfield and his catching, led by the long-ball hitting Sherman Lollar.

What he doesn't like is his first base situation and his pitching.

Some Bullpen Help
"If we could come up with a big bat at first and a little bullpen help, Casey Stengel would finish second for sure," Lopez said. "I'm tired of finishing there. Let good old Casey or Bill Norman manager of the Tigers have that spot. Our aim is first place and I honestly feel we're going to make it."

His first base situation is such that he even is considering moving Lollar to that position if Earl Battey continues to improve in his catching and if veterans Ray Boone and Earl Torgenson and big Ron Jackson can't fill the bill on a full-time basis.

Boone has slowed down, Torgenson is 35 and Jackson still has to prove he can hit major league pitching. He hasn't been able to thus far this spring.

Short and second are set, of course, with Aparicio and Fox and at third it will be Bubba Phillips with the veteran Billy Goodman behind him. Sam Efoster will be the utility infielder and rookie John Romano, who hit .291 at Indianapolis last season, the third string catcher. That leaves Catcher Les Moss in the expendable class.

Going With Callison
In the outfield, Lopez is going with rookie John Callison in left, Landis in center and Al Smith, who appears to have recovered from his leg injury of last season, in right.

"I'm going all the way with Callison," Lopez explained. "Last year I decided to do the same with Landis. He was hitting only .200 in July, but I stayed with him and he turned out to be the goods. I'm going to stay with Callison the same way."

MH Links Gang Wins

Medford high's golf team started off its season Saturday morning with a 428 to 444 verdict over Marshfield at Rogue Valley Country club.

Mike Monroe, Medford, and Jim Baker, Marshfield, shared medalist laurels. Monroe fired 40-40-80 for the Tornado and Baker 42-38-80 for the Pirates.

Medford scores included Larry Brown 43-41-84, John Frohnmayer 44-42-86, Bob Jones 46-43-89 and Harold Holmes 45-44-89.

For Marshfield Jack Fitzpatrick had 41-44-85, Ed Moffitt 50-43-93, Gary Robinson 48-45-93 and Dick Long 49-44-93.

The Black Tornado linksmen will vie against Mt. Shasta high in a match at Weed, Calif., next Saturday, Coach Paul Evensen reported.

Collegians Edge Medford Nine In Scrimmage

Southern Oregon college baseballers picked up two runs to Medford's high's none Saturday in a five-inning scrimmage in mud and rain at Ashland.

The Raiders, shut out for four innings by Medford hurler Tom Laurance, got a hit by Eldon Francis and used a hit batter, wild pitches, error and stolen base for runs in the fifth.

Ken Durkee, Medford, got the only other hit of the practice, off Dave D'Olivo, who walked one Medfordite and fanned one in three innings. Don Vannice, pitching the last two innings for SOC, struck out five and walked one.

Laurance issued three bases on balls. He struck out three, including the side in the third inning. Pat McLaughlin twirled the last frame for Medford.

MIGHTY MITE
Los Angeles —UPI— When Jerry Barber used to step up to the tee and start matching shots with the professional giants of golf, little men everywhere took heart, for the California mite stands only five-five and weighs 137 pounds.

Jerry retired from the tour in 1955 to take a job as a pro at the swank Wilshire Country club here.

The unranked but industrious little Gomes scored a major upset Friday night when he gained a unanimous decision over "Fancy-Dan" Paul Jorgensen, the No. 2 featherweight contender, in their nationally-televised 10-round bout. The loss snapped Jorgensen's unbeaten string at 31 bouts and automatically made Gomes a name to conjure with in the "little men's" division.

Referee Billy Regan called the bout for Gomes, 96-95, judge Carl Gardner scored it 98-95 and judge Fred Aaronson favored the Providence boy, 97-95. The United Press International had Gomes ahead, 97-95.

SLOWPOKE
Lake Worth, Fla. —UPI— The ladies on the professional golf tour call Kathy Cornelius "Prontito." It's their version of the more common Spanish word "pronto" although Kathy's anything but fast. She is by far the slowest and most deliberate player on the circuit.

Eagles Trip Butte Falls

Eagle Point — Eagle Point high broket into 1959 baseball contention Friday with an 11 to 5 victory over Butte Falls at Butte Falls.

The two clubs meet again Tuesday at Eagle Point and the Eagles will entertain Talent on Wednesday.

A pair of freshmen hit the big blows for Eagle Point on Friday. Dick Wilson homered and Steve Wilson socked a double and single. Raymond Abbott tripled in the three Butte Falls runs in the fourth inning. Jerry Cavin's triple helped in a sixth inning Butte Falls score. He also doubled in the game.

Bud Bever's double and Dusty Gerbing's single figured in second inning run production for Eagle Point. Jim Nease singled in two makers in the third frame and Duke Wild's safety helped in the fifth. Wilson had his homer and Geren his double in the seventh.
